Fourth Decade Other Poems:

America--fourth Decade Milton Jacob Goell,1939 The Fourth Decade Norman Rosten,1943 The Wound and the Dream Cary Nelson,2002 When the United States and other powers declined to help fight fascist power at the onset of the Spanish Civil War forty thousand private citizens from fifty two countries rallied to join the International Brigade s defense of the Spanish Republic Born out of the struggle between fascism and democracy and considered the first battle of World War II the Spanish Civil War holds tremendous ideological significance and has inspired a remarkable range of American poetry The Wound and the Dream represents the sixty year tradition of American poetic responses to the Spanish Civil War and provides an overview of progressive American poetry as a whole Four of the featured poets Alvah Bessie William Lindsay Gresham James Neugass and Edwin Rolfe were members of the International Brigade Their poetry appears alongside lesser known works by some of the greatest American poets of the twentieth century including Wallace Stevens Edna St Vincent Millay Randall Jarrell Langston Hughes and Philip Levine Cary Nelson s introduction discusses the collective nature of the poems puts them in their international context and provides a sturdy framework for interpreting the Spanish Civil War as a historical conjecture that has dramatically altered the ways we read and write poetry The book also includes a brief biography of each poet and a glossary of related terms Revolutionary Memory Cary Nelson,2013-10-11 Revolutionary Memory is the most important book yet to be published about the vital tradition of leftwing American Poetry As Cary Nelson shows it is not only our image of the past but also our sense of the present and future that changes when we recover these revolutionary memories Making a forceful case for political poetry as poetry Nelson brings to bear his extraordinary knowledge of American poets radical movements and social struggles in order to bring out an undervalued strength in a literature often left at the canon s edge Focused in part of the red decade of the 1930s RevolutionaryMemory revitalizes biographical criticism for writers on the margin and shows us for the first time how progressive poets fused their work into a powerful chorus of political voices Richly detailed and beautifully illustrated with period engravings and woodcuts Revolutionary Memory brings that chorus dramatically to life and set a cultural agenda for future work James Merrill and W.H. Auden P. Gwiazda,2007-10-01 James Merrill and W H Auden offers a substantial analysis of the literary and personal relationship between two major twentieth century poets As Gwiazda argues Auden s prominence in the post World War II American poetry scene as a homosexual poet and critic makes his impact on Merrill particularly noteworthy Merrill s imaginary recreation of Auden in his occult verse trilogy The Changing Light at Sandover 1982 offers a powerful statement about the dynamics of poetic influence between gay male poets Combining archival research textual analysis and aspects of queer theory James Merrill and W H Auden examines Sandover s implications to the contentious issues of homosexual identity and self representation Anarchists, Beats and Dadaists Jim Burns,2015-10-12 This seventh collection of essays and reviews kicks off with a survey of some overlooked British poets from the 1940s who through a network of little magazines with anarchist inclinations attempted to offer an alternative to the MacSpaunDay generation's sensibilities. Another piece considers how British writers were monitored by MI5 and local police forces while a third switches attention to the USA and looks at the still controversial case of Alger Hiss and his alleged role as a spy who passed information to Russia. There are essays about lesser known Beat related writers like Bob Kaufman and Brion Gysin inspections of some little magazines of the 1950s and 1960s and two long reviews which consider the effect that Dadaism had and the role played in the movement by Tristan Tzara Walt Whitman Woody Guthrie and Malcolm Cowley also make an appearance People's Money, 1941 Sale American Art Association, Anderson Galleries (Firm), 1922 Early English literature, tr. by H.M. Kennedy [and others. Vols. 2,3 are entitled History of English literature]. Bernhard ten Brink, 1902 Complete Historical Handbook of the Pulitzer Prize System 1917-2000 Heinz-D Fischer, Erika J. Fischer, 2011-05-09 The School of Journalism at Columbia University has awarded the Pulitzer Prize since 1917 Nowadays there are prizes in 21 categories from the fields of journalism literature and music The Pulitzer Prize Archive presents the history of this award from its beginnings to the present In parts A to E the awarding of the prize in each category is documented commented and arranged chronologically Part F covers the history of the prize biographically and bibliographically Part G provides the background to the decisions Victorian Poetry Isobel Armstrong, 2019-01-30 In Victorian Poetry Poetry Poetics and Politics Isobel Armstrong rescued Victorian poetry from its longstanding sepia image as a moralised form of romantic verse and unearthed its often subversive critique of nineteenth century culture and politics In this uniquely comprehensive and theoretically astute new edition Armstrong provides an entirely new preface that notes the key advances in the criticism of Victorian poetry since her classic work was first published in 1993 A new chapter on the alternative fin de siècle sees Armstrong discuss Michael Field Rudyard Kipling Alice Meynell and a selection of Hardy lyrics The extensive bibliography acts as a key resource for students and scholars alike The Science Fiction of Cordwainer Smith Karen L. Hellekson, 2017-07-06 This critical work concentrates on the science fiction writings of Paul Linebarger who wrote under the pseudonym Cordwainer Smith as well as other pseudonyms he created to reflect his different writing styles His writings give voice to concerns about humanity and personal struggle his ideas about love loss alienation and psychic pain continue to resonate today This work begins with a brief biographical sketch of Cordwainer Smith linking elements of his past to his writing and focusing on his contributions to science fiction as well as his concern with humanity Also discussed are Smith's published and unpublished novel length non science fiction his revision process the true man underpeople dichotomy in his published and unpublished short fiction and his only published novel length science fiction work Norstrilia Kāvya in South India Herman Tieken, 2021-12-28 Old Tamil Ca kam poetry consists of eight anthologies of short poems on love and war and a treatise on grammar and poetics The main part of this corpus has generally been dated to the first centuries AD and is believed to be the product of a native Tamil culture The present study argues that the poems do not describe a contemporary society but a society from the past or one not yet affected by North Indian Sanskrit culture Consequently the main argument for the current early dating of Ca kam poetry is no longer valid Furthermore on the basis of a study of the historical setting of the heroic poems and of the role of Tamil as a literary language in the Ca kam corpus it is argued that the poetic tradition was developed by the P iyas in the ninth or tenth century This volume deals with the identification of the various genres of Ca kam poetry with literary types from the Sanskrit K vya tradition Counterparts have been found exclusively among Pr krit and Apabhra a texts which indicate that in Ca kam poetry Tamil has been specifically assigned the role of a Pr krit As such the present study reveals the processes and attitudes involved in the development of a vernacular language into a literary idiom
