, Windows on the House of Islam John Renard, 1998-06-18 This volume and its companion John Renard's 1996 book SEVEN DOORS TO ISLAM together integrate a wide range of Islamic literary and visual forms offering a superb introduction to the primary religious sources as well as a general understanding of Islamic spirituality and culture 66 illustrations 1 map

The House of Islam Kenneth Cragg, 1975 Islam Richard Crandall, 2008-07 The attacks on 9/11 were part of a 1400 year Islamic jihad against the non Islamic world Since 9/11 there have been over 10 000 additional violent jihads In addition there have been thousands of soft jihads where Muslims have attempted to replace Western culture with that of Islam The jihadists are motivated by the core principles of Islam with the goal of converting killing or subjugating all non Muslims Unfortunately too many non Muslims have reverted to a pre 9/11 mentality and do not see the necessity of an offensive war in Iraq or Afghanistan or of a defensive war at home Non Muslims are going to have to decide to fight for their cultures freedoms and values or they are going to lose them Dr Crandall has been teaching sociology at the college and university level for over 30 years The focus of some of his other books have been in the area of gerontology the physiological and psychological consequences of running and Inuit art The attacks on 9/11 changed the focus of his research and he has spent the last seven years researching and writing this book

Islam and China's Hong Kong Wai-Yip Ho, 2013-06-07 Hong Kong is a global city state under the sovereignty of the People's Republic of China and is home to around 250 000 Muslims practicing Islam However existing studies of the Muslim majority communities in Asia and the Northwest China largely ignore the Muslim community in Hong Kong Islam and China's Hong Kong skillfully fills this gap and investigates how ethnic and Chinese speaking Muslims negotiate their identities and the increasing public attention to Islam in Hong Kong Examining a range of issues and challenges facing Muslims in Hong Kong this book focuses on the three different diasporic Muslim communities and reveals the city state's triple Islamic heritage and distinctive Islamic culture It begins with the transition from the colonial to the post colonial era and explores how this has impacted on the experiences of the Muslim diaspora and the ways this shift has compelled the community to adapt to Chinese nationalism whilst forging greater links with the Gulf Then with reference to the rise of new media and technology the book examines the heightened presence of Islam in the Chinese public sphere alongside the emergence of Chinese Islamic websites which have sought to balance transnational Muslim solidarity and sensitivity towards Chinese government's concern of external extremism Finally it concludes by investigating Hong Kong's growing awareness of the Muslim minorities demands for Islamic religious education and how this links with the city state's aspiration to become the new gateway for Islamic finance Indeed Wai Yip Ho posits that Hong Kong is now shifting from its role as the broker that bridged East and West during the Cold War to that of a new mediator between China and the Middle East Drawing on extensive ethnographic research this book thoughtfully charts a new area of inquiry and as such will be welcomed by students and scholars of Chinese studies Islamic studies Asian studies and ethnicity studies

Islamic Imperialism Efraim Karsh, 2007-01-01 From the first Arab Islamic Empire of the mid seventh century to the Ottomans the last great Muslim empire the story of the Middle East has been the story of the rise and fall of universal empires and no less important of imperialist dreams So argues Efraim Karsh in this highly provocative book Rejecting the conventional Western interpretation of Middle Eastern history as an offshoot of global power politics Karsh contends that the region's experience is the culmination of long existing indigenous trends passions and patterns of behavior and that foremost among these is Islam's millenarian imperial tradition The author explores the history of Islam's imperialism and the persistence of the Ottoman imperialist dream that outlasted World War I to haunt Islamic and Middle Eastern politics to the present day September 11 can be seen as simply the latest expression of this dream and such attacks have little to do with U S international behavior or policy in the Middle East says Karsh The
