Jon Whyte Mind Over Mountains:

Jon Whyte Jon Whyte, 2000 Post modernism was nice while it lasted I believe Thank goodness it's over So wrote Jon Whyte a contrarian and poet ahead of his time From the late 1960s to his untimely death in 1992 Banff's Jon Whyte was a guiding spirit among those who loved the arts and the Rockies Though variously a filmmaker bookseller publisher local historian museum_keeper critic and columnist Jon Whyte was always and most fundamentally a poet Jon Whyte Mind Over Mountains traces his poetic career from his early years as part of Edmonton's fertile 1960s literary community through his acclaimed 1982 poem Homage Henry Kelsey to Fells of Brightness his visionary evocation of the Shining Mountains Complemented with photographs and artwork reproductions Jon Whyte Mind Over Mountains introduces previously unpublished work along with his best-known writings and includes a foreword by longtime friend and writer Myrna Kostash

Sustaining the West Liza Piper, Lisa Szabo-Jones, 2015-03-31 Western Canada's natural environment faces intensifying threats from industrialization in agriculture and resource development social and cultural complicity in these destructive practices and most recently the negative effects of global climate change The complex nature of the problems being addressed calls for productive interdisciplinary solutions In this book arts and humanities scholars and literary and visual artists tackle these pressing environmental issues in provocative and transformative ways Their commitment to environmental causes emerges through the fields of environmental history environmental and ecocriticism ecofeminism ecoart ecopoetry and environmental journalism This indispensable and timely resource constitutes a sustained cross pollinating conversation across the environmental humanities about forms of representation and activism that enable ecological knowledge and ethical action on behalf of Western Canadian environments yet have global reach Among the developments in the contributors' construction of environmental knowledge are a focus on the power of sentiment in linking people to the fate of nature and the need to decolonize social and environmental relations and assumptions in the West

Mountains Figured and Disfigured in the English-Speaking World Françoise Besson, 2020-06-01 The essays in this book written by poets novelists mountain climbers and academics from all over the world evoke the representation of mountains in the English speaking world as artists writers philosophers or mountain climbers have represented them from the sixteenth to the twenty first centuries From the Alps to the Pyrenees from Mount Fuji to Mount Shasta from the Himalayas to the Scottish Highlands from Ikere in Nigeria to Devil's Tower in the United States from Uluru in Australia to the most northern mountain of the Arctic the shapes of the world speak the same language and tell the world its own story This interdisciplinary book weaving together mountaineering literature philosophy painting cinema ecology history palaeontology geography geopolitics toponymy law religion and myth invites people to an innovative reading of mountains it reveals the close relationship existing between the shapes of the world and all forms of writing and at the same time it shows how the representations of the imagination may be instrumental in protecting the natural world The story told by the landscape inscribes a broken line in the shapes of the world tearing the landscape like a fragile page whenever historical and political events wars mining or deforestation leave scars in the landscape but writers and artists representations of mountains constitute a path to awareness as they are not only a painting of beauty but an image of our link to nature and a warning as well For centuries the image of the mountain has conveyed a symbolism telling the story of human thought and this book shows to what extent literature and art play an essential part in our awareness of nature The Bioregional Imagination Cheryll

Glotfelty,Karla Armbruster,Tom Lynch,2012-03-01 Bioregionalism is an innovative way of thinking about place and planet from an ecological perspective Although bioregional ideas occur regularly in ecocritical writing until now no systematic effort has been made to outline the principles of bioregional literary criticism and to use it as a way to read write understand and teach literature The twenty four original essays here are written by an outstanding selection of international scholars The range of bioregions covered is global and includes such diverse places as British Columbia s Meldrum Creek and Italy s Po River Valley the Arctic and the Outback There are even forays into cyberspace and outer space In their comprehensive introduction the editors map the terrain of the bioregional movement including its history and potential to inspire and invigorate place based and environmental literary criticism Responding to bioregional tenets this volume is divided into four sections The essays in the Reinhabiting section narrate experiments in living in place and restoring damaged environments The Rereading essays practice bioregional literary criticism both by examining texts with strong ties to bioregional paradigms and by opening other less obvious texts to bioregional analysis In Reimagining the essays push bioregionalism to evolve by expanding its corpus of texts coupling its perspectives with other approaches or challenging its core constructs Essays in the Renewal section address bioregional pedagogy beginning with local habitat studies and concluding with musings about the Internet In response to the environmental crisis we must reimagine our relationship to the places we inhabit This volume shows how literature and literary studies are fundamental tools to such a reimagining I Was There

Ellen Schoeck,2006-10-01 I Was There shares the insights and experiences of the generations of students professors and staff who lived and worked at the U of A for the past 100 years First person stories and period photographs present a unique insight into university lore from the vantage point of those who were most intimately involved in making the university what it is today the students and alumni Foreword by Hon Jim Edwards PC Reading the River Myrna Kostash,Duane Burton,2005 Framed within her own view of this great river well known prairie writer Myrna Kostash has combed the available literature to compile this compendium of writings poetry fiction and non fiction from those who spent time reading the river Beginning with Saskatchewan River Crossing at the river s source she takes the reader through 21 communities along the North Saskatchewan from Edmonton to Prince Albert from Shandro Crossing Alberta to The Pas Manitoba Included are the words of people from writers like Hugh McLennan Eli Mandel Aritha van Herk John V Hicks and Tomson Highway to the explorer Alexander Mackenzie 19th Century mountaineer James Monroe Thorington to a Cree legend Reading the River opens with an introduction by Myrna Kostash and a charting of the geological origins of the North Saskatchewan River and closes it with The Future River a commentary in several voices on among other things the river's likely return to a place of prominence in prairie lives not as a transportation route but this time as a source of crucial fresh water Each author has a concise biography setting their remarks in the context of their time and their works What emerges is a portrait of this vital lifeline the terrain and the culture that grew and is growing on its shores to be appreciated by anyone who travels on along or merely to the great river

