Dialogues of Paul Tillich Mary Ann Stenger, Ronald H. Stone, 2002 The broad impact of Paul Tillich on present day philosophical theological thoughtforms especially of Protestant Christianity continues unabated into the new century Dialogues of Paul Tillich presents Tillich's conversations with past religious thinkers basic to Tillich's thought but also carries the dialogue beyond Tillich's own formulations into conversations with current issues regarding feminism liberation theology fundamentalism world religions and Christian realism BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Because He Has Spoken to Us Brad Bursa, 2022-05-11 Pope John XXIII called the Second Vatican Council so that the Church's doctrine might be more widely known more deeply understood and more penetrating in its effects However since the close of the Council in 1965 the results are wanting Rather than announcing the gospel boldly in the present age the Church has been seemingly reduced to silence How did she lose her voice How did the structures of proclamation intended to hand on the Catholic faith devolve and even contribute to vaporizing a Catholic culture Because He Has Spoken to Us traces such developments from fixed points drawn from the fluid theology of Karl Rahner to their postmodern condition successive steps that usher in the crisis by subduing dismissing and silencing the tradition This postconciliar anthropocentric structure can now be better understood critiqued and displaced by a Ratzingerian approach Rather than embracing a given demanded by contemporary context Ratzinger proposes the revelation of the Logos in Jesus Christ as the given the true object of Christian faith His alternate proposal requires the courage to face the full scope of the Christian structure accessed through the Church's tradition and a willingness to proclaim the gospel personally and with humble confidence A Theological Aesthetics of Liberation Vicente Chong, 2019-02-07 Since its emergence in the sixties of the last century liberation theology in Latin America has paid little attention to the areas of aesthetics and art At the same time theological aesthetics seldom has been directly and explicitly concerned about the reality of the poor and the struggle for justice This mutual disinterest between liberation theology and theological aesthetics is regrettable because discerning a correlation between them would benefit both theological disciplines in their attempt to understand the saving action of God in the world It is the intention of this book to fill that gap A Theological Aesthetics of Liberation correlates liberation theology and theological aesthetics exploring different themes such as the liberating power of art and how the Spirit of God is involved in the process of liberation in and through art This study is a critical reflection upon the question of the beauty of Jesus Christ especially in relationship with the event of the cross and upon its meaning for Christian life This book analyzes such topics in conversation with important theologians Gustavo Guti rrez Jon Sobrino Karl Rahner Hans Urs von Balthasar Edward Schillebeeckx and other contemporary Christian theologians who have explored these themes Pathways for

Incarnation and Resurrection Paul D. Molnar, 2007-06-15 For too long contemporary theology has downplayed the importance of holding together the incarnation and the resurrection when thinking theologically Paul Molnar here surveys the place of these key doctrines in the thought of several influential theologians Karl Barth Karl Rahner Thomas F Torrance John Macquarrie Gordon Kaufman Sallie McFague Roger Haight John Hick and Wolfhart Pannenberg Molnar demonstrates that whenever the starting point for interpreting the resurrection is not Jesus himself the incarnate Son of the Father then Christology and Soteriology are undermined because they are not properly rooted in a plausible doctrine of the Trinity Fair comprehensive and balanced Molnar s analysis following Torrance and Barth highlights the details of contemporary theology of the resurrection linked to the incarnation and maintains the necessity of the incarnation in its intrinsic unity with the resurrection as the beginning rather than the end of Christology

Mission Shaped by Promise Jukka A. Kääriäinen, 2012-10-03 Utilizing resources from Martin Luther and the Lutheran tradition this study offers an understanding of the gospel as promise as key to addressing the challenge of relating the missio Dei to a generous constructive approach toward the religious other In its construction of a Lutheran missiology it retrieves and reappropriates four resources from the Lutheran tradition the gospel as promise the law gospel distinction a theology of grace as promise of mercy fulfilled and a theology of the cross utilizing the hiddenness of God The law of God as accusing yet webbing humanity to its Creator the gospel as the comforting promise of mercy and the hiddenness of God as mystifying form the overarching framework within which the Lutheran missiology presented here seeks to engage the religious other by dialectically relating gospel proclamation and dialogue Such a view of mission shaped by promise offers the paradox of God being both revealed and hidden in the cross as a distinctive contribution to an interreligious dialogue centered on the ambiguity and hiddenness of God often been linked with Communist regimes will of control However the persuasion that social and economic processes could and should be regulated was by no means limited to them Intense debates on these issues developed already during the First World War in Europe and became globalized during the World Economic crisis During the Cold War such discussions fuelled competition between two models of economic and social organisation but they also revealed the convergences and complementarities between them This ambiguity so often overlooked in histories of the Cold War represents the central issue of the book organized around three axes First it highlights how know how on planning circulated globally and were exchanged by looking at international platforms and organizations The volume then closely examines specificities of planning ideas and projects in the Communist and Capitalist World Finally it explores East West channels generated by exchanges around issues of planning which functioned irrespective of the Iron Curtain and were exported in developing countries The volume thus contributes to two fields undergoing a process of profound reassessment the history of modernisation and of the Cold War
