Encounters With The Dani

Scott MacDonald

Encounters With The Dani:

Encounters with the Dani Susan Meiselas, 2003 Nearly sixty years after the Dani of the West Papuan highlands were first discovered by the West, Susan Meiselas presents this photographic record of their interactions with different groups. These range from Dutch colonialists right through to 1990s tourists.

American Ethnographic Film and Personal Documentary Scott MacDonald, 2013-06-04 American Ethnographic Film and Personal Documentary is a critical history of American filmmakers crucial to the development of ethnographic film and personal documentary. The Boston and Cambridge area is notable for nurturing these approaches to documentary film via institutions such as the MIT Film Section and the Film Study Center, the Carpenter Center, and the Visual and Environmental Studies Department at Harvard. Scott MacDonald uses pragmatism's focus on empirical experience as a basis for measuring the groundbreaking achievements of such influential filmmakers as John Marshall, Robert Gardner, Timothy Asch, Ed Pincus, Miriam Weinstein, Alfred Guzzetti, Ross McElwee, Robb Moss, Nina Davenport, Steve Ascher, and Jeanne Jordan. Michel Negroponte, John Gianvito, Alexander Olch, Amie Siegel, Ilisa Barbash, and Lucien Castaing-Taylor. By exploring the cinematic, personal, and professional relationships between these accomplished filmmakers, MacDonald shows how a pioneering, engaged, and uniquely cosmopolitan approach to documentary developed over the past half century.

Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide-ranging interdisciplinary manner. This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force. This Encyclopedia presents the important developments, movements, photographers, photographic institutions, and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment, techniques, and practical applications of photography. To bring this history alive for the reader, the set is illustrated in black and white throughout, and each volume contains a color plate section. A useful glossary of terms is also included.

Strangers International Center of Photography, 2003 Presenting the works of 50 contemporary artists and photographers from around the world, Strangers explores the different roles the camera now plays in negotiating the boundaries between public and private life, trust and fear, intimacy and isolation. Accompanying the first recurring exhibition of its kind devoted to photography and related media at the International Center of Photography in New York, Strangers investigates the social world through images that have been created as a result of encounters with people unknown to one another. In addition to the more personal and psychological aspects of estrangement, the artists in Strangers also engage with the theme of globalization and diaspora, an especially timely subject in its geopolitical ramifications. Strangers includes illuminating biographical essays on each of the artists and their works, four original essays by ICP curators Brian Wallis, Christopher Phillips, Carol Squiers, and Edward Earle that explore the ever-evolving and prescient theme of strangers, and approximately

Self-determination in the Context of Early Childhood Education and Services Federico Farini, Angela

