story is linked to another, but the story helps, may not be aware that she is connecting them. For the first time we subject her to doing so. A young mother who was chronically treated in a clinical situation involving her two children by jumping into the laps of both of them. The two stories - her's as a child and her's as a mother - are interrelated, but, in spite of the connection between them still it was pointed out by the therapist. Thus the story of each story, allowing it to stand on its own, so that she could make a choice.

But, as we have seen, the family's problems were not limited to the mother's depression. In fact, the father's depression was also a significant factor in the family's problems. The father's depression was a result of the mother's depression, and the father's depression was a result of the mother's depression. The father's depression was a result of the mother's depression, and the father's depression was a result of the mother's depression.

Living Stories Pastoral Counseling In Congregational Context:

Living Stories Donald Capps, In Living Stories Donald Capps makes a forceful case for the importance of pastoral counseling in the life of a congregation Arguing convincingly for a paradigmatic revolution Capps offers a radically new model that gives systematic and constructive attention to the way people actually story their lives inspirationally paradoxically or miraculously Through such engagement pastors can help people discover their own stories discern the shape and direction of those stories and move constructively to find new understandings or more hopeful possibilities in their life situations Giving Counsel Donald Capps,2001-11-01 For most ministers pastoral counseling is a part of daily ministry whether it is in an office counseling session or in a chance meeting with a parishioner outside the church Whatever the setting ministers are often called on to provide counsel and by virtue of their calling and training are expected to do so This

how to guide for seminary students and ministers explores the role of the minister as counselor and provides a method for giving counsel Renowned pastoral care expert Donald Capps equips readers with basic knowledge and skills and helps them to create a framework to ensure that all conversations where counsel is given will be valuable and not harmful to the person involved Using a problem resolving approach Capps leads readers through How to Create a Listening Environment How to Construct a Conversation How to Think Systemically How to Interpret Stories How to Manage Boundaries Giving Counsel is the perfect resource for seminary students and ministers of all faiths whether you are beginning your study or looking for a single resource to serve your ministry

Uncovering Spiritual Narratives Suzanne M. Coyle,2014-04-01 All cultures use story as a way to make sense of life experiences Yet for many particularly in the western world only a single story line is seen as the real truth Using narrative therapy as a caregiving approach can help individuals uncover multilayered narratives that are far more complex and liberating Coyle contends that not only are these more complex narratives more helpful in giving our lives meaning they also critique the cultural discourses in which they arose Drawing on both theological approaches and real life experiences Coyle creates a contextual pastoral theology that helps caregivers find the power of God in people s stories

Pastoral Counseling for Orphans and Vulnerable Children Tuntufye Anangisy Mwenisongole,Elia Shabani Mligo,2018-04-27 The existence of orphans is as inevitable to most African cities and the world as it is death These orphans are caused by the death of one or both parents due to various reasons including the scourge of HIV and AIDS Being orphans most of them are vulnerable to difficult lives because they have nobody to fend for them and take care of their lives They lack adequate food living expenses school fees and care since their current guardians are also in adverse economic situations In such situations orphans end up living a life of hopelessness and trauma which makes them deeply remember their dead parents and the care they received from them before death Following the vulnerable situation of most orphans this book through a study done in the Tanzanian context challenges churches to extend their counseling and caring ministries to Orphans and Vulnerable Children OVC It purports that the use of narrative approach is the most effective way to enter into the world of vulnerable children in order to provide pastoral counseling to them This approach helps pastoral counselors to use life stories proverbs biblical narratives plays arts songs riddles poems symbols and images as healing and coping mechanisms for OVC Therefore this book is helpful not only to churches and their ministry to orphans and vulnerable children but also to those who care for orphans in their homes Moreover it will be helpful to children who live in adverse conditions worldwide to find ways to cope with their situations through the stories of children used inside this book

