Ward Jandl,1995-07-19 It was the American Dream by Mail Order Smithsonian Americans have ordered from Sears Roebuck just about everything they have needed for their homes for 100 years but from 1908 to 1940 some 100 000 people also purchased their houses from this mail order wizard Sears ready to assemble houses were ordered by mail and shipped by rail wherever a boxcar or two could pull in to unload the meticulously precut lumber and all the materials needed to build an exceptionally sturdy and well designed house From Philadelphia Pa to Coldwater Kans and Cowley Wyo Sears put its guarantee on quality bungalows colonials and Cape Cods all with the latest modern conveniences such as indoor plumbing Houses by Mail tells the story of these precut houses and provides for the first time an incomparable guide to identifying Sears houses across the country Arranged for easy identification in 15 sections by roof type the book features nearly 450 house models with more than 800 illustrations including drawings of the houses and floor plans Because the Sears houses were built to last thousands remain today to be discovered and restored Houses by Mail shows how to return them to their original charm while it documents a highly successful business enterprise that embodied the spirit and domestic design of its time After decades of obscurity Sears houses have become chic Wall Street Journal These were spacious solidly built homes Parade Don't be surprised if your own cozy bungalow turns up in the book Philadelphia Inquirer A nostalgic and informative look at the tastes of Americans in the years before World War II Publishers Weekly The bible to researchers of Sears ready cut homes Saturday Evening Post

Houses and Homes Kathleen Cox,1995      Rural Homes Gervase Wheeler,1853      House Lust Daniel

McGinn,2008-01-08 A rich narrative that blends social commentary with incisive reporting House Lust offers an astute funny and sometimes disturbing portrait of the behaviors that drove the greatest real estate boom in history and its eventual bust Owning a home has long been considered the fulfillment of the American Dream But in the last decade as the real estate market boomed Americans fascination with homes turned into a frenzy Everywhere we turned people were talking about scheming over envying shopping for refinancing or just plain ogling houses in the process we've transformed shelter from a basic necessity into an all consuming passion In House Lust Newsweek's Daniel McGinn travels the country to explore the roots of this mania Even as the real estate boom has turned to bust Americans remain obsessed with houses many of us are still trading up adding on or doubling down to buy vacation property But for others this zeal for housing has carried a painful price one that's evident in the soaring foreclosure rates and mounting despair as millions of homeowners and their lenders realize they've stretched too far to buy the home of their dreams In a compelling narrative that takes us inside the homes and psyches of the House Lust afflicted throughout the nation McGinn examines the forces that turned housing into the talk of dinner parties He explores the arms race for square footage and introduces readers to a menagerie of characters from the real estate world from renovation psychologists who treat remodeling addled clients to a guy who trades vacation time shares the way kids trade baseball cards McGinn also jumps into the fray himself by enrolling in real estate school and buying an investment property sight unseen over the Internet House Lust shows us just how contagious the ideal of owning the best home on the block can be And as the real estate boom recedes into memory McGinn offers cautionary tales to help us curb our lust when prices start rising again      Houses & Homes Tim Wood,1995 Surveys houses and homes throughout history and around the world including cave dwellings an Egyptian house Saxon homes a Maori pa weavers cottages and Biosphere 2 Suggested level intermediate junior secondary      Houses and Homes Sabrina Crewe,2018-09-27      Houses and Homes Around the World Josephine Karavasil,1986 Brief text and photographs introduce the many different types of homes of people around the world      To be at Home James Williams,Felicitas Hentschke,2018-09-24 Houses and homes are dynamic spaces within which people work to organize and secure their lives livelihoods and relationships Written by a team of renowned historians and anthropologists and accompanied by original photography by Maurice Weiss To Be at Home House Work and Self in the Modern World compares the ways people in different societies and historical periods strive to make and keep houses and homes under conditions of change upheaval displacement impoverishment and violence These conditions speak to the challenges of life in our modern world The contributors of this volume position the home as a new nodal point between work the self and the world to explore people s creativity agency and labour Houses and homes prove complex and powerful concepts if also often elusive invoking places persons objects emotions values attachments and fantasies This book demonstrates how the relations between houses work and the self have transformed dramatically and unpredictably under conditions of capitalism and modernity and continue to change today

Decoding Homes and Houses Julianne Hanson, 1998 Decoding Homes and Houses uses a computer based method of analysis to explore the relation between the design and layout of traditional vernacular speculative and architect designed houses and people s evolving tastes lifestyles habits and domestic routines Its purpose is to show how it is possible to explore the relation between house form and culture by looking at the social information that is crystallized in the layouts of the houses themselves as opposed to asking people how they respond to them

Three California Houses Aaron Betsky, 2002 Presented in significant detail are the Palm Springs House by renowned mid century modernist architect Craig Ellwood the extravagant Malibu Spanish style House with interior renovations by renowned Italian architect Ettore Sottsass and the opulent Beverly Hills House by the most famous of the 1920s Mediterranean style architects George Washington Smith with interiors that have been reworked recently by the avant garde California architect Coy Howard
