Four Boys a Girl and a Gun Willard Weiner, 1954      Cumulative Paperback Index, 1939-1959 R. Reginald, 2009-12-01
This was the first bibliography and guide to the American mass market paperback book and it remains one of the most definitive. The major index is by author and lists author title publisher book number year of publication and cover price. The title index lists titles and authors only. The publisher index provides a history of that imprint with addresses number ranges and general physical description of the books issued. This is the place that all study of the American paperback must begin.

Father Jacob Mackenzie Knows the Song has been unexpectedly elected Abbot of St Alberic's Monastery. Although it is a job he does not want, his sense of duty forces him to accept the position. Now he must deal with monks and secrets he wishes he didn't know but must keep. Then there is Paul, the ward of the monastery who is now an unruly teen. How can Father Jacob safeguard the souls of his monks and help Paul as they move into the uncharted future?

A List of English & American Sequel Stories, 1922      At a Theater or Drive-in Near You Randall Clark, 2013-12-17

Millions of Americans have been thrilled, scared, titillated and shocked by exploitation movies, low budget films with many scenes of sex, violence and other potentially lurid elements. The term derives from the fact that promoters of such films exploit the contents in advertising that plays up the sexual or violent aspects of the films. This is the first comprehensive study of the American exploitation film to be published. It discusses five distinct genres: the teen movie, the sexploitation film, the martial arts movie, the blaxploitation film and the lawbreaker picture. Contained within these genres are many popular American film types including beach movies, biker pictures and women's prison movies. The study provides a history and sociopolitical analysis of each genre, focusing on significant films in those genres. It also discusses the economics of exploitation films and their place in the motion picture industry, the development of drive-in theaters, the significance of the teenage audience and the effect of the videocassette. Finally, the book applies major film and cultural theories to establish an aesthetic for evaluating the exploitation film and to explore the relationship between film and audience.
