Living Love Restoring Hope In The Church:

Living Love Jack Dominian, 2004 JACK DOMINIAN is the author of several influential books that have helped to revolutionize the way Catholics think about sexuality love and marriage He is also one of the most thoughtful and provocative voices in the Christian community a prominent critic of Vatican teachings on contraception and sexual ethics while at the same time one of the most articulate and convincing defenders of the vital importance of the Gospel of Jesus to healing and wholeness Living Love brings together a lifetime of clinical work and theological reflection to create a compelling new vision for the future of Christianity Dominian's previous books have called for a radical transformation in our understanding of sexuality Now he goes further describing the fundamental shift in attitudes and teachings the churches must make if they are to survive as a credible force in the contemporary World We need to stop being mesmerized by the ideal of love and make the living practice of loving the centre of Christian life Above all the Church should live with a spirituality of love at the centre with Church law at the periphery

The Postsecular Sacred David Tacey, 2019-07-16 In The Postsecular Sacred Jung Soul and Meaning in an Age of Change David Tacey presents a unique psychological study of the postsecular adding a Jungian perspective to a debate shaped by sociology philosophy and religious studies In this interdisciplinary exploration Tacey looks at the unexpected return of the sacred in Western societies and how the sacred is changing our understanding of humanity and culture Beginning with Jung's belief that the psyche has never been secular Tacey examines the new desire for spiritual experience and presents a logic of the unconscious to explain it Tacey argues that what has fuelled the postsecular momentum is the awareness that something is missing and the idea that this could be buried in the unconscious is dawning on sociologists and philosophers While the instinct to connect to something greater is returning Tacey shows that this need not imply that we are regressing to superstitions that science has rejected The book explores indigenous spirituality in the context of the need to reanimate the world not by going back to the past but by being inspired by it There are chapters on ecopsychology and quantum physics and using Australia as a case study the book also examines the resistance of secular societies to becoming postsecular Approaching postsecularism through a Jungian perspective Tacey argues that we should understand God in a manner that accords with the time not go back to archaic rejected images of divinity The sacred is returning in an age of terrorism and this is not without significance in terms of the explosive impact of spirituality in our time Innovative and relevant to the world we live in this will be of great interest to academics and scholars of Jungian studies anthropology indigenous studies philosophy religious studies and sociology due to its transdisciplinary scope It would also be a useful resource for analytical psychologists Jungian analysts and psychotherapists

Father's House Leonie Smith,2019-10-25 Most people visit a church for the first time either by invitation or reputation Many books have been written on the subject of personal evangelism and the importance of being a bringer This book however explores the power of reputation specifically God s reputation as upheld and reflected in a church s culture Based on the story of the Queen of Sheba s visit to King Solomon and how her initial encounter with his kingdom left her breathless and astounded this book explores the profound effect a church s culture can have on the heart of a seeker as they pursue rumours of King Jesus and His Kingdom It warns that Kingdom culture doesn t happen by chance but only as every member of the King s household lays down their own comfortable and familiar culture to surrender instead to the common culture of Heaven This book has been written to inspire every Christian to vigilantly uphold Heaven s culture when living loving and serving in the Fathers House their local church It implores us all not to waste another minute in engaging our God given gifts and talents to create Heaven on Earth so that the Kingdom of God might be revealed in all of its glory to a world that is in desperate need of its wisdom power and atmosphere Only then having tasted Heaven will lost people truly desire to seek out this Kingdom s magnificent King Belhar Confession Mary-Anne Plaatjies-Van Huffel,2017-12-12 e The subject of the
