The Hottest Water in Chicago Gayle Pemberton, 1998-04-24 An illuminating cultural journey through black and white America

The Maid's Daughter Mary Romero, 2012-12-31 At a very young age Olivia left her family and traditions in Mexico to live with her mother Carmen in one of Los Angeles's most exclusive and nearly all white gated communities Based on over twenty years of research Romero brings Olivia's remarkable story to life We watch as she struggles through adolescence declares her independence and eventually goes off to college and becomes a successful professional Much of her story is told in Olivia's voice and we hear of both her triumphs and her setbacks Romero explores this story about belonging identity and resistance illustrating Olivia's challenge to establish her sense of identity and the patterns of inclusion and exclusion in her life Romero points to the hidden costs of paid domestic labor that are transferred to the families of private household workers and nannies and shows how everyday routines are important in maintaining and assuring that various forms of privilege are passed on from one generation to another She shows how mythologies of meritocracy the land of opportunity and the American dream remain firmly in place while simultaneously erasing injustices and the struggles of the working poor From publisher description

Children of the Dream Laurel Holliday, 2014-02-04 I let somebody call me nigger It wasn't just any old body either it was my friend That really hurt Amityyah Elayne Hyman Martin Luther King Jr dreamed of a day when black children were judged not by the color of their skin but by the content of their character His eloquent charge became the single greatest inspiration for the achievement of racial justice in America In her powerful fourth book in the Children of Conflict series Laurel Holliday explores how far we have come as she presents thirty eight African Americans who share their experiences as Children of the Dream I was brought up with white Barbie dolls of impossible proportions and long silky blonde hair neither of which I possessed As a child I believed what I was taught and I wasn't taught to love myself for who I am an African American Charisse Nesbit The unforgettable people we hear from are young and old rich and poor from inner cities suburbia and rural America In chronicles that are highly personal funny tragic and triumphant the contributors tell us what it is like coming of age stigmatized by the color of their skin yet proud of their heritage and culture Their voices their courage their resilience and their understanding offer hope for us all

Cap Wigington David Vassar Taylor, Paul Clifford Larson, 2001 Clarence W Cap Wigington was a man of firsts the first registered African American architect in Minnesota and the first African American municipal architect in the nation The public buildings that he designed for the city of St Paul are a continuing legacy helping to define the city's character And his achievements both as an architect and as a leader in the state's African American community are all the more significant given the limitations of the times in which he lived Wigington's most ephemeral work may have been his most creative From 1937 to 1947 he designed six ice palaces and a number of secondary structures for St Paul's famous Winter Carnival These stunningly fanciful designs are Wigington's most imaginative and exuberant Alternating chapters by Taylor and Larson examine the man his times his leadership in the African American community and his architectural work Richly illustrated with photos of Wigington s buildings and his drawings the book also contains a list of works attributed to Wigington His life story shows the struggles and the achievements of a talented individual facing and conquering long odds      Names We Call Home Becky Thompson,Sangeeta Tyagi,2013-05-13 Names We Call Home is a ground breaking collection of essays which articulate the dynamics of racial identity in contemporary society The first volume of its kind Names We Call Home offers autobiographical essays poetry and interviews to highlight the historical social and cultural influences that inform racial identity and make possible resistance to myriad forms of injustice      Black Metropolis St. Clair Drake,Horace R. Nonfiction Lee Gutkind, 2007-08-24 A complete guide to the art and craft of creative nonfiction from one of its pioneer practitioners The challenge of creative nonfiction is to write the truth in a style that is as accurate and informative as reportage yet as personal provocative and dramatic as fiction In this one of a kind guide award winning author essayist teacher and editor Lee Gutkind gives you concise pointed advice on every aspect of writing and selling your work including Guidelines for choosing provocative and salable topics Smart research techniques including advice on conducting penetrating interviews and using electronic research tools Tips for focusing and structuring a piece for maximum effectiveness Advice on working successfully with editors and literary agents African American Architects Dreck Spurlock Wilson, 2004-03 Since 1865 African American architects have been designing and building houses and public buildings but the architects are virtually unknown This work brings their lives and work to light for the first time Sportin' Life Brian Harker, 2022 Sportin' Life tells for the first time the full dramatic story of one of America's great song and dance men A groundbreaking tap dancer who provided inspiration to the likes of Fred Astaire Eleanor Powell and the Nicholas Brothers John W Bubbles is the epitome of a highly influential but mostly forgotten figure Cinema Studies Susan Hayward, 2022-09-30 Now in its sixth edition this essential guide for students provides accessible definitions of a comprehensive range of genres movements world cinemas theories and production terms This fully revised and updated book includes new topical entries that explore areas such as film and the environmental crisis streaming and new audience consumption diversity and intersectionality questions related to race and representation the Black Lives Matter movement and New Wave Cinemas of Eastern European countries Further new entries include accented exilic cinema border cinema the oppositional gaze sonic sound and Black westerns Existing entries have been updated including discussion of MeToo and more contemporary film examples have been added throughout This is a must have guide for any student starting out on this fascinating area of study and arguably the greatest art form of modern times Wise Women Phyllis Freeman, Jan

Schmidt,2013-12-02 Wise Women is a collection of autobiographical essays by important and renowned teachers at mid life. The essays which are deeply personal will focus on how these women negotiate the psychological physical and social changes brought on by menopause and how the aging process affects their lives as professionals feminists writers mentors and instructors in the academy. The book addresses such questions as the following: What challenges are left for the feminists who came of age during the women's movement and now have achieved academic success? How do women teachers experience their aging selves in the classroom? What legacy will mid life women leave their younger women colleagues? All of these questions as well as many others are covered in this insightful and groundbreaking work. Free Within Ourselves Jewell Parker Rhodes,2010-03-31 A Bird by Bird for the African American market. A top notch writer's guide filled with practical guidance essays and journal exercises for the African American writer including advice from E Lynn Harris Charles Johnson and Yolanda Joe. In her introduction Jewell Parker Rhodes writes: "Never in four years of college or five years of graduate school was I assigned an exercise or given a story example that included a person of color." While the educational system and the publishing world have become progressively more welcoming of African American authors there is still little attention to educating supporting and sustaining the writing process of African American authors. Free Within Ourselves is a solid first step; it is the book I wished I had when I started out as a writer. It is meant to be a song of encouragement for African American artists and visionaries. Free Within Ourselves is a step by step introduction to fictional technique exploring story ideas and charting one's progress as well as a resource guide for publishing fiction. For the legions of people who have a novel stuck in their word processors help is finally on the way. Free Within Ourselves is an excellent guide to all the elements necessary to crafting fiction: character development point of view plot atmosphere dialogue diction sentence variety and revision. Writing techniques are taught using exercises journaling story examples and analyses of famous writing fragments as well as several complete stories including those of James Baldwin Zora Neale Hurston and Edwidge Danticat among others. The book is further enhanced by inspirational advice from successful contemporary black writers such as Bebe Moore Campbell Rita Dove Henry Louis Gates John Edgar Wideman and others a bibliography and a guide to workshops journals magazines contests and fellowships supportive of black arts. The Ethnic Moment: The Search for Equality in the American Experience Philip L. Fetzer,2016-09-16 This anthology focuses on the experiences of Americans whose lives have been strongly affected by the pursuit of equality in areas such as politics law education and government. Each of the autobiographical essays gives voice to the writer's first personal experience of inequality.
