House of Poured-out Waters Jane Mead, 2001 In House of Poured Out Waters Jane Mead's substantial new collection she continues to grapple with a world both personal and cultural Poised in the slender moment between too early and too late between the difficult past and the unimaginable future Mead's poems remind us that the old debates about fate and free will nature and nurture are also matters of personal urgency More than anything it is her spiritual dimension that offers Mead a way into the future but that way must be paved image by image with the world before her Simultaneously conversational and lyrical these fearless poems extend the possibilities of narrative verse Poetry from Sojourner Ruth Lepson, 2004

Collection of poems from 25 years of Sojourner For much of its history Sojourner was the most widely circulated feminist literary journal in America and more than 1 200 poems have appeared in its pages since it began publication in 1975 Nearly 150 of those poems are collected in this volume where together they form a powerful testament to the vibrancy wit and diversity of feminist poetry In addition to works by such well known poets as Molly Peacock Nikki Giovanni Betsy Sholl and Adrienne Rich this collection includes poems by women from a host of different backgrounds including many whose work appeared in print for the first time in Sojourner Some of these poems explode with energy others speak with a haiku like softness some discuss love lust and sexuality while others deal with loss divorce and revenge The voices collected here are old and young rural and urban straight and gay from mothers and daughters to wives lovers and countless others all contributing to this anthology's wide ranging conversation about feminism and feminist poetics The Welcome David

Friedman, 2010-10-01 Fables for the modern age The Hollow Log Lounge R. T. Smith, 2010-10-01 This is no fairy tale It's all fantastic and bizarre and true It's my life a raspy song that sounds better if you sing along The men and women who live and work near Opelika Alabama gather at the Hollow Log Lounge There under the watchful eye of the stuffed fox behind the bar they unload their gripes and worries tell their stories argue joke commune complain and confess In this collection of poems R T Smith paints a vividly imagined portrait of the community in this small town bar capturing the chorus of the patrons voices echoing off the knotted wood paneled walls Smith's stand in Sam Buckhannon scribbles stories heard and overheard as tongues loosened by liquor spin out monologues in which southern idiom and vernacular seem perfectly at home within the constraints of measured verse Poet's Work, Poet's Play Daniel Tobin, Pimone Triplett, 2008 An indispensable resource for anyone interested in the art and craft of contemporary poetry Manderley Rebecca Wolff, 2010-10-01 Selected by Robert Pinsky as one of five volumes published in 2001 in the National Poetry Series In the Manderley of Rebecca Daphne du Maurier's forbidding haven of mocking ghosts and secrets that refuse to remain buried nothing is as it seems So in this stunning debut collection by Rebecca Wolff cities partners mothers sisters friends and perfect strangers all disguise their true faces while they who seek connection are transported from one great gaping hole in the fabric of our knowledge to another No passage is too dark no garden too tangled for the troubled dreamer of Manderley

Wolff turns a quicksilver gaze on a fluid world where both the real and the imaginary are transfigured Tempering steely candor with a sophisticated delight in wordplay these poems turn on a dime from the sensual to the eerie the resigned to the hopeful the comforting to the shocking Each poem weaves together layers of dream remembrance and fantasy distilling from romantic excess a gritty spare language of truth telling and surprise      Guide to the Blue Tongue Virgil Suárez, 2002 Shimmering with saturated color and heat Guide to the Blue Tongue is an intoxicating sequence of memory poems about growing up in the tropics threaded through the myth of Caliban from Shakespeare's The Tempest Caliban is the monstrous native in love with what he cannot possess lost to his own sense of identity In Virgil Suárez's vision the island of Caliban's imprisonment merges with the island of Cuba where the carboneros make charcoal and sell it door to door by the pound young boxers crackle with caged energy dock workers spill like ants out of the bellies of ships and the rain falls in torrents on corrugated tin roofs On this island of fire the Marquis de Sade joins other historical figures to drink absinthe and J Edgar Hoover lingers over mojitos and a cigar at the Tropicana Night Club in Old Havana Hovering behind the hotel shutters or half concealed behind their masks the old poets and prophets Shakespeare Tiresias Pablo Neruda are waiting to speak their passions Out of this rich imaginative brew Suárez evokes the mythical and historical landscape of Cuba and distills the hollow deep thudded pangs of exile's rootlessness the immigrant's constant longing to be possessed by a sense of place Steeped in a seductive incantatory language of desire Guide to the Blue Tongue gives entry to a place of blue possibility and daily undoing where the sting of salt fresh air is compounded by the ache of displacement and loss      Veil and Burn Laurie Clements Lambeth, 2010-10-01 Concerned with physical experience pain and disability Veil and Burn illuminates an intense desire to feel through the Other embrace it become it and in the transformation to understand the suffering body In poems about animals artifacts and monsters Lambeth displays a fascination for all bodies while exploring their pain common fate alienation and abilities Hovering between poem and prose fragment between the self and fellow creatures Laurie Clements Lambeth celebrates physical sensation imbuing it with lyric shape however broken however imprisoned the shape may be