Humor Us Donald Capps, 2016-10-21 This book addresses the fact that Americans tend to live under a considerable amount of stress tension and anxiety and suggests that humor can be helpful in alleviating their distress It posits that humor is a useful placebo in this regard cites studies that show that humor moderates life stress considers the relationship of religion and humor especially as means to alleviate anxiety proposes that Jesus had a sense of humor suggests that his parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard has humorous implications for the relief of occupational stress explores the relationship of gossip and humor and suggests that Jesus and his disciples were a joking community It concludes that Jesus viewed the kingdom of God as a worry free existence Religious Mourning Nathan Carlin, 2014-04-24 Religious Mourning is about a common experience among those who study religion religious loss When people of faith study religion critically or when life experiences such as death and divorce trigger personal reflection on faith religious intellectuals often become estranged from their own tradition Sometimes this estrangement causes them to leave religion altogether But for those who study religion from a psychological perspective a certain kind of introspective and iconoclastic religiosity can be revived by means of academic writing Religious Mourning explores this phenomenon by focusing on psychobiographical writings about religious leaders including Donald Capps portrait of Jesus of Nazareth James Dittes portrait of Saint Augustine and William Bouwsma s portrait of John Calvin to show how these authors personal lives and especially their experiences of loss influence their scholarship As Capps Dittes and Bouwsma subversively scavenge the lives of Jesus Augustine and Calvin to reverse and restore a religion that is rich with experience including and especially their own they invite us to do the same

Undocumented Migration as a Theologizing Experience Eunil David Cho, 2024-09-02 In Undocumented Migration as a Theologizing Experience Eunil David Cho examines how Korean American undocumented young adults tell religious stories to cope with the violence of uncertainty and construct new meanings for themselves Based on in depth interviews guided by narrative inquiry the book follows the stories of ten Korean American DACA Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals recipients who have found their lives in limbo While many experience narrative foreclosure believing My story is over Cho highlights how telling religious stories enables them to imagine and create new stories for themselves not as shunned outsiders but as beloved children of God Valor and Vulnerability Robert C. Dykstra, Ryan LaMothe, 2025-04-10 Intimacy vulnerability precarity resiliency and loss are ingredients of any life though they take on particular shape and tone when we listen to the experiences of boys and men The voices and stories of men and boys are invitations for pastoral ministers and theologians to understand and respond to their joys struggles and sorrows as well as to recognize and affirm their courage and strengths In this book thirteen scholars in pastoral theology from diverse backgrounds and perspectives collaborate in engaging art literature the social sciences and cultural artifacts to explore the intersection of masculinity and religious life in rich and varied forms Their aim in part is not only to deepen and appreciate wide ranging experiences of boys and men but also to attend and respond to systemic realities that contribute to or undermine their flourishing Finding Ourselves Lost

Robert C. Dykstra, 2018-06-13 This book wrestles with quandaries of pastoral ministry in what psychotherapist Mary Pipher calls the age of overwhelm Drawing especially from the wisdom of Jesus own teaching and healing ministries as portrayed in the Gospel of Luke it offers an intimate narrative introduction to pastoral theology for guiding bewildering tasks of pastoral care and counseling These essays encourage seminarians and ministers to embrace their role as agents of healing by exploring their own debilitating shame and daring to speak what in childhood could not be spoken by revealing their discoveries to a trusted confidant so as to feel less loathsome or lonely by attending to even minute individual differences in self and others that fuel social isolation and by believing in those persons who first believed in them Psychological Hermeneutics for Biblical Themes and Texts: HAROLD J. ELLENS, J. Harold Ellens, 2012-04-26 An assessment of the development and achievements of the field of Psychological Hermeneutics Spiritual Care and Therapy Peter L. Care Robert C Dykstra, 2005-01-01 This book is an edited volume of works that have predominated over the past several decades in contemporary pastoral theology Through the writings of nineteen leading voices in the history of pastoral care

