Housing And Home In Later Life:

Housing and Home in Later Life Frances Heywood, Christine Oldman, Robin Means, 2002 At the heart of all policies supporting people to live thrive into old age lies the concept of home This text looks at issues of later life housing to address the needs preferences of a group who make up around a quarter of the population Housing Decisions in Later Life M. Leamy, V. Miller, L. Bright, 2004-10-22 This book examines the processes by which older people make housing decisions and the impact such decisions have on the construction of their lives Evidence is included from a major three year research study where older people told stories of their lives The authors argue that housing decisions are not necessarily the result of rational analytical and objective thinking The contribution of other ways of decision making is often hidden as when people think intuitively act impulsively or for essentially emotional reasons International Encyclopedia of Housing and Home , 2012-10-09 Available online via SciVerse ScienceDirect or in print for a limited time only The International Encyclopedia of Housing and Home Seven Volume Set is the first international reference work for housing scholars and professionals that uses studies in economics and finance psychology social policy sociology anthropology geography architecture law and other disciplines to create an international portrait of housing in all its facets from meanings of home at the microscale to impacts on macro economy This comprehensive work is edited by distinguished housing expert Susan J Smith together with Marja Elsinga Ong Seow Eng Lorna Fox O Mahony and Susan Wachter and a multi disciplinary editorial team of 20 world class scholars in all Working at the cutting edge of their subject liaising with an expert editorial advisory board and engaging with policy makers and professionals the editors have worked for almost five years to secure the quality reach relevance and coherence of this work A broad and inclusive table of contents signals or testifies to detailed investigation of historical and theoretical material as well as in depth analysis of current issues This seven volume set contains over 500 entries listed alphabetically but grouped into seven thematic sections including methods and approaches economics and finance environments home and homelessness institutions policy and welfare and well being Housing professionals both academics and practitioners will find The International Encyclopedia of Housing and Home useful for teaching discovery and research needs International in scope engaging with trends in every world region The editorial board and contributors are drawn from a wide constituency collating expertise from academics policy makers professionals and practitioners and from every key center for housing research Every entry stands alone on its merits and is accessed alphabetically yet each is fully cross referenced and attached to one of seven thematic categories whose wholes far exceed the sum of their parts Home and Identity in Late Life Graham D. Rowles, 2005-09-01 Leading scholars offering international and multidisciplinary viewpoints examine the meaning of home to elders and the ways in which this meaning may be sustained threatened or modified according to changes associated with growing old Organized into four sections The Essence of Home Disruptions of Home Creating and Recreating Home and Community Perspectives on the Meaning of Home this volume explores topics including

What makes a house a home What role does the meaning of home play in the process of relocation to another place of residence What is the relationship between a person's home life and cherished possessions such as symbolic jewelry or religious items in late life How does the community neighborhood environment influence the way that older people feel about the places in which they live Contributors include Hans Werner Wahl Robert L Rubinstein Edmund Sherman Carolyn Norris Baker and Rick Scheidt among others As a special feature this volume concludes with critical commentaries from three eminent scholars Amos Rapoport Kim Dovey and Marie Versperi This volume will be of interest to practitioners researchers upper level graduates graduate level students in gerontology environmental psychology social work and nursing It will be valuable to everyone in the helping professions who seek a deeper understanding of the ways in which being at home and attachment to place plays a key role in the life experience and well being of their clients as they grow older Financial Capability and Asset Holding in Later Life Margaret S. Sherraden, Nancy Morrow-Howell, 2015 In Financial Capability and Asset Holding in Later Life A Life Course Perspective the concept of Financial Capability is used to underscore the importance of acquiring knowledge and skills while addressing policies and services that can build financial security

Environment And Identity In Later Life Peace, Sheila, Kellaher, Leonie, Holland, Caroline, 2005-12-01 This book examines the experience of men and women of different ages and cultures living in a range of different kinds of places including ordinary and special housing from a high rise flat to a residential care home in semi rural urban and metropolitan locations within the Midlands and south east England Housing Policy In The United States Paul Balchin, Maureen