Sleeping with the Moon Colleen J. McElroy, 2024-03-18 PEN Oakland National Literary Award 2008 Colleen J McElroy's poetry shoots for the moon and takes it in too in one way after another The collection's award winning poems animate women's experiences of sex shopping and dancing while offering telling insight into the struggles and silver lining of lust love illness and aging Rich with vivid imagery and candid storytelling Sleeping with the Moon takes readers on moonlit adventures under the night sky through the barroom's smoky haze and under the covers Beware such delicate sights have driven more than one woman to despair instead she watched him breathe relishing for a moment that secret space where night grows soft and the moon's detumescence forgives and where if this jeweled light holds they might strip themselves of years if only for one night from In Praise of Older Women      A Map of the Night David Wagoner, 2010-10-01 David Wagoner's wide ranging poetry buzzes and swells with life Woods streams and fields fascinate him he happily admits his devotion to Thoreau but so do people and their habits dear friends and family the odd poet and strangers who become even stranger when looked at closely In this new collection Wagoner catches the mixed feelings of a long drive the sensations of walking against a current the difficulty of writing poetry with noisily amorous neighbors and many more uniquely familiar experiences Asian American Poetry Victoria Chang,2004 This exciting anthology of work by up and coming writers is the first to profile a new generation of Asian American poets Building on the legacy of now canonized poets such as Li Young Lee Cathy Song and Garrett Hongo who were the first to achieve widespread recognition in the American literary community this new generation also strikes off in bold new directions Asian American Poetry The Next Generation gathers for the first time a broad cross section of the very best work of these young poets all under the age of forty including Timothy Liu Adrienne Su Sue Kwock Kim Rick Barot Brenda Shaughnessy Mong Lan as well as less familiar names A foreword by Marilyn Chin puts the book in context of both Asian American national identity and history and makes the important distinctions between generations clear Asian American Poetry The Next Generation opens the door on a dynamic developing part of the poetic world making it finally accessible to students scholars and poetry fans alike A Deed to the Light Jeanne Murray Walker,2010-10-01 In A Deed To the Light Jeanne Murray Walker asks probing questions about the depth of grief about letting go and about the possibility of faith Her poems have been described by John Taylor writing in Poetry as splendid subtly erudite uplifting and funny The Disappearing Trick Len Roberts,2007-07-27 In The Disappearing Trick Len Roberts wrestles with the loss of loved ones whether that loss be through death a son moving away to college or simply how people fade from our lives and memories Hybrids of the narrative and lyric form these poems are models of indirect statement that have as Sharon Olds has said emotional courage powerful music and a deep balance Like the light shining on a face or a girl's thigh back in a sixth grade class the poems often come as Proustian flashes lasting just a second but seeming eternal amid an increasing darkness In the Black Window Michael Van Walleghen,2004-05-12 The title of Michael Van Walleghen's new collection evokes thematic preoccupations that have shadowed him throughout his long career Appearing as a phrase in the poems themselves In the Black Window more generally points to Van Walleghen's enduring interest in the intersection between inner and outer worlds of experience those liminal moments in other worlds where we become aware of ourselves We live at once in a strictly personal material dimension but also in a distinctly spiritual one Yet when looking from a lighted kitchen into a night black window on a winter evening we might perhaps become suddenly aware not only of our own reflection but also of our complicity in some deeper mystery altogether Controlling the Silver Lorna Goodison,2010-10-01 Renowned poet Lorna Goodison has written a new collection of elegies and praise songs which explore the close link between history and genealogy in the Caribbean experience Her subjects range from the economic genius of market women to the complex beauty of the natural world Arts of a Cold Sun G. E. Murray,2010-10-01 In these poems G E Murray blends the colors of the soul with those of the world it brushes up against exploring the ways in which art both as possession and possessor informs perception

