House Of Make Believe:

The House of Make-Believe Dorothy G. Singer, Jerome L. Singer, 2009-06-30 An attempt to cover all aspects of children's make believe The authors examine how imaginative play begins and develops and provide examples and evidence on the young child's invocation of imaginary friends the adolescent's daring games and the adult's private imagery and inner thought

Make Believe Victoria Hutchins, 2025-03-18 An exquisite poetry collection from the creator of The Daily Victorian that celebrates the hidden versions of ourselves and unveils the healing power of nostalgia imagination and hope This is for anyone who doesn't see deep feeling as a bad thing but would appreciate a warm and talented companion while they do it Mari Andrew New York Times bestselling author of Am I There Yet Maybe you're not old enough yet to believe in fairy tales again But you can take a walk with optimism You can hear her out when she tells you the universe is conspiring in your favor and can keep your eyes peeled for signs that she's right Victoria Hutchins's debut Make Believe is a reclamation of wonder and an invitation to return to childlike joy wielding nostalgia and memory as lenses to imagine a fuller life These poems pave a path of reconnection to our bodies our past our desires and our wonder beckoning readers to discover a world worth holding on to Make Believe is for anyone who wants to take back the narrative of their life whose body often feels like an enemy to their soul or who might be struggling to stick around This book will inspire readers to go out looking heart in hand for joy purpose and healing With Hutchins's trademark sensory and evocative language throughout Make Believe contains both viral spoken word pieces and never before shared writing Ultimately pointing readers toward transformation Hutchins invites you to imagine What would happen if you allowed yourself to believe again in dreams and miracles but mostly in yourself

Religion as Make-Believe Neil Van Leeuwen, 2023-11-21 Drawing on a range of hard evidence Neil Van Leeuwen shows that the psychological mechanisms underlying religious belief are the same as those enabling imaginative play He argues that we should therefore understand religious belief as a form of make believe that people use to define their group identity and express the values sacred to them

Think Again Fabulous Fabel, 2012-06 I was born 1966 as Randall Fabel When I was young I moved from Minnesota to Louisiana I have lived in Florida Texas and Arkansas Now Louisiana is my home I've been everything from a truck driver to a painter now I'm a construction foreman They have been calling me fabulous Fabel for many years I don't really know why I guess it's just because of my creative mind I have been married twice and have two step kids as well as two of my own I also a proud step grandfather I've always thought that I was born to do something else Music always has been part of my life With every word I write there's a melody in my head I can sing along to any one of these songs Although when I was younger I never would write down these melodies in my head Now that I'm older I have two teenage kids of my own that I love very much I tell them to follow their dreams I have been sitting on my dream all along which is to be an acknowledged song writer My kids give me all the inspiration that I need to succeed in life I am up and down in this crazy life and I think it's about time to become who I was meant to be Maybe something good will happen here who knows the sky s the limit so they say So peace love and happiness Does the Sh— Ever End?

Richard Swartz,2017-09-05 It was certainly not one of the authors primary goals in life to become an alcoholic but it happened This book takes you inside the authors head to show the reader how it happened Alcohol is cunning baffling and powerful This book takes you aboard the authors journey into alcoholism as the author openly and honestly describes how for many many years alcohol was the cure to all that ailed him and there was a lot But in the end alcohol became the ailment itself The author hopes that this book will help fellow sufferers understand what happened to themthe why and the how The author also hopes it will provide friends and family of fellow sufferers with some insight as to why their loved ones cant really see whats happening and why they continue down their destructive path It was a journey for the author that lasted longer than it should have but does have a happy ending It is the authors hope that others can achieve a similar happy ending

Kennedy-Andrews, 2008 The idea of place and of being displaced is a powerful leit motif in Northern Irish poetry It is here explored in depth from the 1960s to the present day Ideas of home place and identity have been continually questioned re imagined and re constructed in Northern Irish poetry Concentrating on the period since the outbreak of the Troubles in the late 1960s this study provides a detailed consideration of the work of several generations of poets from Hewitt and MacNeice to Fiacca and Montague to Simmons Heaney Mahon and Longley to Muldoon Carson Paulin and McGuckian to McDonald Morrissey Gillis and Flynn It traces the extent to which their writing represents a move away from concepts of rootedness and towards a deterritorialized poetics of displacement mobility openness and pluralism in an era of accelerating migration and globalisation In the new readings of place inherited maps are no longer reliable and home is no longer the stable ground of identity but seems instead to be always where it is not The crossing of boundaries and the experience of diaspora open up new understandings of the relations between places a new sense of the permeability and contingency of cultures and new concepts of identity and home Professor ELMER KENNEDY ANDREWS teaches in the Department of English at the University of Ulster

Karl Dane Laura Petersen Balogh, 2009-10-21 Karl Dane's life was a Cinderella story gone horribly wrong The immigrant from Copenhagen was rapidly transformed from a machinist to a Hollywood star after his turn as the tobacco chewing Slim in The Big Parade in 1925 After that Dane appeared in more than 40 films with such luminaries as Lillian Gish John Gilbert and William Haines until development of talkies virtually ruined his career The most famous casualty of the transition from silent to sound film Dane reportedly lost his career because of his accent He was broke and alone at the height of the Depression and committed suicide in 1934
