Dog House Carol Prisant, 2010-05-06 Dog House wasn't supposed to be a book about love It was supposed to be a hugely funny account of the dogs in Carol Prisant's life And not just the dogs but that first bird she found at Woolworth's the monkey that fell in love with her husband's leg the thankless tiny turtle and the goldfish her pet challenged mother flushed down the toilet Somehow though this straightforward telling got a little blindsided by things like making marriage work and home owning and children and a profession and her dear supportive husband Millard Which is why the goldfish will just have to wait for the sequel This book is still about cold noses warm bellies four on the floor and a snuggler or two Your basic fur family It's also about the love of a mother for her son a wife for her husband a husband for some dogs and the love it takes to make a haunted house a home Your basic family furnishings Throw in a lot of antiques a couple triumphs over adversity and a more than seems fair share of heartbreaking loss and you have Dog House the warm absorbing and humorous tale of dogs and marriage love and marriage and life

London, ed. by C. Knight. Revised by E. Walford Charles Knight, Edward Walford, 1875 Longing for Home M. Jan Holton, 2016-06-28 What is it about the concept of home that makes its loss so profound and devastating and how should the trauma of exile and alienation be approached theologically M Jan Holton examines the psychological social and theological impact of forced displacement on communities in the Congo and South Sudan and on indigenous Batwa tribespersons in Uganda as well as on homeless U S citizens and on U S soldiers returning from the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq She draws on ethnographic work in Africa extensive research in practical theology sociology and psychology as well as on professional work and personal experiences in America and abroad In doing so she explores how forced displacement disrupts one's connection with the home place and the profound characteristics it fosters that can help people lean toward flourishing spiritually and psychologically throughout their lifetime Displacement invites a social alienation that can become deeply institutionalized threatening the moral well being of us all Longing For Home offers a frame for understanding how communities can respond to refugees and various homeless populations by cultivating hospitality outside of their own comfort zones This essential study addresses an urgent interreligious global concern and Holton's thoughtful and compelling work offers a constructive model for a sustained practical response

Indian Antiquary, 1900

At a time when each Society had its own medium of propagation of its researches in the form of Transactions Proceedings Journals etc a need was strongly felt for bringing out a journal devoted exclusively to the study and advancement of Indian culture in all its aspects This encouraged Jas Burgess to launch the Indian antiquary in 1872 The scope was in his own words as wide as possible incorporating manners and customs arts mythology feasts festivals and rites antiquities and the history of India Another laudable aim was to present the readers abstracts of the most recent researches of scholars in India and the West Indian antiquary also dealt with local legends folklore proverbs etc In short Indian antiquary was entirely devoted to the study of

MAN the Indian in all spheres introduction to facsimile volumes published 1985 The Darwin Effect Jerry Bergman, 2014-09-26 Dr Miklos Nyiszli an imprisoned doctor in the Auschwitz camp wrote that Nazi doctors hoped studying twins would solve the problem of faster reproduction of superior races Nazis hoped to have each German mother bear as many twins as possible What Darwin influenced went far beyond the Nazi death camps Shocking political social and scientific legacies of Darwin and his family Disturbing disclosure of how over 45 million Christians were killed in the 20th century because of their faith Revealing and layman friendly presentation This book is the result of 30 years of research and study carefully documenting the common destructive threads that tie some of history s most murderous dictators uncaring capitalists and aggressive social activists to the flawed concepts of Charles Darwin in an effort to change the world and how they succeeded The extermination of races considered lower than others the profound lack of empathy for less advanced cultures the corrupted atheistic justifications for taking the lives of millions all done to advance the agendas of social Darwinism at work in the world today More than mere theoretical discussions we have seen the horrifying evidence of the practical results when applying these destructive and misleading concepts to society in the last 100 years Medical Pickwick ,1921 Short Stories Alexandre Dumas, 1927
