Fragments Memories Of A Wartime Childhood:

Fragments Benjamin Wilkomirski, 1996 As a small child in Latvia when the round up of the Jews began Benjamin Wilkomirski saw his father killed in front of him In piercingly simple scenes Wilkomirski gives us the fragments of his recollections Fragments Reading Group Guide Benjamin Wilkomirski, 1997-10-01 The Holocaust's Ghost F. C. DeCoste, Bernard Schwartz, 2000-05 Numerous scholars explore the moral aesthetic and political outcomes of the Holocaust from the perspectives of various academic backgrounds including art literature political science education and history

Fragments Benjamin Wilkomirski, 1997 Fabricated memoir written by Bruno Grosjean Fantasies of Witnessing Gary Weissman, 2018-07-05 Fantasies of Witnessing explores how and why those deeply interested in the Holocaust yet with no direct familial connection to it endeavor to experience it vicariously through sites or texts designed to make it real for nonwitnesses Gary Weissman argues that far from overwhelming nonwitnesses with its magnitude of horror the Holocaust threatens to feel distant and unreal A prevailing rhetoric of secondary memory and trauma he contends and efforts to portray the Holocaust as an immediate and personal experience are responses to an encroaching sense of unreality In America we are haunted not by the traumatic impact of the Holocaust but by its absence When we take an interest in the Holocaust we are not overcoming a fearful aversion to its horror but endeavoring to actually feel the horror of what otherwise eludes us Weissman focuses on specific attempts to locate the Holocaust in the person of Elie Wiesel the most renowned survivor and his classic memoir Night in videotaped survivor stories and Lawrence L Langer's celebrated book Holocaust Testimonies and in the films Shoah and Schindler's List These representations he explains constitute a movement away from the view popularized by Wiesel that those who did not live through the Holocaust will never be able to grasp its horror and toward re-creating the Holocaust as an experience nonwitnesses may put themselves through It is only by acknowledging the desire that gives shape to such representations and by exploring their place in the ongoing contest over who really knows the Holocaust and feels its horror that we can arrive at a more candid assessment of our current and future relationships to the Holocaust he says Fragments Benjamin Wilkomirski, 1998-10-01 Winner of the National Jewish Book Award An extraordinary memoir of a small boy who spent his childhood in the Nazi death camps Benjamin Wilkomirski was a child when the round ups of Jews in Latvia began His father was killed in front of him he was separated from his family and perhaps three or four years old he found himself in Majdanek death camp surrounded by strangers In piercingly simple scenes Wilkomirski gives us the fragments of his recollections so that we too become small again and see this bewildering horrifying world at child's eye height No adult interpretations intervene From inside the mind of a little boy we too experience love and loss terror and friendship and the final arduous return to the real world Beautifully written with an indelible impact that makes this a book that is not read but experienced Fragments is a masterpiece Kirkus Reviews Translated from the German by Carol Brown Janeway This stunning and austere written work is so profoundly moving so morally important and so free from literary artifice of any kind at all that I wonder if I even have the right to try to offer praise Jonathan Kozol The Nation From the Trade Paperback edition Holocaust Representations in History Daniel H. Magilow, Lisa Silverman, 2019-11-28 How the Holocaust is depicted and memorialized is key to our understanding of the atrocity and its impact Through 18 case studies dating from the immediate aftermath of the genocide to the present day Holocaust Representations in History explores this in detail Daniel H Magilow and Lisa Silverman examine film drama literature photography visual art television graphic novels memorials and video games as they discuss the major themes and issues that underpin the chronicling of the Holocaust Each chapter is focused on a critical debate or question in Holocaust history the case studies range from well known commercially successful works about the Holocaust to controversial examples which have drawn accusations of profaning the memory of the genocide This 2nd edition adds to the mosaic of representation with new chapters analysing poetry in the wake of the Holocaust and video games from the here and now This unique volume provides an unmatched survey of key and controversial Holocaust representations and is of vital importance to anyone wanting to understand the subject and its complexities Life Stories Maureen O'Connor, 2011-08-23 Memoirs autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2 800 read alike and other related titles The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them In the past readers advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres subgenres and themes that reflect common reading interests Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads Life Stories A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs Autobiographies and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers advisors and others who work with readers in finding books Trauma Cinema Janet Walker, 2023-11-15 Trauma Cinema focuses on a new breed of documentary films and videos that adopt catastrophe as their subject matter and trauma as their aesthetic Incorporating oral testimony home movie footage and documentary reenactment these documentaries express the havoc trauma wreaks on history and memory Janet Walker uses incest and the Holocaust as a double thematic focus and fiction films as a point of comparison Her astute and original examination considers the Hollywood classic Kings Row and the television movie Sybil in relation to vanguard nonfiction works including Errol Morris's Mr Death Lynn Herschman's video diaries and the chilling genealogy of incest Just Melvin Both incest and the Holocaust have also been featured in contemporary psychological literature on trauma and memory The author employs theories of post traumatic stress disorder and histories of the so called memory wars to illuminate the amnesias fantasies and mistakes in memory that must be taken into account along with corroborated evidence

