Dictionary of Enamelling Erika Speel, 2018-10-26 First Published in 1998 The Dictionary of Enamelling is the first book to provide a comprehensive guide to this most diverse of the decorative arts Indispensable for anyone interested in the evolution of enamelling technique the book includes some 400 entries covering every aspect of its history There are entries on key pieces individual enamellers designers schools techniques and the major achievements are described in every era The knowledge and insight of Erika Speel's account are supported and enhanced by a brilliantly researched collection of 200 illustrations 100 in colour portraying the most dazzling and important pieces a unique visual record of enamelling history The Dictionary of Enamelling will be invaluable to people who collect study create and enjoy enamels St. Ursula and the Eleven Thousand Virgins of Cologne Scott Bradford Montgomery, 2010 The cult of St Ursula and the Eleven Thousand Virgin Martyrs of Cologne was the most widespread relic cult in medieval Europe The sheer abundance of relics of the Eleven Thousand Virgins which allowed for the display of immense collections shaped the notion of corporate cohesion that characterized the cult Though the primacy of St Ursula as the leader of this holy band was established by the tenth century she was conceived as the head of a corporate body Innumerable inventories and liturgical texts attest to the fact that this cult was commemorated and referenced as a collective mass Undecim millium virginum This group identity informed and was formulated by the presentation of their relics as well as much of the imagery associated with this cult This book explores the visual textual performative and perceptual aspects of this phenomenon with particular emphasis on painting and sculpture in late medieval Cologne Examining the ways in which both texts and images worked as vestments garbing the true core of relics which formed the body of the cult the book examines the cult from the core outward seeking to understand hagiographic texts and images in terms of their role in articulating relic cults The Twelfth-Century Mosan Reliquary of Pétermonostora Bernát Rácz,2025-03-20 In 2013 two large enamel plaques from a Mosan reliquary were found at Pétermonostora Hungary Despite the site's destruction by Mongols in 1241 these remains highlight a thriving medieval settlement and offer insights into high medieval East Central Europe's art culture and history The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane,2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture Materials, Methods, and Masterpieces of Medieval Art Janetta

Rebold Benton,2009-08-27 A comprehensive and informed analysis explores the startlingly diverse and sophisticated fine arts in the Middle Ages Materials Methods and Masterpieces of Medieval Art provides a comprehensive and detailed analysis of the work done by artists in western Europe during the Middle Ages Art historian Janetta Rebold Benton uses examples such as the Book of Kells Bury Saint Edmunds Cross and the Bayeux Tapestry and the work of artists such as Jan van Eyck and Giotto to explore the various media available to medieval artists and the ways in which those media were used to create a stunning array of masterworks Although the visual arts of the Middle Ages were extremely colorful today much of that color has diminished or disappeared the pigments and threads faded the gold abraded the silver tarnished Materials Methods and Masterpieces of Medieval Art allows these works to sparkle once more Binding the Absent Body in Medieval and

Modern Art Emily Kelley,2017-07-05 This collection of essays considers artistic works that deal with the body without a visual representation It explores a range of ways to represent this absence of the figure from abject elements such as bodily fluids and waste to surrogate forms including reliquaries manuscripts and cloth The collection focuses on two eras medieval and modern when images referencing the absent body have been far more prolific in the history of art In medieval times works of art became direct references to the absent corporal essence of a divine being like Christ or were used as devotional aids By contrast in the modern era artists often reject depictions of the physical body in order to distance themselves from the history of the idealized human form Through these essays it becomes apparent even when the body is not visible in a work of art it is often still present tangentially Though the essays in this volume bridge two historical periods they have coherent thematic links dealing with abjection embodiment and phenomenology Whether figurative or abstract sacred or secular medieval or modern the body maintains a presence in these works even when it is not at first apparent

