What The Church Can Do For Persons Living With HIV/AIDS sunday Ikpong, My Life Through a Lens: Lessons Learned Living with HIV Graig Cote, 2024-06-06 Over the years I have been described as an optimistic realist I think that describes me very well I am neither one to sugarcoat a situation nor think it is worse I do feel like the bag at times represents me As I struggle through decisions in my life including the decision to come out and accept my authentic self whatever the bag represents I have always seen that simple bag that refused to fall prey to the muddy waters as my inspiration my hope of survival I will not be drowned in hate self pity or any other negative force that comes to me I will like that bag find a way to stay afloat and prevail I had no intentions of ever telling anyone that I was HIV positive let alone becoming a speaker an advocate or an activist To grow and become a writer seemed unreal but over the years many people have said that I should write my story and share my experiences and here I am It has been an amazing journey I hope to share my lessons and my wish is that you get something out of this book

The Name Franklin Graham, 2004-04-20 Before offering a prayer at the inauguration of President George W Bush Franklin Graham was asked by a fellow participant if he intended to pray in the name of Jesus Christ Graham assured him that he would and encouraged this pastor to do the same

As Graham reminded him That s the only thing we ve got In days of religious confusion and cultural relativism Franklin Graham reminds us that there are absolutes in the kingdom of God The Name explains the significance of names in the Hebrew culture centering on the meaningfulness of the name Jesus Chapters focus on the different aspects of power in the Lord s name such as Healing in the Name and Salvation in the Name Grace Unbound Bishop Demetrios C.

Kantzavelos,Patra Sevastiades,2025-05-20 In 1999 a priest at the Chicago diocese Fr Demetri is asked to visit a gang member convicted of a grisly murder whose scheduled execution is only weeks away Meeting Andrew a likable man with a shattered past transforms the Greek Orthodox priest who finds himself determined to save Andrew s life simply because the man on death row was made in the image of God Flash back to seven years prior In 1992 Fr Demetri meets a lonely man dying from HIV AIDS and moved to action spearheads the first Orthodox Christian AIDS ministry in the western hemisphere Launched in Chicago in 1992 and initially met with skepticism by many in his own church that ministry soon spreads to New York then to Greek Orthodox parishes throughout the United States That effort also unexpectedly transforms the young priest moving him into a new realm social justice carried out in the name of serving Jesus As Andrew s execution date approaches Fr Demetri in a desperate race against time is catapulted into the middle of a controversial and very public advocacy effort to save Andrew s life He and other advocates appeal to the governor Andrew s fate hangs by a thread When the governor Andrew s last hope shows no mercy Fr Demetri finds himself painfully caught between society s desire for justice and the Christian impulse for mercy empathy for the victim s grief stricken family and compassion for the condemned his own fear of failure and a deep desire to live out the gospel Now he must either retreat from the challenge or learn the true cost of his calling and help solve a larger problem changing the law before the state can execute anyone else Best Laid Plans Terence E. McDonnell,2016-08-18 We see it all the time organizations strive to persuade the public to change beliefs or behavior through expensive expansive media campaigns Designers painstakingly craft clear resonant and culturally sensitive messaging that will motivate people to buy a product support a cause vote for a candidate or take active steps to improve their health But once these campaigns leave the controlled environments of focus groups advertising agencies and stakeholder meetings to circulate the public interprets and distorts the campaigns in ways their designers never intended or dreamed In Best Laid Plans Terence E McDonnell explains why these attempts at mass persuasion often fail so badly McDonnell argues that these well designed campaigns are undergoing cultural entropy the process through which the intended meanings and uses of cultural objects fracture into alternative meanings new practices failed interactions and blatant disregard Using AIDS media campaigns in Accra Ghana as its central case study the book walks readers through best practice evidence based media campaigns that fall totally flat Female condoms are turned into bracelets AIDS posters become home decorations red ribbons fade into pink under the sun to name a few failures These damaging cultural misfires are not random Rather McDonnell makes the case that these disruptions are patterned widespread and inevitable indicative of a broader process of cultural entropy      Self-restoration of People Living with HIV/AIDS in China Rongting Hou,2020-10-28 This book adopts an approach based on relational psychoanalysis developed in the USA in and since the 1990s and guided by the self psychology championed by Kohut and the Post Kohutians How people infected with HIV AIDS live their lives is a growing concern in China The book based on relational psychoanalysis explores their self restoration and more specifically how adopting an attitude of dying to live helps them face tremendous challenges in life By interviewing selected individuals at a given organization the author focuses on their life experiences and on corresponding interventional mechanisms The book s three most important features are as follows 1 its application of self psychology by Heinz Kohut into the context of psychological intervention 2 a wealth of qualitative data gathered through in depth interviews and 3 the author s self reflection and analysis The book offers a valuable guide for graduate students researchers and policymakers alike By interviewing selected individuals at a given organization the book focuses on the life histories of selected individuals after being diagnosed with AIDS screening HIV positive and on corresponding interventional mechanisms Further it employs the self and self object as key explanatory terms for the necessary psychotherapeutic interventions and in order to create guidelines that sufficiently reflect the illness and corresponding interventions Given its scope and focus the book offers a valuable guide for graduate students researchers and policymakers alike      Nutrition and AIDS Ronald L.