if we are to understand how personal and public historical meaning is made Janet Walker's engrossing narrative demonstrates that the past does not come down to us purely and simply through eyewitness accounts and tangible artifacts Her incisive analysis exposes the frailty of memory in the face of disquieting events while her joint consideration of trauma cinema and psychological theorizing radically reconstructs the roadblocks at the intersection of catastrophe memory and historical representation Trauma Cinema focuses on a new breed of documentary films and videos that adopt catastrophe as their subject matter and trauma as their aesthetic Incorporating oral testimony home movie footage and documentary reenactment these documentaries ex

Sparing the Child Hamida Bosmajian, 2013-09-13 Bosmajian explores children's texts that have either a Holocaust survivor or a former member of the Hitler Youth as a protagonist Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Commonplace Witnessing Bradford Vivian, 2017 Commonplace Witnessing examines how citizens politicians and civic institutions have adopted idioms of witnessing in recent decades to serve a variety of social political and moral ends The book encourages us to continue expanding and diversifying our normative assumptions about which historical subjects bear witness and how they do so Commonplace Witnessing presupposes that witnessing in modern public culture is a broad and inclusive rhetorical act that many different types of historical subjects now think and speak of themselves as witnesses and that the rhetoric of witnessing can be mundane formulaic or popular instead of rare and refined This study builds upon previous literary philosophical psychoanalytic and theological studies of its subject matter in order to analyze witnessing instead as a commonplace form of communication and as a prevalent mode of influence regarding the putative realities and lessons of historical injustice or tragedy It thus weighs both the uses and disadvantages of witnessing as an ordinary feature of modern public life

Psychoanalytic Reflections on a Gender-free Case Ellen L. K. Toronto, Gemma Ainslie, Molly Donovan, Maurine Kelly, Christine C. Kieffer, Nancy McWilliams, 2013-01-11 The past two decades of psychoanalytic discourse have witnessed a marked transformation in the way we think about women and gender The assignment of gender carries with it a host of assumptions yet without it we can feel lost in a void unmoored from the world of rationality stability and meaning The feminist analytic thinkers whose work is collected here confront the meaning established by the assignment of gender and the uncertainty created by its absence The contributions brought together in Psychoanalytic Reflections on a Gender free Case address a cross section of significant issues that have both chronicled and facilitated the changes in feminist psychoanalysis since the mid 1980s Difficult issues which have previously been ignored such as the pregnancy of the therapist or sexual abuse regarded as more than a fantasy are considered first The book goes on to address family perspectives as they interact and shape the child's experience of growing up male or female Other topics covered are the authority of personal agency as influenced by the language and theory of patriarchy male centred concepts that consistently define women as inferior and the concept of gender as being co constructed within a relationship The gender free case presented here will fascinate all psychoanalysts interested in exploring ways of grappling with the elusive nature of gender as well as those studying gender studies

My Mother's Voice Adrienne Kertzer, 2001-12-11 Named Honor Book of the Year by the Children's Literature Association Winner 2003 Canadian Jewish Book Award for scholarship on a Jewish subject Finalist 2003 Alberta Book Awards Scholarly Book of the Year How do children's books represent the Holocaust How do such books negotiate the tension between the desire to protect children and the commitment to tell children the truth about the world If Holocaust representations in children's books respect the narrative conventions of hope and happy endings how do they differ if at all from popular representations intended for adult audiences And where does innocence lie if the children's fable of Roberto Benigni's Life is Beautiful is marketed for adults and far more troubling survivor memoirs such as Anita Lobel's No Pretty Pictures A Child of War are marketed for children How should Holocaust Studies integrate discourse about children's literature into its discussions In approaching these and other questions Kertzer uses the lens of children's literature to problematize the ways in which various adult discourses represent the Holocaust and continually challenges the conventional belief that children's literature is the place for easy answers and optimistic lessons

The Historian's Toolbox Robert C. Williams, 2019-11-27 The Historian's Toolbox introduces students to the theory craft and methods of history and equips them with a series of tools to research and understand the past Written in an engaging and entertaining style and filled with fascinating examples this best selling how to book opens up an exciting world behind historical research and writing This fourth edition expands the repertory of tools and techniques available to students entering the workshop of history These include materials on the Kennedy assassination the litigation of Van Gogh's Night Caf local town histories contemporary history Twitter and the contemplation of the end of history as well as the Sixth Extinction in a new epilogue The book demonstrates the relevance and expanding possibilities of the study of history in our cacophonous information age of tweetstorms and fake news it emphasises the increasing value of critical thinking facts and evidence in the face of political lies and conspiracy theories Material added to the fourth edition will resonate with a new generation of computer literate readers in the face of climate change The Historian's Toolbox continues to be a seminal text for supporting students throughout their study of history and an accessible teaching tool for instructors

