House Of Yellow Carpet:

Historic Floors Jane Fawcett, 2007-06-01 This is the first book in the UK to be devoted to historic floors. It introduces an important and largely neglected subject and considers conservation methods in a European context. It traces the history of some of the great floors of Europe from the fourth century B.C. and outlines the development of mosaic, tiles, marble and parquet floors in secular buildings. The early Christian pavements in basilicas, temples and cathedrals, the creation of medieval tiles, ledger stones and monumental brasses, their destruction by iconoclasts and re-creation during the Gothic Revival are also discussed. Leading authorities, archaeologists, architects and archivists consider the latest methods of recording and repairing cathedral floors, including those of cathedrals, country houses, the monumental tiled pavements of the Palace of Westminster and other public buildings. Management policies to protect outstanding floors in over-visited sites are considered and historic features particularly at risk are identified. Urgent action is recommended to contain the damage caused by the dramatic increase in tourism throughout Europe.

Spherical Rainbows Carver Waters, 2000-11-20

Spherical Rainbows is a collection of poems written from the late 1960s through the late 1990s. They cover various frames of mind, moods and attitudes. The topics cover the usual range of human beings going through life. Several poems grow out of my experience as a Black man in America and deal with what ensues from that reality. I have written about love, marriage, divorce, aging, various people I've encountered, some I guess it might be called landscape poetry, an attempt at a sci-fi one, crime story in verse, academia, nature, in short, a wide spectrum of human experience and endeavor. Some poems are sad, others happy or confused or angry or hopeful or searching for meaning. In short, the usual human aspirations and experiences.
