Housing Policy Matters A Global Analysis:

Housing Policy Matters Shlomo Angel, 2023 This text unifies housing policy by integrating industrialised and developing country interventions in the housing sector into a comprehensive global framework 100 indicators are used to compare housing policies and conditions in 53 countries

Housing Policy Matters Shlomo Angel, 2000 This book is an extended essay on the myriad relationships between housing policy and housing market performance The main thesis is that significant differences in important housing outcomes are attributable at least in part to differences in the housing policy regimes of cities and countries

Mixed-Income Housing Development Planning Strategies and Frameworks in the Global South George Okechukwu Onatu, Wellington Didibhuku Thwala, Clinton Ohis Aigbavboa, 2023-12-14 Functioning as a toolkit for inclusive urban planning this book acts as both a model for understanding the planning and management of this framework and a foundation for future research

Contemporary Housing Issues in a Globalized World Padraic Kenna, 2016-05-13 The globalization of housing finance led to the global financial crisis which has created new barriers to adequate and affordable housing It presents major challenges for current housing law and policy as well as for the development of housing rights This book examines and discusses key contemporary housing issues in the context of today's globalized housing systems The book takes up the challenge of developing a new paradigm working towards the possibility of an alternative future Revolving around three constellations of writing by diverse contributors each chapter sets out a clear and developed approach to contemporary housing issues The first major theme considers the crisis in mortgage market regulation the development of mortgage securitization and comparisons between Spain and Ireland two countries at the epicentre of the global housing market crisis The second thematic consideration focuses on housing rights within the European human rights architecture within national constitutions and those arising from new international instruments with their particular relevance for persons with disabilities and developing economies The third theme incorporates an examination of responses to the decline and regeneration of inner cities legal issues around squatting in developed economies and changes in tenure patterns away from home ownership This topical book will be valuable to those who are interested in law housing rights and human rights policy making and globalization