Viewing his subjects sometimes from airplane altitude sometimes from the intimacy of a shared restaurant table Murray crafts true stories about color narratives of dislocation and belonging that invite readers to question their own relationship to art Included in this volume is a long sequential poem titled The Seconds which Murray composed across the second days of thirteen months The rhythms of this diary as poem seize the tensions of shifting times and locales capturing the essences of moments that are at once chosen and arbitrary Codes toward an Incidental City the sequence that closes the book is a confederacy of forty poems that delve into the concrete familiarities and mythologies of urban landscapes illuminating the ecstasies of city life

Spring Oni Buchanan, 2010-10-01 2009 Massachusetts Book Awards Winner Representing nothing less than a tour de force of formal invention and emotional intensity Oni Buchanan's Spring encompasses radically contrasting work Ecstatic visually intricate rhapsodies are juxtaposed with tight sonnet like poems and wispy columns of verse brush up against large scale epics and kinetic text This collection's point of departure is the paradox of existence as an individual in a political and violent world All of the formal innovations in this book have in common an urgent need for texture and polyphony and the poems attempt to discover how to fulfill the individual human responsibility of surviving as a resiliently loving and hopeful living creature An accompanying multimedia compact disc offers a full Flash animated version of the printed kinetic work The Mandrake Vehicles

Barter Ira Sadoff, 2010-10-01 Ira Sadoff's new volume of poems opens with a quotation from Rilke But because truly being here is so much because everything here apparently needs us the fleeting world which in some strange way keeps calling us The poetry collected here is a response to this call Rooted firmly in the fleeting world Sadoff's poems find epiphanies of meaning in unexpected and even unpleasant experiences and emotions The poems in Barter delve deeply into the past the personal past of regret travel love divorce and bereavement as well as the global past of Beethoven Vietnam and the fall of communism Each poem is offered up by Sadoff as a barter something to be traded for a little more time a little more understanding The poems in Barter comment on the power of culture to interject itself into our desire for an idealized self the way our inner and outer lives lack correspondence harmony and integration They also talk about commerce the trading of bodies the way we as a nation use and exchange and appropriate and like Tolstoy's Ivan Ilyich try to bargain with and evade the urgency of our time on earth In the poem Self Portrait with a Critic Sadoff makes what could be a succinct statement of purpose And inside let's not make it pretty let's save the off rhyme and onomatopoeia for the concert hall let's go to the wormy place where the problematic stirs inside his head

Battles & Lullabies Richard Michelson, 2006 In this poignant book of poetry Michelson weaves together the past and present seeing within his children his own difficult childhood within current wars the burning memory of the Holocaust and within himself the ghost of his father

Michelangelo's Seizure Steve Gehrke, 2007 Providing poetic entry into the visual arts In Michelangelo's Seizure Steve Gehrke seizes the lives of several classic and contemporary painters from Caravaggio and Magritte to Francis Bacon and Jackson Pollock to demonstrate how these artists transformed physical psychological and political suffering into art Mirroring the brushstrokes in long metaphor laden sentences Gehrke moves freely through the canvas into and out of the artists lives into the public realm into history to capture the way the creative mind can transform even the most violent surroundings a prison cell a battlefield a madhouse into a masterpiece