transformed literary historical and cultural studies over the past three decades Yet the study of medieval art and visualities has in general remained Eurocentric in its canon and conservative in its approaches Postcolonising as the eleven essays in this volume show entails active intervention into the field of medieval art history and visual studies through a theoretical reframing of research This approach poses and elicits new research questions and tests how concepts current in postcolonial studies such as diaspora and migration under represented artistic cultures accented art making displacement intercultural versus transcultural hybridity presence absence can help medievalists to reinvigorate the study of art and visuality Postcolonial concepts are deployed in order to redraft the canon of medieval art thereby seeking to build bridges between medievalist and modernist communities of scholars Among the varied topics explored in the volume are the appropriation of Roman iconography by early medieval Scandinavian metalworkers multilingualism and materiality in Anglo Saxon culture the circulation and display of Islamic secular ceramics on Pisan churches cultural negotiation by Jewish minorities in Central Europe and the Iberian peninsula Holy Land maps and medieval imaginative geography and the uses of Thomas Becket in the colonial imaginary of the Plantagenet court

Wisdom's House, Heaven's Gate Teresa Shawcross, 2024-09-14 Taking as its starting point an investigation into the physical topography and symbolism of the two cities of Athens and Jerusalem this book offers a cultural history of the rival superpowers the Byzantine Empire and Fatimid Caliphate that between them dominated the Mediterranean world during the Central Middle Ages It shows that the destruction of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem on the orders of al Hakim punctuated a century of heightened interaction resulting from changing patterns of warfare trade and pilgrimage Resettlement of both Christians and Muslims from Syria Palestine in Asia Minor and the Balkans introduced these migrants host culture to new forms of religious and artistic expression In Hellas a flurry of building projects reinvented Athens as a New Jerusalem and the Parthenon as a New Temple The Acropolis became famous for its miraculous lamp and elaborate liturgy The clergy who performed the sacred mysteries justified them with reference to concepts of hierarchy illumination and divinisation These concepts were derived from a philosophical tradition over whose ownership the two superpowers competed The resulting political theology was the creation of male intellectuals but female patrons and worshippers also had an impact

