Cityscape ,2004 Optimizing Housing for the Elderly Leon A Pastalan,2014-03-18 Discover the diverse range of housing options available to the elderly population with this excellent new book This timely volume addresses the public policy and design and development issues that must necessarily face those concerned with housing our steadily growing elderly population The chapters cover a broad spectrum of populations including elderly people in aging ghettos in suburbia continuing care retirement community residents full time recreational vehicle travelers and the homeless elderly The authoritative contributors go beyond descriptions of wide ranging elderly housing options and delve into the central themes that influence them all Optimizing Housing for the Elderly explores some common considerations such as personal security food and medical services independence and social interaction that are important determining factors when selecting a style of housing and addresses economic questions including advice on reducing costs in popular continuing care retirement communities currently inaccessible to lower income elderly people Professionals involved in any aspect of housing for the elderly will benefit from the information in this insightful book

Home Equity and Ageing Owners Lorna Fox O'Mahony,2012-01-06 The growing use of housing equity to support a range of activities and needs raises complex issues particularly for older owners In an environment in which older owners are pushed towards housing equity transactions to meet income and welfare costs they are required to make choices from a complex and sometimes bewildering range of options The transactions which facilitate the use of home equity as a resource to spend in later life from trading down and ordinary secured and unsecured debt to targeted products including reverse lifetime mortgages home reversion plans and sale and rentback agreements raise important legal and regulatory issues This book provides a contextual analysis of the financial transactions that older people enter into using their housing equity It traces the protections afforded to older owners through the ordinary law of property and contract as well as the development of specific regulatory protections focused on targeted products The book employs the notion of risk to highlight the nature and causes of the situational vulnerabilities to which older people are now subject as consumers of housing equity showing that the older owner s personal situation is crucial in determining whether and why they may seek to release equity the options and products available to them and the impact of harms resulting from adverse transactions The book critically evaluates the extent to which this context is incorporated in the legal frameworks through which these transactions are governed as a measure of the appropriateness of existing legal provision as well as considering the arguments surrounding special protection for older owners in housing equity transactions Housing Women Rose Gilroy,Roberta