The Historian's Toolbox Robert Chadwell Williams, 2007 The first part of the book is a stimulating introduction to the key elements of history evidence narrative judgement that explores how the study and concepts of history have evolved over the centuries The second part guides readers through the workshop of history Unlocking the historian's toolbox it reveals the tricks of the trade including documents sources footnotes bibliographies chronologies and more This section also covers issues of interpretation speculation professional ethics and controversial issues such as plagiarism historical hoaxes and conspiracy theories

Secret Spaces of Childhood Elizabeth N. Goodenough, 2010-03-23 Whether it's real or imaginary every child has a secret space and this remarkable book explores them all For some it's a treehouse or a hidden spot beneath a bush for others it is a private psychic refuge a favorite book or a dollhouse that becomes a stage for a young imagination As the more than four dozen pieces collected here reveal such spaces play a key role in a child's development and retain a symbolic power that resonates throughout our adult lives No reader will put this book down without experiencing a rush of familiar memories and new insights into that bygone world Poet Diane Ackerman evokes that parallel universe behind the eyes which no one shared or dare discover Paul Brodeur recalls the fort where he and his brother defended Cape Cod against invaders in World War II Nobelist Wole Soyinka offers a poignant verse portrait of Africa's lost children and Paul West remembers youthful encounters with his eccentric neighbors Edith and Osbert Sitwell Elsewhere Robert Coles summons up memories of his first years as a doctor and a wise young patient who taught him a lesson he has never forgotten and Mary Galbraith shows how childhood loss is transformed into art in Ludwig Bemelmans's classic Madeline And these are just a few of the gems in a treasury that includes Anne Frank the controversial photographs of Sally Mann and the crudely eloquent drawings of young South African refugees clinical case studies and profoundly personal imagery A perceptive thought provoking work for general readers Secret Spaces of Childhood opens a wonderful window on the world of the young Elizabeth Goodenough is Lecturer in Comparative Literature the Residential College University of Michigan Popular Trauma Culture Anne Rothe, 2011-09-15 In Popular Trauma Culture Anne Rothe argues that American Holocaust discourse has a particular plot structure characterized by a melodramatic conflict between good and evil and embodied in the core characters of victim survivor and perpetrator and that it provides the paradigm for representing personal experiences of pain and suffering in the mass media The book begins with an analysis of Holocaust clichés including its political appropriation the notion of vicarious victimhood the so called victim talk rhetoric and the infusion of the composite survivor figure with Social Darwinism Readers then explore the embodiment of popular trauma culture in two core mass media genres daytime TV talk shows and misery memoirs Rothe conveys how victimhood and suffering are cast as trauma kitsch on talk shows like Oprah and as trauma camp on modern day freak shows like Springer The discussion also encompasses the first scholarly analysis of misery memoirs the popular literary genre that has been widely critiqued in journalism as pornographic depictions of extreme violence Currently considered the largest growth sector in book publishing worldwide many of these works are also fabricated And since forgeries reflect the cultural entities that are most revered the book concludes with an examination of fake misery memoirs The Barsden Memoirs (1799-1816) Grant Rodwell, 2022-02-27 Covering the life of Josephus Henry Barsden from his birth in 1799 through his childhood to 16 years of age the Barsden memoirs describe events from a Sussex smugglers inn a convict ship to the colony of New South Wales sealing and whaling expeditions to Van Diemen's Land and Barsden's participation in a Tahitian civil war The author assesses the value of memoirs and of these memoirs in particular to students of history in respect to the transnational paradigm He tests the historicity and veracity of their contents and provides an engaging exegesis and graphical supplement of its contents Of central importance is Barsden's account of the Battle of Fe i Pi which was in many respects the Pacific s equivalent to the contemporaneous Battle of Waterloo such was its lasting impact on Pacific geopolitics This was no ordinary childhood and poses many questions about a transnational adolescent s impact on major events A fascinating read for scholars and students of Australian Pacific and British Colonial History written with academic rigour but accessible to non specialists Spiritual Homelands Asher D. Biemann, Richard I. Cohen, Sarah E. Wobick-Segev, 2019-12-02 Homeland Exile Imagined Homelands are features of the modern experience and relate to the cultural and historical dilemmas of loss nostalgia utopia travel longing and are central for Jews and others This book is an exploration into a world of boundary crossings and of desired places and alternate identities into a world of adopted kin and invented allegiances
