House of Windows Adina Hoffman, 2002 House of Windows Adina Hoffman, 2001 Jerusalem as seen by Hoffman and the neighborhood where she has lived for a decade after moving from the United States American Jewish Year Book 2002, 2002 The Object of Jewish Literature Barbara E. Mann, 2022-07-26 A history of modern Jewish literature that explores our enduring attachment to the book as an object With the rise of digital media the death of the book has been widely discussed But the physical object of the book persists Here through the lens of materiality and objects Barbara E Mann tells a history of modern Jewish literature from novels and poetry to graphic novels and artists books Bringing contemporary work on secularism and design in conversation with literary history she offers a new and distinctive frame for understanding how literary genres emerge The long twentieth century a period of tremendous physical upheaval and geographic movement witnessed the production of a multilingual canon of writing by Jewish authors Literature's objecthood is felt not only in the physical qualities of books bindings covers typography illustrations but also through the ways in which materiality itself became a practical foundation for literary expression Sophie Halaby in Jerusalem Laura S.

Schor, 2019-08-30 A pioneer among Palestinian artists Sophie Halaby was the first Arab woman to study art in Paris subsequently living independently as a professional painter in Jerusalem throughout her life She was born in 1906 in Kiev to a Russian mother and a Christian Arab father Her family fled to Jerusalem in 1917 in the wake of the Russian Revolution Her life was marked by violence and war including the Arab Revolt from 1936 to 1939 the Nakba in 1948 and the Six Day War in 1967 In response Halaby drew a series of political cartoons criticizing British rule and Zionist goals later in life she followed the work of younger artists who supported the Palestine liberation movement However the political turmoil of her times is largely not depicted in her art Instead her work is a tribute to the enduring beauty of the landscape and flora of Jerusalem often sketched in pen and ink or red and black chalk and painted with egg tempera oils and watercolors Schor's compelling biography shines new light on this little known artist and enriches our understanding of modern Palestinian history

Journal of Palestine Studies, 2004 Ben Hecht Adina Hoffman, 2019-02-12 A vibrant portrait of one of the most accomplished and prolific American screenwriters by an award winning biographer and essayist He was according to Pauline Kael the greatest American screenwriter Jean Luc Godard called him a genius who invented 80 percent of what is used in Hollywood movies today Besides tossing off dozens of now classic scripts including Scarface Twentieth Century and Notorious Ben Hecht was known in his day as ace reporter celebrated playwright taboo busting novelist and the most quick witted of provocateurs During World War II he also emerged as an outspoken crusader for the imperiled Jews of Europe and later he became a fierce propagandist for pre 1948 Palestine's Jewish terrorist underground Whatever the outrage he stirred this self declared child of the century came to embody much that defined America especially Jewish America in his time Hecht's fame has dimmed with the decades but Adina Hoffman's vivid portrait brings this charismatic and contradictory

figure back to life on the page Hecht was a renaissance man of dazzling sorts and Hoffman critically acclaimed biographer former film critic and eloquent commentator on Middle Eastern culture and politics is uniquely suited to capture him in all his modes Walk With Me Awhile M.
