House On The Beach:

Beach House for Rent Mary Alice Monroe, 2017-06-20 New York Times bestselling author Mary Alice Monroe returns to her beloved Isle of Palms to tell the poignant charming story of two women one summer and one very special beach house. When Cara Rutledge rents out her quaint beach house on Isle of Palms to Heather Wyatt for the entire summer it's a win-win by any standard. Cara's generating income necessary to keep husband Brett's ecotourism boat business afloat and anxiety-prone Heather, a young artist who's been given a commission to paint birds on postage stamps, has a quiet space in which to work and tend to her pet canaries uninterrupted. It isn't long, however, before both women's idyllic summers are altered irrevocably: the alluring shorebirds and the man who rescues them begin to draw Heather out of the shell she's cultivated toward a world of adventure and maybe even love at the same time. Cara's life reels with sudden tragedy and she wishes only to return to the beach house that had once been her port amidst life's storms. When Heather refuses to budge from her newfound sanctuary, so begins the unlikelyst of rooming situations. While they start out as strangers, as everything around the women falls apart, they learn that the only thing they can really rely on is each other. And like the migrating shorebirds that come to the island for the summer, these two women of different generations must rediscover their unique strengths so by summer's end they too can take flight in ways they never imagined possible. This is a family memoir consisting of conversations, historic photographs, regional and natural history, and anecdotes all which document the story of the building of an architecturally unique house that became a local landmark, dubbed the Witches House, located in Laguna Beach, California. The house was included in the city's 1981 Historic Resources Inventory and was deemed eligible for the National Registry of Historic Places. The designer and builder of the Beach House is the author's grandfather, E. Vernon Barker, who went on to be a principal architect and planner of the UCLA Medical Center complex in 1944-1966. Her grandaunt, Bertha S. Barker of Riverside, California, instigated and financed the project. They began building in 1925 but, as Mr. Barker noted in 1976, it's not done yet. This multi-generational family story of the unusual elements, both interior and exterior, is told in detail using transcribed conversations of the Barker siblings recorded by the author in 1976 when the elders were in their eighties and with photographs from 1925 through the 1980s culled from family albums. Historic and current photographs of the exquisitely beautiful Pacific Ocean coves of Laguna Beach are included. Beach House for Rent Mary Alice Monroe, 2017-06-20 Mary Alice Monroe, New York Times bestselling author of the Lowcountry Summer series, returns to her beloved Beach House series with the highly anticipated follow-up to Beach House Memories and The Beach House.