Scollan, 2019-06-26 This book investigates the position of young children's self-determination within a range of social contexts such as education social care mass media health politics law and the family It brings to the fore the voices of the children in the present with their interests agendas and rights Based on original primary research the chapters tackle hegemonic discourses on children's self-determination as well as current policies and practices They address a broad range of topics from the planning of role play to national policies from the use of digital technologies for pedagogy to children's health and well-being and from democratic practices in the classroom to the preservation of traditional family values The book presents case studies to unravel how childhood and young children's self-determination are constructed at the intersection with intergenerational relationships Coming from different disciplines and using a diverse range of methodological traditions the contributions in the volume eventually converge to generate a rich complex and multi-layered analysis of contemporary cultures of childhood and young children's rights Guilt by Association (Danielle Ross Mystery Book #1) Gilbert Morris, 1991-07-01 Twelve strangers One Secret that could cost them everything Can Danielle Ross find the link before time runs out Christianity, Islam, and Nationalism in Indonesia Charles E. Farhadian, 2005 As the largest Muslim country in the world Indonesia is marked by an extraordinary diversity in language ancestry culture religion and ways of life Christianity Islam and Nationalism in Indonesia focuses on the Christian Dani of West Papua providing a social and ethnographic history of the most important indigenous population in the troubled province It presents a fascinating overview of the Dani's conversion to Christianity examining the social religious and political uses to which they have put their new religion While its indigenous population is Papuan and its dominant religions are Christianity and animism West Papua contains a growing number of Papuan Muslims Farhadian provides the first study of this highland Papuan group in an urban context which helps distinguish it from the typical highland Papuan ethnography Incorporating cultural and structural approaches the book affords a fascinating insight into the complex relationship between Christianity Islam and nationalism Looking with Robert Gardner Rebecca Meyers, William Rothman, Charles Warren, 2016-08-01 Assesses the range and magnitude of Robert Gardner's achievements as a filmmaker photographer writer educator and champion of independent cinema During his lifetime Robert Gardner 1925 2014 was often pigeonholed as an ethnographic filmmaker then criticized for failing to conform to the genre's conventions he radically challenged With the release of his groundbreaking film Dead Birds in 1963 Gardner established himself as one of the world's most extraordinary independent filmmakers working in a unique border area between ethnography the essay film and poetic experimental cinema Richly illustrated Looking with Robert Gardner assesses the range and magnitude of Gardner's achievements not only as a filmmaker but also as a still photographer writer educator and champion of independent cinema The contributors give critical attention to Gardner's most ambitious films such as Dead Birds 1963 New Guinea Rivers of Sand 1975 Ethiopia and Forest of Bliss 1986 India as well as lesser known films that equally exemplify his mode of seeking anthropological understanding through artistic means They also attend to his films about artists including his self-depiction in Still Journey On 2011 to his roots in experimental film and his employment of experimental procedures and to his support of independent filmmakers through the Harvard Film Study Center and the television series Screening Room which provided an opportunity for numerous important film and video artists to present and discuss their work This book is a monumental fearless and insightful contribution of critique that looks both with and at Gardner's works as a whole Catherine Summerhayes author of Google Earth Outreach and Activism Looking with Robert Gardner introduces new and exciting voices into the dialogue about the renowned ethnographic and documentary filmmaker The book contains very close readings of many of his films and suggests fresh approaches for analyzing those as well as ethnographic films in general Ilisa Barbash coeditor of The Cinema of Robert Gardner The Cinema of Robert Gardner Lucien Taylor, Ilisa Barbash, 2007-12-01 The most artistic of ethnographic filmmakers and the most ethnographic of artistic filmmakers Robert Gardner is one of the most original as well as controversial filmmakers of the last half century This is the first volume of essays dedicated to his work a corpus of aesthetically arresting films which includes the classic Dead Birds 1963 a lyric depiction of ritual warfare among the Dugum Dani in the Highlands of New Guinea Rivers of Sand 1974 a provocative portrayal of relations between the sexes among the Hamar in southwestern Ethiopia and Forest of Bliss 1986 a sublime city symphony about death and life in Benares India Eminent anthropologists philosophers film theorists and fellow artists assess the innovations of Gardner's films as well as the controversies they have spawned Contributors Ilisa Barbash Marcus Banks Stanley Cavell Roderick Coover Elizabeth Edwards Anna Grimshaw Karl G Heider Paul Henley Susan Howe David MacDougall Dusan Makavejev Kos Sr William Rothman Sean Scully Lucien Taylor Charles Warren The Milošević Trial Timothy William Waters, 2015 The international trial of Slobodan Milosevic who presided over the violent collapse of Yugoslavia was already among the longest war crimes trials when Milosevic died in 2006 Yet precisely because it ended without judgment its significance and legacy are specially contested The contributors to this volume including trial participants area specialists and international law scholars bring a variety of perspectives as they examine the meaning of the trial's termination and its implications for post conflict justice The book's approach is intensively cross disciplinary weighing the implications for law politics and society that modern war crimes trials create

Dreams Made Small Jenny Munro, 2018-05-22 For the last five decades the Dani of the central highlands of West Papua along with other Papuans have struggled with the oppressive conditions of Indonesian rule Formal education holds the promise of escape from stigmatization and violence Dreams Made Small offers an in depth ethnographic look at journeys of education among young Dani men and women asking us to think differently about education as a trajectory for transformation and belonging and ultimately revealing how dreams of equality are shaped and reshaped in the face of multiple constraints

Take Your Time VK Powell, 2018-08-14 Police Officer Grace Booker's life is good but not quite everything she'd hoped When a good deed goes wrong she's left with Dirty Harry a raucous African parrot who really hates her When Harry becomes louder and more neurotic Grace takes him to the new local vet Dr Dani Wingate Recently laid off from her dream job as a zoo veterinarian Dr Dani Wingate accepts a temporary position in tiny Pine Cone until she can get back to her life in the city The only thing she wants more than a lesbian who can do uncomplicated relationships is a one way ticket out of town Dirty Harry brings them together but their unexpected attraction keeps the sparks flying A Pine Cone Romance

The New German Jewry and the European Context Y. Bodemann, 2008-06-30 Departing from the recent critical literature on the emergence of a new German Jewry this volume proposes a new perspective on the post 1980s phenomenon of re emerging Jewish culture in Germany as a case study for wider developments in Europe and the international context

BEING WITH BECKY Lisa Binkowski, 2014-02 No one said a word as we struggled to walk in the blustery cold to the spot where we would gather one more time to be with her We all stared ahead to the area resting under the large crucifix where we would say goodbye to her for the last time I looked at the small square hole in the frozen ground and started trembling This would be her final resting place Choking back tears and gasping to catch my breath I wondered how a young woman so full of life and goodness could be ripped away from us in such a cruel and horrific manner How could this have happened How would we survive No answers came to me The only truth was that Becky was dead and our lives would be forever changed BEING WITH BECKY is based on the true life sharing experiences of two sisters from Northwest Ohio The author weaves tales of their times together from early family gatherings to ski trips with friends revealing the close bond they treasured deeply When Becky is tragically killed the author must wrestle with the emotional chaos that sets in and cripples her spirit In a world that no longer makes any sense she desperately tries to pick up the pieces of her life and vows to honor the sister who once called her my hero
