The housewares story Earl Lifshey, 1973

Brilliant Jane Brox, 2010-06-29 This superb history of artificial light traces the evolution of society invariably fascinating and often original it amply lives up to its title Publishers Weekly starred review In Brilliant Jane Brox explores humankind s ever changing relationship to artificial light from the stone lamps of the Pleistocene to the LEDs embedded in fabrics of the future More than a survey of technological development this sweeping history reveals how artificial light changed our world and how those social and cultural changes in turn led to the pursuit of more ways of spreading maintaining and controlling light Brox plumbs the class implications of light who had it who didn t through the centuries when crude lamps and tallow candles constricted waking hours She identifies the pursuit of whale oil as the first time the need for light thrust us toward an environmental tipping point Only decades later gas street lights opened up the evening hours to leisure which changed the ways we live and sleep and the world s ecosystems Edison s bulbs produced a light that seemed to its users all but divorced from human effort or cost And yet as Brox s informative portrait of our current grid system shows the cost is ever with us Brilliant is infused with human voices startling insights and timely questions about how our future lives will be shaped by light

Spiffy Kitchen Collectibles Brian Alexander, 2003-08-22 Fun in the Fifties Kitchen That was the marketing strategy of the companies producing the wide range of gadgets and products designed to make life in the kitchen much easier and a whole lot more colorful Take this period tour full of 50s flair from teleservers for snacking to barbeque equipment for family gatherings to appetizer sets for entertaining Coverage Includes Clocks salt and pepper shakers Lustro Ware cookie cutters and cake molds Collectible advertising premiums from products such as Aunt Jermima and Planters 1 000 photos and prices Manufacturers such as Ekco Foley Plas tex Rubbermaid and Rival      The Design History Reader Grace Lees-Maffei, Rebecca Houze, 2024-12-12 This revised and updated edition addresses the international history and practice of design from the 17th century to the present day Covering both primary texts by social theorists designers and design reformers and secondary texts in the form of key works of design history and design thinking the Reader provides an essential resource for understanding the history of design the development of the discipline and contemporary issues in design history and practice including decolonization sustainability historiography gender and globalization Extracts are grouped into thematic sections each with a contextualizing introduction by the editors and a guide to further reading The updated edition of The Design History Reader expands upon its original content and features numerous significant voices from across the globe Authors include William Morris Karl Marx Roland Barthes Victor Margolin Penny Sparke Judy Attfield Ellen Lupton and many more      The Server Markus Krajewski, 2018-06-19 A cutting edge media history on a perennially fascinating topic which attempts to answer the crucial question Who is in charge the servant or the master Though classic servants like the butler or the governess have largely vanished the Internet is filled with servers web ftp mail and others perform their daily drudgery going about their business noiselessly and unnoticed Why then are current day digital drudges called servers Markus Krajewski explores this question by going from the present back to the Baroque to study historical aspects of service through various perspectives be it the servants relationship to architecture or their function in literary or scientific contexts At the intersection of media studies cultural history and literature this work recounts the gradual transition of agency from human to nonhuman actors to show how the concept of the digital server stems from the classic role of the servant      Housing and Dwelling Barbara Miller Lane, 2006-11 A collection of thought provoking essays on the changing face of domestic architecture over two centuries highlighting the wide range of source materials and theoretical perspectives available to scholars of architectural history      Manufacturing David O. Whitten, Bessie E. Whitten, 1990-09-27 Overall this first volume in the series should render business research in manufacturing a good deal easier by bringing together insightful industry histories and detailed critical bibliographies This series has much to recommend it Future volumes will be eagerly awaited Reference Books Bulletin This historical and bibliographical reference work is the first volume of Greenwood Press s Handbook of American Business History a series intended to supplement current bibliographic materials pertaining to business history Devoted to manufacturing this work uses the Enterprise Standard Industrial Classification ESIC to divide the subject into distinct segments from which contributors have developed histories and bibliographies of the different types of manufacturing Though authors were given sets of guidelines to follow they were also allowed the flexibility to work in a format that best suited the material Each contribution in this volume contains three important elements a concise history of the manufacturing sector a bibliographic essay and a bibliography Some contributions appear in three distinct parts while others are combined into one or two segments all build on currently available material for students and scholars doing research on business and industry The contributors who include business economic and social historians as well as engineers and lawyers have covered such topics as bakery products industrial chemicals and synthetics engines and turbines and household appliances Also included are an introductory essay that covers general works and a comprehensive index This book should be a useful tool for courses in business and industry and a valuable resource for college university and public libraries