Gift-Giving and Materiality in Europe, 1300-1600 Lars Kjaer, Gustavs Strenga, 2022-09-08 Gift giving played an important role in political social and religious life in medieval and early modern Europe This volume explores an under examined and often overlooked aspect of this phenomenon the material nature of the gift Drawing on examples from both medieval and early modern Europe the authors from the UK and across Europe explore the craftsmanship involved in the production of gifts and the use of exotic objects and animals from elephant bones to polar bears and living holy objects to communicate power class and allegiance Gifts were publicly given displayed and worn and so the book explores the ways in which as tangible objects gifts could help to construct religious and social worlds But the beauty and material richness of the gift could also provoke anxieties Classical and Christian authorities agreed that in gift giving it was supposed to be the thought that counted and consequently wealth and grandeur raised worries about greed and corruption was a valuable ring payment for sexual services or a token of love and a promise of marriage Over three centuries Gift Giving and Materiality in Europe 1300 1600 Gifts as Objects reflects on the possibilities practicalities and concerns raised by the material character of gifts The Cloisters Cloisters (Museum), Peter Barnet, Nancy Y. Wu, 2005 By surveying these elaborate tapestries delicate carvings and other objects in roughly the historical sequence in which they were created we glimpse the evolving styles and artistic traditions of the Middle Ages and gain a more meaningful understanding of the contexts in which many of them appeared Among the masterpieces on display at The Cloisters are the famed Unicorn Tapestries the richly carved twelfth century ivory cross associated with the abbey of Bury St Edmunds known as the Cloisters Cross the exquisite Annunciation triptych by the Netherlandish painter Robert Campin and many fine examples of manuscript illumination enameling metalwork and stained glass Complete with digital color photography map floor plan and glossary this book is a contemporary guide that will reward students and enthusiasts of the Middle Ages as well as visitors seeing the Museum for the first time BOOK JACKET Imagining the Self, Constructing the Past Meriem Pagès, Robert G. Sullivan, 2016-09-23 Imagining the Self Constructing the Past celebrates the various ways in which the Middle Ages and the Renaissance are adapted recollected and represented in our own day and age Most of the chapters fit broadly into one of three categories namely the representation of the self in medieval and early modern history and literature the recollection and utilization of the past in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance and the role of the medieval and the early modern in our own society Overall the contributions to this volume bear witness to the importance of representation to our understanding of ourselves each other and our shared past Medieval Art Second Edition Marilyn Stokstad, 2021-12-24 This beautifully produced survey of over a thousand years of Western art and architecture introduces the reader to a vast period of history ranging from ancient Rome to the age of exploration The monumental arts and the diverse minor arts of the Middle Ages are presented here within the social religious and political frameworks of lands as varied as France and Denmark Spain and Turkey Marilyn Stokstad also teaches her reader how to look at medieval art which aspects of architecture sculpture or painting are important and for what reasons Stylistic and iconographic issues and themes are thoroughly addressed with attention paid to aesthetic and social contexts Ancient Greek Art and European Funerary Art Evangelia Georgitsoyanni, 2019-11-21 This book charts a significant aspect of European heritage cemeteries Cemeteries are nowadays considered as formal cultural sites and open air museums attracting a great number of visitors while cemetery records memorial monuments epitaph inscriptions and symbols provide useful data attracting the interest of an increasing number of scholars from various disciplines and backgrounds This collective volume consists of selected papers presented at the ASCE Association of Significant Cemeteries in Europe Conference Ancient Greek Art and European Funerary Art organized by the Harokopio University of Athens Greece on October 5 7 2017 aiming to highlight various cultural aspects of cemeteries The authors present funerary art and its classical origin investigate theoretical and historical approaches plan cultural and educational routes design technological applications concerning the use of cemeteries as cultural sites and propose multiple ways for promoting cemetery heritage and public engagement while the majority of the papers is based on field and archival research and is accompanied by original images The multicultural character of death heritage is highlighted through the variety of case studies presented in this volume introducing different perspectives and interpretations on art history heritage and cultural tourism laying the groundwork for the public discussion on our common heritage as appeared in cemeteries appealing to both the wider public and the academic community Artistry in Bronze Jens M Daehner, Kenneth Lapatin, Ambra Spinelli, 2017-11-21 The papers in this volume derive from the proceedings of the nineteenth International Bronze Congress held at the Getty Center and Villa in October 2015 in connection with the exhibition Power and Pathos Bronze Sculpture of the Hellenistic World The study of large scale ancient bronzes has long focused on aspects of technology and production Analytical work of materials processes and techniques has significantly enriched our understanding of the medium Most recently the restoration history of bronzes has established itself as a distinct area of investigation How does this scholarship bear on the understanding of bronzes within the wider history of ancient art How do these technical data relate to our ideas of styles and development How has the material itself affected ancient and modern perceptions of form value and status of works of art www.getty.edu/publications/artistryinbronze Castles and the Anglo-Norman World John A. Davies, Angela Riley, Jean-Marie Levesque, Charlotte Lapiche, 2016-05-31 Castles and the Anglo Norman World is a major new synthesis drawing together a series of 20 papers by 26 French and English specialists in the field of Anglo Norman studies It includes summaries of current knowledge and new research into important Norman castles in England and Normandy drawing on information from recent excavations Sections consider the evolution of Anglo Norman castles the architecture and archaeology of Norman monuments Romanesque architecture and artifacts the Bayeux Tapestry and the presentation of historic sites to the public These studies are presented together with a consideration of the 12th century cross Channel Norman Empire which provides a broader context This work is the result of a conference held at Norwich Castle in 2012 which was part of a collaboration between professionals in the fields of archaeology architecture museums and heritage under the banner of the Norman Connections Project
