Encountering Jesus
Cornelis Bennema, 2014 Applying a comprehensive theory of character to the Gospel of John Cornelis Bennema provides a fresh analysis of the characters and their responses to Jesus While the majority of scholars view most Johannine characters as flat Bennema demonstrates that many are complex developing and round Johns broad array of characters correspond to people and their choices in real life in any culture and time This book highlights how Johns Gospel seeks to challenge its readers about where they stand in relation to Jesus Cinematic Encounters with Disaster Simon R. Troon, 2024-06-13

 Cinematic Encounters with Disaster takes Hollywood's disaster movies and their codified versions of natural disaster post apocalyptic survival and extra terrestrial threat as the starting point for an analytical trajectory that works toward new understandings of how cinema shapes and informs our conceptions of disaster and catastrophe. It examines a range of films from distinct regional and industrial contexts: Hollywood indie movies, different kinds of documentaries from the US and elsewhere, and auteurist realist cinema from Europe and Asia. Moving across and beyond critical and industrial categories that often inform thinking about cinema, this book contends that different approaches to film style can push us to imagine disaster in distinct ways with distinct ethical connotations. Framed by contemporary concerns around the global climate crisis and the advent of the Anthropocene, questions about how films can best offer responses to historical exigency guide the book's explorations of spectacular 2010s blockbusters like Gravity (2013) and San Andreas (2015), environmental documentaries including the paradigmatic An Inconvenient Truth (2006), post disaster films by auteurs including Abbas Kiarostami and Lav Diaz, and more. Conceiving of disaster as intersubjective ethics between humans and nonhuman alterity, forces of nature, errant technology, monsters, ghosts, and other entities, it analyses how formal techniques and narrative strategies render encounters in which human protagonists are confronted with the threat of death and respond in ways that can be instructive for our planet's present juncture. Aircraft Navigation Sergei Semenovitch Fedchin, 1969 NASA Technical Translation, 1969 Dark Skies Nick Dunn, Tim Edensor, 2023-11-27
 Dark Skies addresses a significant gap in knowledge in relation to perspectives from the arts, humanities, and social sciences. In providing a new multi and interdisciplinary field of inquiry, this book brings together engagements with dark skies from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds, empirical studies, and theoretical orientations. Throughout history, the relationship with dark skies has generated a sense of wonder and awe, as well as providing the basis for important cultural meanings and spiritual beliefs. However, the connection to dark skies is now under threat due to the widespread growth of light pollution and the harmful impacts that this has upon humans, non humans, and the planet we share. This book therefore examines the rich potential of dark skies and their relationships with place, communities, and practices to provide new insights and understandings on their importance for our world in an era of climate emergency and environmental degradation. This book is intended for a wide audience. It will be of interest to scholars, students, and professionals in geography, design, astronomy, anthropology, ecology, history, and public policy, as well as anyone who has an interest in how we can protect the night sky for the benefit of us all and the future generations to follow. Sacred Longings Mary C. Grey, 2004 This book explores what is happening to the human spirit in a culture shaped and driven by globalization a culture where dreams imaginations and desires are all manipulated What do we really want Noted theologian Mary Grey believes we have gotten out of touch with our deepest desires and that the root problem is our acquiescence in global capitalism's most problematic characteristics Story and symbol she argues can put us back in touch with our sacred longings Focusing on such simple yet profound symbols as water light and sacred space she tries to rekindle a spiritual quest In the end she envisions spirituality a kind of esoteric renewal as an element in the transformation of desire lived out in Christian community For desire to be reborn for sacred longings even to be named not to mention fulfilled there needs to be an embracing of the way of renunciation simplicity and sacrifice And that is counter cultural As Part One looks at how our culture has lost heart and Part Two analyzes restless hearts Part Three asks us to take heart and rekindle our thirst for righteousness