Rhoden, 2020-10-28 Housing Policy in the United States is an essential guidebook to and textbook for housing policy it is written for students practitioners government officials real estate developers and policy analysts It discusses the most important issues in the field introduces key concepts and institutions and examines the most important programs Written as an introductory text it explains all concepts trends and programs without jargon and includes empirical data concerning program evaluations government documents and studies carried out by the author and other scholars The first chapters present the context surrounding US housing policy including basic trends and problems the housing finance system and the role of the federal tax system in subsidizing homeowner and rental housing The middle chapters focus on individual subsidy programs The closing chapters discuss issues and programs that do not necessarily involve subsidies including homeownership mixed income housing and governmental efforts to improve access to housing by reducing discriminatory barriers in the housing and mortgage markets The concluding chapter also offers reflections on future directions of US housing policy Housing Transitions Through the Life Course Andrew Beer, Debbie Faulkner, 2011 Lifetime attitudes to housing have changed with new population dynamics driving the market and a greater emphasis on consumption This important contribution to the literature argues that how we think about households and their housing needs to be recast to acknowledge this changed environment and provide a more powerful conceptual framework The Law of Later-life Health Care and Decision Making Lawrence A. Frolik, 2006 Directives which include living wills and health care powers of attorney or proxies are unique in a heretofore unknown way They draw heavily on the knowledge and skills of practitioners from all three of the noble professions law medicine and spirit That s precisely why Advance Health Care Directives A Handbook for Professionals is such an exceedingly important work Authored by a lawyer and a physician this far ranging volume deals with the difficult and sensitive issues faced by professionals lawyers doctors nurses clerics spiritual advisors chaplains social workers palliative caregivers and all allied walks in helping clients and patients plan write execute and implement these utterly essential personal contingency plans for health care decision making Book jacket Housing Partnerships Andrew Caplin, 1997 Housing Partnerships A New Approach to a Market at a Crossroads provides the blueprints of the Housing Partnership structure and the new opportunities it furnishes home owners while explaining the economics behind the housing and mortgage markets and the financial risks in owning a home Applying Social Policy to Criminal Justice Practice Clive Sealey, 2023-09-12 This book aims to make clear the interconnections between social policy and criminal justice practice bringing together key social policy concepts within a framework for reducing reoffending rates The book focuses on the key social policy issues of employment health and mental health low income and poverty housing and family It shows how understanding and treating these as issues interconnected to criminal justice outcomes can and does lead to improvements in criminal justice practice This book enables students and criminal justice practitioners to understand how a social policy focus can better inform practice with those involved in the criminal justice system It features a 10 point summary of key points for learning chapter heading questions to support independent learning tables and graphs to illustrate the text Research Handbook on Inequalities in Later Life Catherine Earl, Philip Taylor, 2024-06-05 This Research Handbook critically examines the myriad social and economic inequalities faced by those in later life Contributors dissect examples from the Global North and South to support a new approach to studying ageing that moves beyond popular discourses Late-Life Homelessness Amanda Grenier, 2022-01-15 Around the world and across a range of contexts homelessness among older people is on the rise In spite of growing media attention and new academic research on the issue older people often remain unrecognized as a subpopulation in public policy programs and homeless strategies As such they occupy a paradoxical position of being hypervisible while remaining overlooked Late Life Homelessness is the first Canadian book to address this often neglected issue Basing her analysis on a four year ethnographic study of late life homelessness in Montreal Canada Amanda Grenier uses a critical gerontological perspective to explore life at the intersection of aging and homelessness She draws attention to disadvantage over time and how the condition of being unhoused disrupts a person s ability to age in place resulting in experiences of unequal aging Weaving together findings from policy documents stakeholder insights and observations and interviews with older people this book demonstrates how structures organizational practices and relationships related to homelessness and aging come to shape late life Situated in the context of an aging population rising inequality and declining social commitments Late Life Homelessness stresses the moral imperative of responding justly to the needs of older people as a means of mitigating the unequal aging of unhoused elders Home Equity and Ageing Owners Lorna Fox O'Mahony, 2012-01-06 The growing use of housing equity to support a range of activities and needs raises complex issues particularly for older owners In an environment in which older owners are pushed towards housing equity transactions to meet income and welfare costs they are required to make choices from a complex and sometimes bewildering range of options The transactions which facilitate the use of home equity as a resource to spend in later life from trading down and ordinary secured and unsecured debt to targeted products including reverse lifetime mortgages home reversion plans and sale and rentback agreements raise important legal and regulatory issues This book provides a contextual analysis of the financial transactions that older people enter into using their housing equity It traces the protections afforded to older owners through the ordinary law of property and contract as well as the development of specific regulatory protections focused on targeted products The book employs the notion of risk to highlight the nature and causes of the situational vulnerabilities to which older people are now subject as consumers of housing equity showing that the older owner's personal situation is crucial in determining whether and why they may seek to release equity the options and products available to them and the impact of harms resulting from adverse transactions The book critically evaluates the extent to which this context is incorporated in the legal frameworks through which these transactions are governed as a measure of the appropriateness of existing legal provision as well as considering the arguments surrounding special protection for older owners in housing equity transactions Housing, Home Ownership and Social Change in Hong Kong James Lee, 2019-07-23 First published in 1999 this volume examines the issue that in the last two decades the housing system in Hong Kong has witnessed a slow but consistent transition from a tenure dominated by public rental housing to one dominated by private home ownership This book seeks to explain the unique social organization of home ownership in contemporary Hong Kong Specifically the book deals with the genesis of home ownership from three areas housing histories family culture and capital gains from home transactions It is agreed that extreme deprivations in housing conditions in early lives a strong family culture of mutual help as well as unprecedented capital gains all contribute towards explaining the complex nature of home ownership growth In conclusion the book suggests that with China regaining sovereignty after July 1997 the social organization of home ownership will be further complicated by more internal migrations from other parts of China making housing problems even more acute Modern Studies in Property Law - Volume 5 Martin Dixon, 2009-11-03 This book is a collection of papers given at the seventh biennial conference held at the University of Cambridge in March 2008 and is the fifth in the series Modern Studies in Property Law The Property Law conference has become well known as a unique opportunity for property lawyers to meet and confer both formally and informally This volume is a refereed and revised selection of the papers given there It covers a broad range of topics of immediate importance not only in domestic law but also on a worldwide scale Design for Wellbeing Ann Petermans, Rebecca Cain, 2019-11-04 Design for Wellbeing charts the development and application of design research to improve the personal and societal wellbeing and happiness of people It draws together contributions from internationally leading academics and designers to demonstrate the latest thinking and research on the design of products technologies environments services and experiences for wellbeing Part I starts by conceptualising wellbeing and takes an in depth look at the rise of the design for wellbeing movement Part II then goes on to demonstrate design for wellbeing in practice through a broad range of domains from products and environments to services Among others we see emerging trends in the design of interiors and urban spaces to support wellbeing designing to enable and support connectedness and social interaction and designing for behaviour change to tackle unhealthy eating behaviour in children Significantly the body of work on subjective wellbeing design for happiness is increasing and several case studies are provided on this demonstrating how design can contribute to support the wellbeing of people Part III provides practical guidance for designing for wellbeing through a range of examples of tools methods and approaches which are highly user centric participatory critical and speculative Finally the book concludes in Part IV with a look at future challenges for design for wellbeing This book provides students researchers and practitioners with a detailed assessment of design for wellbeing taking a distinctive global approach to design practice and theory in context Design for Wellbeing concerns designers and organisations but also defines its broader contribution to society culture and economy Autism Spectrum Disorder in Mid and Later Life Scott D. Wright, 2016-01-21 Bringing together a wealth of professional and academic research alongside personal insights into aging and autism this edited sourcebook looks beyond the early years and transition into adulthood with Autism Spectrum Disorders ASDs to focus instead on the challenges facing individuals with ASDs who are middle aged or older Affordability and the Supply of Housing Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: ODPM: Housing, Planning, Local Government and the Regions Committee, 2006-06-20 The Committee's report finds that the Government's plans for a major house building programme are based on the widespread belief that increasing the volume of housing stock is the most important way to tackle the crisis of unaffordable housing in the UK however as housing policy is increasingly based on household growth projections it is important that these projections are kept under review as firmer information becomes available Promoting homeownership is an underlying objective of the Government's programme but although it offers unparalleled opportunities for some households to accumulate wealth it is not a viable option for many others and therefore the provision of social housing for rent should be given equal priority A simple supply and demand model cannot be applied to the housing market and the multitude of factors affecting house prices means that it is very difficult to support an increase in housing supply simply on the basis of improving affordability The report also highlights concerns that local authority powers to prioritise developments on brown field sites in urban areas should not be eroded and that the house building programme in the wider South East will have to be carefully managed as it is an area with major water shortages and significant flood plains

