Most Romantic Rooms for Honeymoons and other Great Vacations is a soft cover color photographic coffee table travel book which contains over a hundred romantic destinations around the world and provides pictures of these special rooms as well as their beautiful views. The overnight sensations we feature are the ones we have found to be the most romantic of the rooms at these hotels. Cook's Handbook to the Health Resorts of the South of France, Riviera, and Pyrenees ... Thomas Cook (Firm), 1900. The Hotel as Setting in Early Twentieth-century German and Austrian Literature Bettina Matthias, 2006. The employment of the hotel as a setting for literary works of the period and the cultural reasons behind it. As the bourgeois concept of home became problematic after important changes in German speaking society during the 19th century, many fiction writers chose the literary setting of the hotel to explore the status of the individual and the notions of public and private. As social microcosms, hotels are fitting experimental settings for literary inquiries into the tension between the individual's quest for a place in the world and the technocratic rationalism of modern life. The book has two parts: the first establishing the cultural and theoretical context and the second providing analyses of literary works set in hotels. A brief history of commercial hospitality and a chapter establishing the theoretical framework of the hotel as a paradigmatic ambivalent semi-public and stage-like modern space lead to readings of texts by Schnitzler, Zweig, Werfel, Kafka, Thomas Mann, Joseph Roth, and Vicki Baum. Bettina Matthias is Associate Professor of German at Middlebury College. Cook's tourist's handbook for northern Italy Cook Thomas and son, Ltd, 1899. Manifestoes and Transformations in the Early Modernist City Professor Christian Hermansen Cordua, 2012-11-28. The industrialization of the nineteenth century European city facilitated developing conceptions of the model city and allowed for large-scale urban transformations. The urban discourse in the latter half of the nineteenth century was consequently dominated by a dialectic exchange between the ideal and the practical; a debate played out in the formation of the modern metropolis. Manifestoes and Transformations is the first work to deal with urban utopias and their relationship with actual urban interventions. Bringing together a carefully chosen wide-ranging team of experts, the book provides a broad contextual exploration of the ideas and urban practices which are the foundations of our conception of the contemporary city. As such, it is a valuable resource for students interested in the formation of the modernist city. A Nobel Affair Erika Rummel, 2017-06-16. Alfred Nobel made his name as an inventor and successful entrepreneur and left a legacy as a philanthropist and promoter of learning and social progress. The correspondence between Nobel and his Viennese mistress Sofie Hess shines a light on his private life and reveals a personality that differs significantly from his public image The letters show him as a hypochondriac and workaholic and as a paranoid jealous and patriarchal lover Indeed the relationship between the aging Alfred Nobel and the carefree spendthrift Sofie Hess will strike readers as dysfunctional and worthy of Freudian analysis Erika Rummel s masterful translation and annotations reveal the value of the letters as commentary on 19th century social mores the concept of honour and reputation the life of a kept woman the prevalence of antisemitism the importance of spas as health resorts and entertainment centres the position of single mothers and more generally the material culture of a rich bourgeois gentleman A Nobel Affair is the first translation into English of the complete correspondence between Alfred Nobel and Sofie Hess

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