Housing Policy, Wellbeing and Social Development in Asia Rebecca Lai Har Chiu, Seong-Kyu Ha, 2018-05-11 This book investigates how housing policy changes in Asia since the late 1990s have impacted on housing affordability security livability culture and social development Using case study examples from countries cities including China Hong Kong India Japan Taiwan Korea Malaysia Bangladesh Singapore Indonesia Thailand and Vietnam the contributors contextualize housing policy development in terms of both global and local socio economic and political changes They then investigate how policy changes have shaped and re shaped the housing wellbeing of the local people and the social development within these places which they argue should constitute the core purpose of housing policy This book will open up a new dimension for understanding housing and social development in Asia and a new conceptual perspective with which to examine housing which by nature is culture sensitive and people oriented It will be of interest to students scholars and professionals in the areas of housing studies urban and social development and the public and social policy of Asia     The Encyclopedia of Housing, Second Edition Andrew T. Carswell,2012-05-31 Since publication of the groundbreaking Encyclopedia of Housing in 1998 many issues have assumed special prominence within this field and indeed within the global economy For instance the global economic meltdown was spurred in large part by the worst subprime mortgage crisis we ve seen in our history On a more positive note the sustainability movement and green development has picked up considerable steam and given the priorities and initiatives of the current U S administration this will only grow in importance and increased attention has been given in recent years to the topic of indoor air quality Within the past decade as well the Baby Boom Generation began its march into retirement and senior citizenship which will have increasingly broad implications for retirement communities and housing assisted living facilities aging in place livable communities universal design and the like Finally within the last twelve years an emerging generation of young scholars has been making significant contributions to the field For all these reasons and more we are pleased to present a significantly updated and expanded Second Edition of the Encyclopedia of Housing     Living on the Boundaries Carol Camp Yeakey,2012-05-18 From the first chapter to the last this immensely insightful anthology richly details and informs us about the human condition from multidisciplinary perspectives about urban life in global contexts It examines the complex often controversial issues impacting those who live on the margins of society in our densely populated cities     The Idea of Home in Law Lorna Fox O'Mahony,James A. Sweeney,2016-03-03 The Idea of Home in Law Displacement and Dispossession explores an important set of legal and policy issues surrounding the concepts of home and homelessness taking a growing area of legal scholarship into the new arena of human rights and international law The collection considers the ideas concerning home both in the sense of the dwelling place as a special type of property and territorial claims to homeland which underpin many contemporary legal problems by examining a range of contexts where people are displaced or dispossessed from their homes The essays focusing on dispossession consider themes ranging from mortgage and rent arrears in the UK to responses to the foreclosure crisis in the USA and from eviction for the purposes of economic development in South Africa to the exclusion of asylum seekers from the UK s social housing and welfare provision and within the framework of the European Convention on Human Rights The displacement theme meanwhile examines transnational home issues from the experiences of exiles and refugees in areas of conflict to the impact of the broader context of economic social and cultural rights on attempts to protect housing and home through international law At the heart of each essay the contributors experts from across the fields of law policy and housing rights examine the circumstances in which displacement and dispossession take place and reconsider how law and policy respond to such circumstances with a particular focus on the impact of loss of home for the human person At a time of particular and increasing concern about security of tenure and the role of law and policy in protecting people who are vulnerable to forced eviction The Idea of Home in Law presents a bold opportunity to raise questions about the rights and norms associated with housing and home and to generate new insights for scholarship and for national and international policy debates concerning displacement and dispossession Housing Market Dynamics in Africa El-hadj M. Bah,Issa Faye,Zekebweliwai F. Geh,2018-03-12 This open access book utilizes new data to thoroughly analyze the main factors currently shaping the African housing market Some of these factors include the supply and demand for housing finance land tenure security issues construction cost conundrum infrastructure provision and low cost housing alternatives Through detailed analysis the authors investigate the political economy surrounding the continent s housing market and the constraints that behind the scenes policy makers need to address in their attempts to provide affordable housing for the majority in need With Africa s urban population growing rapidly this study highlights how broad demographic shifts and rapid urbanization are placing enormous pressure on the limited infrastructure in many cities and stretching the economic and social fabric of municipalities to their breaking point But beyond providing a snapshot of the present conditions of the African housing market the book offers recommendations and actionable measures for policy makers and other stakeholders on how best to provide affordable housing and alleviate Africa s housing deficit This work will be of particular interest to practitioners non governmental organizations private sector actors students and researchers of economic policy international development and urban development National Perspectives on Housing Rights Scott Leckie,2021-10-18 More than one billion people around the world do not have adequate housing How far does human rights law help to remedy this problem What measures must governments take to protect people against housing rights violations What are the strengths and weaknesses of human rights law in the housing area Is the current law enough or are new laws necessary These and many other questions are addressed in the various chapters contained in National Perspectives on Housing Rights While most coverage of economic social and cultural rights has tended to focus on international standards and principles this book examines the more challenging question of how housing rights are implemented at the national and local level Chapters from recognised housing rights practitioners from Brazil Canada India Kenya Mexico Nigeria Philippines South Africa the US and elsewhere provide some of the first national level legal analyses of the implementation of housing rights standards recognised under international law A foreword by Nelson Mandela and a preface by international legal scholar Professor Philip Alston provide interesting perspectives on the fundamental role of housing rights within the broader human rights field

Housing Finance in Emerging Markets Doris Köhn,J. D. Pischke,2011-01-21 The growth of urban areas and population in middle and low income countries is a continuing trend Urbanization expands as rural to urban migration offers better income opportunities in cities This trend is both a source of development opportunities and challenges for the housing sector On the one hand housing is a large and growing market and on the other massive slums confirm the poor housing conditions in many developing countries These adverse conditions mirror inadequate housing policies inefficient or absent property registration as well as limits to access to housing finance Provision of affordable housing is therefore an important topic in the fight against poverty This book focuses on solutions that improve the enabling environment for the poor in accessing housing finance It explores how to develop and integrate housing finance into a sustainable financial system for developing countries and offers ways in which low income families can obtain better access to housing finance This book provides a conceptual framework for housing finance development and addresses practical solutions in the provision of housing finance and compares different approaches The Role of Government in the Housing Market ,2008