Dykstra shows how each contributor developed a metaphor for understanding pastoral care. Such metaphors include the solicitous shepherd, the wounded healer, the intimate stranger, the midwife, and other tangible images. Through these works, the reader gains a sense of the varied identities of pastoral care professionals, their struggles for recognition in this often controversial field, and insight into the history of the discipline. Includes readings by Anton T. Boisen, Alastair V. Campbell, Donald Capps, James E. Dittes, Robert C. Dykstra, Heije Faber, Charles V. Gerkin, Brita L. Gill, Austern Karen R. Hanson, Seward Hiltner, Margaret Zipse Kornfeld, Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, Jeanne Stevenson Moessner, Henri J. M. Nouwen, Gaylord Noyce, Paul W. Pruyser, Edward P. Wimberly. The Practice of Collaborative Counseling and Psychotherapy David Pare, 2012-12-19

The Practice of Collaborative Counseling and Psychotherapy: Developing Skills in Culturally Mindful Helping is a comprehensive introduction to counseling and psychotherapy skills designed to teach future practitioners how to develop and foster collaborative relationships with their clients. Keeping power relations and cultural diversity at the forefront, Par's text examines step by step the skills involved in collaborative therapeutic conversation, an approach that encourages a contextual view of clients and counteracts longstanding traditions of focusing primarily on individual pathology. Indeed, this insightful text teaches students how to keep clients at the heart of their therapy treatment by actively engaging them in the helping process.

The Power of Stories Rev. Jacqueline J. Lewis, 2010-09-01 Most congregational leaders find it difficult to resist the dominant cultural expectation that different cultural and ethnic groups should stick to themselves, especially when it comes to church. But some congregational leaders have learned the secrets of breaking out of these expectations to bring together communities of faith that model God's radical inclusiveness. What makes the difference? Jacqui Lewis explains that it resides in the stories these leaders tell: stories about who they themselves are and what the communities they lead are about. These leaders are able to embrace the multiple, complex stories within these diverse communities, hearing in the many voices a particular echo of the living voice of the gospel. In this book, Lewis shares with the reader examples of congregational leaders who have successfully overcome the challenges of leading multicultural congregations and the lessons that can be learned from them. Jacqueline J. Lewis is Senior Minister for Vision, Worship, and the Arts at Middle Collegiate Church in New York.

Pastoral Power Beyond Psychology's Marginalization Philip Browning Helsel, 2016-04-29 This book explores the suffering of social class and how traditional biomedical models for mental illness do not adequately account for the stresses of poverty. Turning to mental health user testimonies, this book equips ministers and counsellors to become working class advocates.

Body Connections Michael S. Koppel, 2021-08-03 A new articulation of pastoral theology, care, and counseling. Too often we think and teach in ways that reinforce a mind/body split. This can lead people to self-alienation, impeding holistic, healthy relationships between people, God, and each other. Body Connections takes a different approach, teaching us to see the connections between our embodied experience and faithful spiritual care. Author Michael Koppel focuses on the human body and its relationship to faith and spiritual care. He engages religious texts and traditions as well as

