Local Heroes Australian Crusades From The Environmental Frontline:

Diversity in Leadership Joy Damousi, Kim Rubenstein, Mary Tomsic, 2014-11-25 While leadership is an over used term today how it is defined for women and the contexts in which it emerges remains elusive Moreover women are exhorted to exercise leadership but occupying leadership positions has its challenges Issues of access acceptable behaviour and the development of skills to be successful leaders are just some of them Diversity in Leadership Australian women past and present provides a new understanding of the historical and contemporary aspects of Indigenous and non Indigenous women s leadership in a range of local national and international contexts It brings interdisciplinary expertise to the topic from leading scholars in a range of fields and diverse backgrounds The aims of the essays in the collection document the extent and diverse nature of women s social and political leadership across various pursuits and endeavours within democratic political structures

Sustainability and Health Valerie A. Brown, John Grootjans, Jan Ritchie, Mardie Townsend, Glenda Verrinder, 2014-04-08 Radical changes in the biosphere and human interaction with the environment are increasingly impacting on the health of populations across the world Diseases are crossing the species barrier and spreading rapidly through globalised transport systems From new patterns of cancer to the threat of global pandemics it is imperative that public health practitioners acknowledge the interdependence between the sustainability of the environment and the sustainability of the human species Why are issues of global and local sustainability of increasing importance to the public s health Why do issues of sustainability require new practices within the professions of public health How can future and current public health practitioners develop those new practices Drawing on scientific evidence of global and local environmental changes Sustainability and Health offers a thorough background and practical solutions to the overlapping issues in environment and health It examines potential and existing responses to global and local environment and health issues involving individuals community industry and government The authors introduce a range of emerging conceptual frameworks and theoretical perspectives link IT and epidemiology and explain how scoping can link program design delivery data collection and evaluation in projects from their very beginning Public health practitioners need to be able to manage health issues that cut across environmental economic and social systems and to develop the capacity for leadership in facilitating change Incorporating learning activities readings international case studies and an open learning approach this is a valuable resource for students of public and environmental health as well as medical environmental and health science professionals

Steering Sustainability in an Urbanising World Anitra Nelson, 2016-04-01 Sustainability has become the key challenge for urban planners housing and infrastructure policy makers Citizens are increasingly encouraged to live more compactly in denser urban developments to use less water and other natural resources and to choose public transport While councils government agencies and private business invest in a broad range of promotions offering discounts on sustainable products and services uptake has been slow and the impacts marginal at a time when environmental stresses suggest that we must act fast This book examines this pressing problem in a holistic way discussing broad scale sustainability policies and programmes for achieving sustainable urban futures It brings together academics and practitioners to analyze the complexity and interdependence of principles models processes and practices of sustainability in a range of integrated sectors as well as the establishment and maintenance of sustainable physical infrastructure in cities Australian Journal of Environmental Education ,2005 Local Heroes Kathleen McPhillips,2002 Feminist Periodicals ,2004 Alternative Press Index ,2004 New Books on Women and Feminism ,2005 Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher Literatur ,2007 International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences ,2004 Book Review Index ,2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation
