Strommen, Karen Jones, Dave

Rahn, 2011-05-03. A first of its kind study of Protestant youth ministers reveals the hopes, frustrations, and effectiveness of today's youth workers. Of the 7,000 youth workers assembled in 1996 under Atlanta's Georgia Dome, a sample of 2,130 full-time youth ministers from dozens of Protestant denominations and parachurch organizations answered a battery of exhaustive, deliberate questions covering: What they liked best about youth ministry; What particularly pleased them in their work with youth; What they found most encouraging or discouraging; Their biggest obstacle to an effective youth ministry; Their biggest concern in youth ministry. Their answers revealed a dedicated group of professionals concerned about the students in their ministries but troubled with a variety of perplexing issues. And their answers form the backbone of Youth Ministry That Transforms, a comprehensive analysis of this groundbreaking study funded by the Lilly Endowment, focusing on the hopes, frustrations, and effectiveness of today's youth workers. Spearheaded by Merton Strommen, one of America's most exemplary and influential thinkers and authors in youth and family ministry, the research/writing team is joined by Karen E. Jones and Dave Rahn of Huntington Indiana College's Link Institute for Faithful and Effective Youth Ministry, and acknowledged leader in the task of undergirding youth ministry with a research base. These three deliver thorough analysis and sound interpretation regarding the state of youth ministry at the dawn of the 21st century. Youth Ministry That Transforms belongs on the desks and in the classrooms of all who are concerned with this developing profession, including denominational and parachurch leadership, professors, youth ministry students, and thoughtful youth workers themselves. It is also an insightful resource for any who want to understand youth ministers and their profession: senior pastors, executive pastors, and other individuals and committees charged with hiring and supervising youth workers. Get 'Em Talking Mike Yaconelli, Scott