scientific insights offering accessible theology and spiritual practices for healing and care of the body Our bodies are amazing resources but we are too often unaware of their power or unable to harness it in helpful ways for our own good This remarkable book empowers pastors counselors chaplains seminarians and caregivers to understand and provide the ministry of care in an entirely new life giving way This book is highly useful for individuals and groups It is for clergy chaplains spiritual directors seminarians clinical educators lay people in churches and those who are institutionally unaffiliated but care deeply about fostering a holistic spiritual path Praise for Body Connections Everything we think feel and do comes through the body But practices of spiritual care tend to downplay the body as a source of knowledge and a tool for responding to others and to God Koppel s book reclaims that wisdom coaching us to strengthen our abilities to read listen and think with the body I can t wait to teach this practical wise and convicting book which addresses embodied emotion grief silence trauma and more Koppel s seasoned pastoral voice offers a rich synthesis of sources and insights that demonstrate the body s place at the center of ministry Duane Bidwell professor of practical theology spiritual care and counseling Claremont School of Theology Claremont CA Body Connections provides new insights into the voice and language of the body Koppel crafts a body theology that encourages spiritual care practitioners to be proactive in their spiritual practices of listening adapting and responding to our bodies and to the bodies of those to whom we offer care Using the image of body as storyteller and other metaphors Koppel captures and defines the healing power of the body in clear and profound ways Bishop Teresa Jefferson Snorton D Min Presiding Bishop Fifth Episcopal District The CME Church Michael Koppel returns the body to its rightful place at the center of each person s story and the center of the Christian story He calls readers home to their bodies and gently challenges escapes from the body into hasty fixing detached rationalizing anxious dithering or addictive numbing At a time when the COVID pandemic has underscored the vulnerability of bodies Koppel s focused healing deep body consciousness paints a portrait of health far beyond mere absence of disease Don t just read this book absorb it practice it and let it heal you Douglas M Thorpe PhD is Executive Director of the Virginia Institute of Pastoral Care and a past president of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors It is surprisingly difficult even confusing to have a body to be a body to touch talk and listen to even read a sensing body to honor and restore the body s wounds traumas and shame while celebrating its healing and resilience Koppel is a wise guide and caregiver for those seeking to embrace the sacredness of a human body and its unique story Body Connections empowers a reader to discover body knowledge anew It deepens trust in the most intimate relationship one has the relationship with one s body Jaco J Hamman professor of religion psychology and culture and director of the Program in Theology and Practice Vanderbilt University Nashville TN A Time to Laugh Donald Capps, 2006-03-17 Shows the ways in which humour can be recovered for religion This book argues that religion is diminished when it fails to understand and embrace its own historical connection Its chapters deal with topics ranging from humour as an expression of intimacy to humour as the maintenance of the soul The Encyclopedia of Christianity Erwin

Spiritual Formation in Local Faith Communities Neil Pembroke, Ewan Kelly, Theo Pleizier, William S. Schmidt, Jan-Albert van den Berg, 2022-03-31 Spiritual formation in our local churches is too often poorly done or it is virtually nonexistent We developed this innovative approach to spiritual formation in the congregation because it is desperately needed The prompt cards are used to spark deep reflection and shape potentially life transforming conversations with a pastor around spiritual practices spiritual character personal and social ethics and emotional well being The model was trialed in five countries We heard time and time again how the six week process fired a passion to go deeper with Christ Some reported praying regularly for the first time in decades Others found the Scriptures coming alive after years of going through the motions In this book the authors present a simple but powerful method and offer in depth theological reflection on related issues Some of the important areas covered are early church approaches to spiritual formation contemporary spiritual practices spiritual character the indissoluble link between spirituality and moral virtue the spirituality of the pastor and the positive psychology approach

Pastoral Aesthetics Nathan Carlin, 2019-03-06 It is often said that bioethics emerged from theology in the 1960s and that since then it has grown into a secular enterprise yielding to other disciplines and professions such as philosophy and law During the 1970s and 1980s a kind of secularism in biomedicine and related areas was encouraged by the need for a neutral language that could provide common ground for guiding clinical practice and research protocols Tom Beauchamp and James Childress in their pivotal The Principles of Biomedical Ethics achieved this neutrality through an approach that came to be known as principlist bioethics In Pastoral Aesthetics Nathan Carlin critically engages Beauchamp and Childress by revisiting the role of religion in bioethics and argues that pastoral theologians can enrich moral imagination in bioethics by cultivating an aesthetic sensibility that is theologically informed psychologically sophisticated therapeutically oriented and experientially grounded To achieve these ends Carlin employs Paul Tillich's method of correlation by positioning four principles of bioethics with four images of pastoral care drawing on a range of sources including painting fiction memoir poetry journalism cultural studies clinical journals classic cases in bioethics and original pastoral care conversations What emerges is a form of interdisciplinary inquiry that will be of special interest to bioethicists theologians and chaplains