Material Culture in America Helen Sheumaker, Shirley Wajda, 2007-11-07 The first encyclopedia to look at the study of material culture objects images spaces technology production and consumption and what it reveals about historical and contemporary life in the United States Reaching back 400 years Material Life in America An Encyclopedia is the first reference showing what the study of material culture reveals about American society revelations not accessible through traditional sources and methods In nearly 200 entries the encyclopedia traces the history of artifacts concepts and ideas industries peoples and cultures cultural productions historical forces periods and styles religious and secular rituals and traditions and much more Everyone from researchers and curators to students and general readers will find example after example of how the objects and environments created or altered by humans reveal as much about American life as diaries documents and texts

Branding Queens Kim D. Rozdeba, 2022-05-10 Branding Queens is a collection of stories about twenty women entrepreneurs who against all odds built famous brands that were beloved by millions of customers worldwide Building a brand isn't easy Establishing an iconic brand is one in a million Add the fact of being a woman in an unfortunately still male dominated business world and you'd think it was almost impossible Branding Queens celebrates the branding accomplishments of these self-made women who persevered in a man's world to create an enduring brand dynasty This book profiles the brands and lives of Barbe Nicole Clicquot of Veuve Clicquot champagne Anna Bissell cofounder of the BISSELL Carpet Sweeper Company Madam C J Walker Elizabeth Arden Est e Lauder Mary Kay Ash and Anita Roddick of The Body Shop all cosmetics and beauty mavericks women's apparel innovators Coco Chanel Liz Claiborne Tory Burch and Sara Blakely Margaret Rudkin founder of Pepperidge Farm Olive Ann Beech cofounder of Beech Aircraft Ruth Handler cofounder of Mattel toys Katharine Graham owner of The Washington Post Queen Elizabeth II Sovereign of fifteen nations Lillian Vernon direct mail maven media moguls Martha Stewart and Oprah Winfrey and Debbi Fields founder of Mrs Fields Cookies These are the branding queens Branding expert Kim D Rozdeba unravels these fascinating stories with a clear perspective on creating a brand in twenty different ways You will learn how these women marketed hope health dignity confidence beauty empowerment and happiness through their products and services To help uncover the secrets to these women's success Kim assesses how the branding queens approached each of five branding components Commitment Construct Community Content and Consistency the 5 C's These women lived life to its fullest by following their passions and purpose Their stories are just as big as their brands Branding Queens will inspire you empower you and encourage your entrepreneurial spirit The 1930s William H. Young,2002-10-30 Most historical studies bury us in wars and politics paying scant attention to the everyday effects of pop culture Welcome to America's other history the arts activities common items and popular opinions that profoundly impacted our national way of life The twelve narrative chapters in this volume provide a textured look at everyday life youth and the many different sides of American culture during the 1930s Additional resources include a cost comparison of common goods and services a timeline of important events notes arranged by chapter an extensive bibliography for further reading and a subject index The dark cloud of the Depression shadowed most Americans lives during the 1930s Books movies songs and stories of the 1930s gave Americans something to hope for by depicting a world of luxury and money Major figures of the age included Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers Irving Berlin Amelia Earhart Duke Ellington the Marx Brothers Margaret Mitchell Cole Porter Joe Louis Babe Ruth Shirley Temple and Frank Lloyd Wright Innovations in technology and travel hinted at a Utopian society just off the horizon group sports and activities gave the unemployed masses ways to spend their days and a powerful new demographic the American teenager suddenly found itself courted by advertisers and entertainers A Bibliographic Guide to North
