Encyclopedia of Feminist Literature Mary Ellen Snodgrass,2014-05-14 An accessible one volume encyclopedia this addition to the Literary Movements series is a comprehensive reference guide to the history and development of feminist literature from early fairy tales to works by great women writers of today Hundred Mostarghia Maya Ombasic,2019-08-06 AN OPENCANADA SUMMER READ 2019 In the south of Bosnia and Herzegovina lies Mostar a medieval town on the banks of the emerald Neretva which flows from the valley of sugared trees through sunny hills to reach the Adriatic Sea This idyllic locale is where Maya Ombasic's life begins but when civil war breaks out in Yugoslavia and the bombs begin to fall Her family is exiled to Switzerland and after a failed attempt to return they leave again for Canada While Maya adapts to their uprootings her father never recovers from the trauma refusing even to learn the language of his new country Mostarghia a portmanteau of Mostar and nostalgia centers around Ombasic's often explosive relationship with her father who was both influence and psychological burden he inspired her interest and eventual career in philosophy and she was his translator his support his obsession Along with this portrait of a larger than life man described by turns as passionate endearing maddening and suffocating Ombasic deftly constructs a moving personal account of what it means to be a refugee and how a generation learns to thrive despite its parents struggles Nazi Germany, Canadian Responses L. Ruth Klein,2012-05-23 It has been thirty years since the publication of Irving Abella and Harold Troper's seminal work None is Too Many which documented the official barriers that kept Jewish immigrants and refugees out of Canada in the shadow of the Second World War The book won critical acclaim but a haunting question remained Why did Canada act as it did in the 1930s and 1940s Answering this question requires a deeper understanding of the attitudes ideas and information that circulated in Canadian society during this period How much did Canadians know at the time about the horrors unfolding against the Jews of Europe Where did their information come from And how did they respond on both public and institutional levels to the events that marked Hitler s march to power the 1935 Nuremberg Race Laws the 1936 Olympics Kristallnacht and the crisis of the MS St Louis The contributors to this collection scholars of international repute turn to the wider public sphere for answers to the media the world of literature the university campus the realm of international sport and networks of community activism Their findings reveal that the persecutions and atrocities taking place in Nazi Germany inspired a range of responses from ordinary Canadians from indifference to outrage to quiet acquiescence It is challenging to recreate the mindset of more than seventy years ago Yet this collection takes up that challenge digging deeper into archives records and testimonies that can offer fresh interpretations of this dark period The answer to the question why begins here Contributors include Doris Bergen Chancellor Rose and Ray Wolfe Chair in Holocaust Studies University of Toronto Richard Menkis Department of History University of British Columbia Harold Troper Department of Theory and Policy Studies in Education OISE University of Toronto Amanda Grzyb Faculty of Information and Media Studies University of Western Ontario Rebecca Margolis Centre for Canadian Jewish Studies University of Ottawa Michael Brown Department of Languages Literatures and Linguistics York University Norman Ravvin Institute for Canadian Jewish Studies Concordia University and James Walker Department of History University of Waterloo