Key Concepts in Social Gerontology Judith E Phillips, Kristine J

Ajrouch, Sarah Hillcoat-Nalletamby, 2010-03-18 Far from a dictionary the concepts are portrayed as complex and conflicting definitions and usages are both noted and evaluated Each article includes a necessarily selective set of references and cross references to other concepts included in the book Moreover the coverage and evaluation of the concepts is right at the current leading edge in a rapidly moving field Victor Marshall Department of Sociology and Institute on Aging University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill The concepts are very clear and very relevant and fantastic for my group of undergraduate students I found each concept to be succinctly and simply captured holding enough information to satisfy initial cravings and complex enough to tempt further reading I had originally thought that this book would provide supplementary reading as part of my Healthy Ageing course but have changed my mind to essential reading now I have had the opportunity to read the entire book Dr Meredith Tavener Groningen University Social gerontology is a new and dynamic field reflecting the increasing interest in ageing across the world This book provides a readily accessible guide to well established and contested issues as well as new concepts emerging through cutting edge research in the discipline The entries give concise lucid knowledge on what constitutes the building blocks of social gerontology and sets out a clear review of the core concepts both classic and emerging in this subject area Each concept is explored in terms of its history application usefulness to theory and research and significance in practice They go beyond simple definitions of the concepts to look at how each issue has shaped the discipline of social gerontology today This book is authored by social gerontologists from the UK and the USA Together they present an interdisciplinary perspective and reflect a global approach to the presentation of key concepts in social gerontology
