Hater,2006 Father Robert Hater strongly believes that story without basic belief lacks direction and basic belief without story is lifeless He illustrates this relationship between story and Catholic belief with sensitive and powerful narratives including the account of his own mother s death and its impact on him This is an invaluable resource for anyone involved in conveying the story of Jesus and the church pastors homilists catechetical leaders catechists and teachers parish ministers and families as well as all who wish to find God in their own stories The Delineator ,1927 Storytelling Organizational Practices David M. Boje,2014-06-20 Once upon a time the practice of storytelling was about collecting interesting stories about the past and converting them into soundbite pitches Now it is more about foretelling the ways the future is approaching the present prompting a re storying of the past Storytelling has progressed and is about a diversity of voices not just one teller of one past it is how a group or organization of people negotiates the telling of history and the telling of what future is arriving in the present With the changes in storytelling practices and theory there is a growing need to look at new and different methodologies Within this exciting new book David M Boje develops new ways to ask questions in interviews and make observations of practice that are about storytelling the future This after all is where management practice concentrates its storytelling while much of the theory and method work is all about how the past might recur in the future Storytelling Organizational Practices takes the reader on a journey from looking at narratives of past experience through looking at living stories of emergence in the present to looking at how the future is arriving in ways that prompts a re storying of the past That dowdy of a girl; or, The story of

Shaped by the Story Michael Novelli, 2010-02-02 A good story draws students in engaging their hearts and minds leaving them wanting more God s story is like this a captivating epic that stretches from the beginning of time across our lives and into the future calling us to find ourselves in it We can help students to be captured by this amazing story rather than seeing the Bible as confusing boring or irrelevant After ten years in youth ministry Michael Novelli felt like he had tried everything to help his students connect with the Bible Then a missionary introduced him to a unique ancient way to engage people with the Bible through story Michael learned the art of Storying a sequential telling of Bible stories followed by a time of creative retelling and in depth dialogue God used this process to completely transform his youth group as they found themselves experiencing God in a whole new way Take a journey into the amazing process of Storying and discover how it can change your life and ministry This new approach to learning builds a lasting theological foundation while challenging students to discover their unique identity and calling in God s story Shaped by the Story helps you understand why Storying connects with students today and provides all you need to introduce Storying to your group including sample narratives and an interactive training DVD

Pastoral Care Dr. Karen D.

Scheib, 2016-02-16 Christian pastoral care is a narrative ecclesial theological practice NET As a narrative practice pastoral care attends to the inseparable interconnection between our own lifestories others stories the larger cultural stories and God s story As a ministry of the church pastoral care is an ecclesial practice that derives its motivation purpose and identity from the larger mission of the church to bear witness to and embody God s mission of love that extends beyond the church for the transformation of the world As a theological practice pastoral care is grounded in God s love story God s profound love for humankind heals our brokenness when human love fails and invites us into an ongoing process of growth in love of God self and neighbor Intended for those who provide care with and on behalf of religious communities author Karen Scheib focuses on listening and restorying practices occurring in the context and setting of congregations By coauthoring narratives that promote healing and growth in love pastoral caregivers become cocreators and companions who help others revise and construct life stories reshaped by the grace of God What Karen Scheib has done in this book is to reposition pastoral care as a theological activity performed in the context of the church She draws deeply upon her Wesleyan theological heritage upon an understanding of life in its fullness as growth in love and grace and upon a communion ecclesiology undergirded by a communal understanding of the Trinitarian life of God Thus grounded she envisions pastoral care first as a rhythm of the life of the whole church and secondarily as a work of trained pastors In her vision pastoral care is rescued from a narrow understanding of it as exceptional acts of intervention performed only in moments of dire crisis Instead it becomes a daily practice of pastoral care an attending in love to the stories of others and a listening for ways God is already present in a life
