After graduating from the University of Missouri in 1969 I was commissioned as an officer in the Marines I served an interesting tour of duty in Southeast Asia in 1972 during which time I was in and out of six different countriesincluding Vietnam A greenhorn lieutenant when I landed I was eventually promoted to captain Because of my God given take charge personality and a few very junior officer notable accomplishments I found myself frequently being handpicked for special assignments I saw action with seven different unitssome good some badsome ugly I saw men die I saw capable men withered by fatigue brave men crippled by fear Since I served more than forty years ago now I have had the pleasure and privilege of meeting and getting to know hundreds of fellow Vietnam Vets short term acquaintances professional colleagues neighbors

close friends family members Although our individual Vietnam stories are unique and intensely personal I have come to realize that a common thread runs through most of them For more than twenty five years I have been asked to formally speak to sundry civic organizations history classes and social gatherings As a result of fielding thousands of audience questions and listening to their spontaneous reactions to my talks I have learned what people are interesting in hearing I have seen their reactions to my version of Americas Vietnam experience I know whats interesting and whats not whats important to those who werent there ordinary people who merely wonder what it was like I have enjoyed two successful careers and am currently embarked upon my third I have fired most of lifes best bullets emptied most of my chosen weapons most precious magazines drained my fullest canteens exhausted most of my allotted time on this fair planet we call earth I want to share a few of the stories of men I served with men I came to know later in life men I loved as brothers in arms surviving in harms way or men who were simply Crazy Vietnam Vets like me with a special story to tell Men JUST like me only different Ours are interesting up and down tales of wonder and weird of good times and bad I am happily married to a seasoned school nurse am the father of three college educated sons and have two fine grandsons I live in Blanco Texas about forty miles due west of Austin I have always viewed lifes glass as half full hope you enjoy our Not Ordinary war stories American Fruit Grower

,1919 Fatal Intentions Barbara Smith,2016-02-22 Canadians are very polite but they also commit murder And those who think that mass homicides and wanton killings are recent phenomena in Canada should treat themselves to Fatal Intentions Using contemporary accounts Barbara Smith vividly recreates a number of murder cases from 1920s Nova Scotia to 1980s British Columbia Some like the Boyd Gang adventures are still remembered often inaccurately or romantically others like the murder of Flora Gray in Yarmouth or the murder of twenty three innocents in Quebec in 1949 can now be recalled by only a few In some cases the truth may exist only in dusty archives in others the truth may have gone to the graves of the victims or the accused Robert Cook s killing spree all seven in his family in Stettler Alberta will probably be recounted locally for generations But did he do it Toronto s Boyd Gang boasted about hot cars and beautiful women the stuff of folklore And newspaper writers of that time were only too willing to add to the romantic tales The last woman to be hanged in Canada her disabled brother and his employer all went to the gallows two for greed one for lust These and other stories are part of our history and often part of our folklore They also can remind us that human nature doesnt t change easily over decades or distances Greed lust and other deadly sins can lead to fatal intentions anytime anywhere Good

The Migrant Diaries Lynne Jones, 2021-02-09 What is it like to run away from home lose your family and work out how to take care of yourself in a foreign country when you are seven years old What do you do when the woman who promised you a good job in Europe turns out to have sold you into prostitution How do you escape from torture and detention in Libya What is it like to almost drown in the Mediterranean and then be confined in a garbage and rat filled settlement on a Greek island for years In this book Lynne Jones answers these questions by combining direct testimony from children with a blazingly frank eyewitness account of providing mental health support on the front line of the migrant crisis across Europe and Central America in the past five years Her diaries document how a compassionate welcome shifted to indifference and hostility toward those seeking refuge from war disaster and poverty in the richest countries in the world They shine light on what it is like to be caught up on the front lines of the migrant crises in Europe and Central America either as a person in flight or as a volunteer trying to help They show how people who have fled war poverty and disaster trapped in degrading humiliating living conditions have responded with resourcefulness and creativity In the absence of most large professional humanitarian agencies migrants and volunteers together have created a new form of humanitarianism that challenges old ways of working Today there are 79 million forcibly displaced people in the world today 1 percent of the world's population Understanding the perspectives of people on the move has never been more important The Author's profits from this book will be donated to the charity CHOOSE LOVE HELP REFUGEES      Let there be Peace! - True stories from Peace Activists Mark O'Doherty, 2011-09-13 This is a book that defies categorisation Let there be Peace is more than a collection of stories about workcamps and volunteering although the reader gets an intimate view into the experiences of anyone who forgoes the nine to five predictability of the West for what some call the developing world They also take the reader into unexpected places the Middle East or apartheid era South Africa Furthermore simple stories are augmented by letters and emails that chart the progress of the newcomer along with highly personalised musings by the author on the wider context of peace activism and volunteering Let there be Peace is a book like no other Tom Farrel Freelance Journalist from Ireland      Tattooed Tails: short & even shorter global stories Tim Devron Green, 2016-08-27 Tim has spent much of his life travelling on behalf of multinationals and these short stories are inspired by his global journeys and adventures They are gripping tales with dark twists wicked humour warmth and intrigue Don't start reading this fascinating collection until you have a few hours spare as you simply won't be able to put it down Not surprisingly Tim's short stories have already featured in critically acclaimed anthologies Published reviews of Tim Devron Green's recent novel Drowning It's hard for me to imagine an audience to which Drowning would not appeal Absolutely brilliant This a compellingly dark novel which once past page 13 is impossible to put down This is a page turner with an interesting plot which twists and turns just the thing for a long flight
