The Concise Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature George Watson, The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress, American Library Association. Committee on Resources of American Libraries. National Union Catalog Subcommittee, 1978

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries A Bookman's Catalogue Vol. 2 M-End T. Bose, R. N. Colbeck, 2011-11-01 The Colbeck collection was formed over half a century ago by the Bournemouth bookseller Norman Colbeck Focusing primarily on British essayists and poets of the nineteenth century from the Romantic Movement through the Edwardian era the collection features nearly 500 authors and lists over 13 000 works Entries are alphabetically arranged by author with copious notes on the condition and binding of each copy Nine appendices provide listings of selected periodicals series publications anthologies yearbooks and topical works Wanderings in Four Continents, 1877

British Travel Writers, 1910-1939 Barbara Brothers, Julia Marie Gergits, 1998 Volume 195 of a complete resource for both biographical and analytical coverage on nearly 7 000 literary figures presented in a familiar format to librarians and other researchers The series arranges authors in volumes by genre and time period For fast reference an author name index is included cumulative in every volume Approx Proceedings, Abstracts of Lectures and a Brief Report of the Discussions of the National Teachers' Association, the National Association of School Superintendents and the American Normal School Association National Education Association of the United States, 1904 Critical Confessions Now Abdulhamit Arvas, Afrodesia McCannon, Kris Trujillo, 2023-01-09 This book is based on the postmedieval journal special issue Critical Confessions Now These chapters on confessions exhibit great diversity and take up different disciplinary approaches by scholars who stand at various stages of their careers They address not only different time periods but also various linguistic and cultural contexts Contributors deploy a wide array of methods critical approaches and narrative voices and contributors assumed the confessional voice with a whole host of affective responses from enthusiasm to cautious hesitation to outright discomfort Previously published in postmedieval Volume 11 issue 2 3 August 2020

Folk Illusions K. Brandon Barker,Claiborne Rice,2019-04-22 Wiggling a pencil so that it looks like it is made of rubber stealing your niece's nose and listening for the sounds of the ocean in a conch shell these are examples of folk illusions youthful play forms that trade on perceptual oddities In this groundbreaking study K Brandon Barker and Claiborne Rice argue that these easily overlooked instances of children s folklore offer an important avenue for studying perception and cognition in the contexts of social and embodied development Folk illusions are traditionalized verbal and or physical actions that are performed with the intention of creating a phantasm for one or more participants Using a cross disciplinary approach that combines the ethnographic methods of folklore with the empirical data of neuroscience cognitive science and psychology Barker and Rice catalogue over eighty discrete folk illusions while exploring the complexities of embodied perception Taken together as a genre of folklore folk illusions show that people starting from a young age possess an awareness of the illusory tendencies of perceptual processes as well as an awareness that the distinctions between illusion and reality are always communally formed Proceedings, American Philosophical Society (vol. 122, No. 5, 1978) , The Religious Other Martin Accad,Jonathan Andrews,2020-12-31 We live at a time when religious diversity has become a fact of life in our globalized societies Yet Christian engagement with Muslims remains complex complicated by fear misunderstanding and a history fraught with political and cultural tensions These essays drawn from the 2018 and 2019 Middle East Consultations hosted by the Arab Baptist Theological Seminary s Institute of Middle East Studies engage the need for a carefully developed theological understanding of Islam its origins and its sacred text Weaving together the work of christian scholars of Islam the Bible theology and missiology along with the insights of ministry practitioners this book combines scholarly exploration with pertinent ministry practice offering a rich framework for the church to continue its conversation about its engagement with Muslim communities and its proclamation of Christ worldwide Innovation Issues in Water, Agriculture and Food Maria do Rosario Cameira,Luis Santos Pereira,2019-07-15 In a worldwide context of ever growing competition for water and land climate change droughts and man made water scarcity and less participatory water governance agriculture faces the great challenge of producing enough food for a continually increasing population In this line this book provides a broad overview of innovation issues in the complex water agriculture food nexus thus also relative to their interconnections and dependences Issues refer to different spatial scales from the field or the farm to the irrigation system or the river basin Multidisciplinary approaches are used when analyzing the relationships between water agriculture and food security The covered issues are quite diverse and include innovation in crop evapotranspiration crop coefficients and modeling updates in research relative to crop water use and saving irrigation scheduling and systems design simulation models to support water and agricultural decisions issues to cope with water scarcity and climate change advances in water resource quality and sustainable uses new tools for mapping and use of remote sensing information and fostering a participative and inclusive governance of water for food security and population welfare This book brings together a variety of contributions by leading international experts professionals and scholars in those diverse fields It represents a major synthesis and state of the art on various subjects thus providing a valuable and updated resource for all researchers

Peace Operations Donald C. F. Daniel, Patricia Taft, Sharon Wiharta, 2008-07-30 Trends in the number and scope of peace operations since 2000 evidence heightened international appreciation for their value in crisis response and regional stabilization Peace Operations Trends Progress and Prospects addresses national and institutional capacities to undertake such operations by going beyond what is available in previously published literature Part one focuses on developments across regions and countries It builds on data gathering projects undertaken at Georgetown University's Center for Peace and Security Studies CPASS the Stockholm International Peace Research Institute SIPRI and the Folke Bernadotte Academy FBA that offer new information about national contributions to operations and about the organizations through which they make those contributions The information provides the bases for arriving at unique insights about the characteristics of contributors and about the division of labor between the United Nations and other international entities Part two looks to trends and prospects within regions and nations Unlike other studies that focus only on regions with well established track records specifically Europe and Africa this book also looks to the other major areas of the world and poses two questions concerning them If little or nothing has been done institutionally in a region why not What should be expected This groundbreaking volume will help policymakers and academics understand better the regional and national factors shaping the prospects for peace operations into the next decade

Grains of Gold Gendun Chopel, 2014-01-17 Translated with grace and precision gives us a rare glimpse of how Asian religion and life appeared from the perspective of the Tibetan plateau Janet Gyatso Harvard University In 1941 philosopher and poet Gendun Chopel sent a manuscript by ship train and yak across mountains and deserts to his homeland in Tibet He would follow it five years later returning to his native land after twelve years in India and Sri Lanka But he did not receive the welcome he imagined he was arrested by the government of the regent of the young Dalai Lama on trumped up charges of treason He emerged from prison three years later a broken man and died soon after Gendun Chopel was a prolific writer yet he considered that manuscript to be his life's work one to delight his compatriots with tales of an ancient Indian and Tibetan past Now available for the first time in English Grains of Gold is a unique compendium of South Asian and Tibetan culture that combines travelogue drawings history and ethnography Chopel describes the world he discovered in South Asia from the ruins of the sacred sites of Buddhism to the Sanskrit classics he learned to read in the original He is also sharply often humorously critical of the Tibetan love of the fantastic bursting one myth after another and finding fault with the accounts of earlier Tibetan pilgrims The work of an extraordinary scholar Grains of Gold is a compelling work animated by a sense of discovery of both a distant past and a strange present The magnum opus of arguably the single most brilliant Tibetan scholar of the twentieth century Luran Hartley Columbia University