Homeownership, Renting and Society Sebastian Kohl,2017-04-07 On the eve of the financial crisis the USA was inhabited by almost 70 percent homeownership households in comparison to about 45 percent in Germany Homeownership Renting and Society presents new evidence showing that this homeownership gap already existed between American and German cities around 1900 Existing explanations based on culture government housing policy or typical socio economic factors have difficulties in accounting for these long term cross country differences Using historical case studies on Germany and the USA the book identifies three institutional domains on the supply side of the housing market urban land housing finance and construction that set countries on different housing trajectories and subsequently established differences that were hard to reverse in later periods Further chapters generalize the argument across other OECD Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development countries and extend the explanation to cover historical differences in homeownership ideology and horizontal property institutions This enlightening volume also puts forward path dependence theories in housing studies connects housing with vast urban history and political economy literature and offers comprehensive insights about the case of a tenant s country which contradicts the tendency towards universal homeownership Providing an all new historic institutionalist explanation of the German American homeownership gap this title will be of interest to postgraduate students and scholars interested in fields including Housing Studies Sociology Urban History Political Economy Social Policy and Geography It may also be of interest to those working in housing field organizations and ministries Encyclopedia of Geography Barney Warf,2010-09-21 Simply stated geography studies the locations of things and the explanations that underlie spatial distributions Profound forces at work throughout the world have made geographical knowledge increasingly important for understanding numerous human dilemmas and our capacities to address them With more than 1 200 entries the Encyclopedia of Geography reflects how the growth of geography has propelled a demand for intermediaries between the abstract language of academia and the ordinary language of everyday life The six volumes of this encyclopedia encapsulate a diverse array of topics to offer a comprehensive and useful summary of the state of the discipline in the early 21st century Key Features Gives a concise historical sketch of geography s long rich and fascinating history including human geography physical geography and GIS Provides succinct summaries of trends such as globalization environmental destruction new geospatial technologies and cyberspace Decomposes geography into the six broad subject areas physical geography human geography nature and society methods models and GIS history of geography and geographer biographies geographic organizations and important social movements Provides hundreds of color illustrations and images that lend depth and realism to the text Includes a special map section Key Themes Physical Geography Human Geography Nature and Society Methods Models and GIS People Organizations and Movements History of Geography This encyclopedia strategically reflects the enormous diversity of the discipline the multiple meanings of space itself and the diverse views of geographers It brings together the diversity of geographical knowledge making it an invaluable resource for any academic library

Mortgage Markets Worldwide Danny Ben-Shahar, Charles Leung, Seow-Eng Ong, 2009-01-28 The book provides a theoretical and empirical evaluation of different housing finance systems presenting a collection of studies that describe various aspects of selected mortgage markets around the world The uniqueness of the chosen markets lies in the fact that they represent not only different regions around the globe Africa the Middle East Asia and Eastern Europe but also understudied markets in different stages of economic and financial development This book examines questions relating to housing finance efficiency and contract heterogeneity In addition it analyses the securitization experiences in these countries to provide lessons on how mortgage markets are integrated with capital markets and how particular institutional framework interacts with mortgage markets Short reviews are provided for each of the selected mortgage markets The review will include institutional aspects of the markets such as the size and structure of the market including flows and accumulation of funds a description of the competition and a presentation of the major competitors including market share major financial measures etc profitability in the market trends structural changes the major mortgage instruments and their market share special tax issues the role of the government in the market defaults prepayments mortgage insurance and major regulatory issues The analysis explores the major existing problems in the mortgage market of each country the current steps adopted to solve these problems possible propositions for dealing with the major issues in the future and the implied future developments anticipated in the market