Uplift PearlAnn Reichwein, Karen Wall, 2020-11-15 The Banff School opened its doors in 1933 by offering a summer drama course Since then it has grown into a renowned cultural destination today known as the Banff Centre for Arts and Creativity As PearlAnn Reichwein and Karen Wall recount in this engaging history over its first four decades the school produced and circulated ideals of culture and liberal democratic citizenship that were intrinsic to the development of modern Canada Uplift traces the role of the school in shaping arts and cultural education as reflected in its array of artistic political economic and ideological interests Situated within Banff National Park the school and its surroundings combined stunning natural scenery and cultural capital in a symbolic national landscape In an era of unstable cultural policy and funding Uplift draws welcome attention to the place of fine arts culture and the humanities in public education and in Canada's history

Questions of Identity in Detective Fiction Anita Higgin, Linda Martz, 2009-03-26 With essays by an international group of scholars Questions of Identity in Detective Fiction delves into the ways in which this genre given its status as popular yet marginalized literature allows for the exploration of a wide range of meanings Contributors examine how the genre both mirrors and focuses the personal sexual ethnic spiritual how it interfaces with national literatures and histories and how the generic identity of detective fiction has evolved over time Chapters include discussions of novels and short stories from American Argentine British Canadian French German and Japanese national literatures ranging from the mid 19th century to the early 21st century

Drawing from the Mountain Lorne Perry, 2006 This illustrated journey describes a lifetime of mountain experiences from childhood to fatherhood in the Canadian Rockies Using words artwork and photography Lorne Perry reveals a life lived at times on the edge as he overcomes the effects of a savage grizzly attack to wander the mountains again In Drawing from the Mountain readers who have spent time in the Rockies or any wild place will find resonance and a bit of soul music

Wild Words Donna Coates, George Melnyk, 2009 As the first collection of literary criticism focusing on Alberta writers Wild Words establishes a basis for identifying Alberta fiction poetry drama and nonfiction as valid subjects of study in their own right The idea for this collection began with 100 years of literary tradition for Alberta's centenary However Alberta's literary roots go back much farther than that to the oration of First Nations peoples and the colonizing exploration and travel literature of the 18th and 19th centuries

Calgary James Martin, 2001 Since the release of our first bestselling Calgary cityguide many things in the city have changed it's gotten bigger faster and richer Still filled with strange secrets this revised and expanded edition of the earlier

Calgary Secrets of the City reveals the whole truth With stories of notorious figures like the jazz impresario who has had countless run ins with the law newly discovered tunnels and some that are planned for the future top secret flight experiments and the go go club in which patrons entered by sliding down a tube into the basement Calgary The Unknown City brings to light the dark mysterious corners of life in Cowtown Also included True Tales of the Paramedics crazy roadtrips weird museums and an explanation as to why there is no Church of Scientology in Calgary Two color throughout and with hundreds of photographs and illustrations Calgary The Unknown City is the perfect guidebook for tourists newcomers and long time Calgarians who want to know more about their city Mavericks Aritha Van Herk,2010-01-12 The fifth title in our provincial histories series Mavericks is an idiosyncratic and episodic history of what is arguably Canada s most unconventional province From mapmakers to ranchers Stampede Wrestling to Stockwell Day acclaimed writer Aritha van Herk brings the drama and combative beauty of this irascible province to stunning life van Herk s portrait of her home province embraces all its extremes from deadly and spectacular weather to dinosaur graveyards and from oil gushers and geysers to barnstorming social reformers and political haymakers Bronc riders of boom and bust Alberta s people are a beguiling mixture of opinionated extremists hardy pioneers and gentle sinners Alberta is a province that most Canadians simply don t understand the province most Canadians love to hate It is regarded as a land of reckless redneck and ignorant individualists But it is also the province where the Famous Five fought the landmark Person s Case giving Canadian women the same status as men in the eyes of the law a province that truly believes in free speech Albertans tolerate in their midst people whose extreme views on any manner of subjects would make them outcasts elsewhere And Albertans practice the creed of western neighbourliness giving assiduously to charity and always lending a hand where help is needed They are a tough tender bunch squinting into the wind of determined difference If you re an Albertan you ll recognize yourself and your home in this book If you re not an Albertan this book will be an education for you Mavericks will open your eyes to the real Alberta as she was and is University of Toronto Quarterly University of Toronto,1895 Canadian Books in Print.

Author and Title Index ,1975 Rocky Mountain Madness Edward Cavell,Jon Whyte,2009-05 Rocky Mountain Madness is a throwback to the heyday of Victorian ambition when Banff was a rustic albeit bucolically charming outpost of the Empire and the streets were people with climbers outfitters cowboys cooks guides photographers and poets This entertaining collection of historical photographs amusing newspaper accounts reminiscences and letters evokes the capricious antics the mountains summoned for these people and to quote the authors includes accounts of occasional accomplishment accomplished adventure adventurous rambling and rambling discourse Canadian Book Review Annual ,1975

Canadian Books in Print ,2003 Life of the Trail 3 Emerson Sanford,Janice Sanford Beck,2009 Life of the Trail is a fascinating series that guides today s hikers and armchair travelers through the stories of historic routes in the Canadian Rockies When authors Emerson Sanford and Janice Sanford Beck began backpacking together nearly 20 years ago they often wondered whose footsteps they were retracing and how today's trails through the Rockies came to be there In Life of the Trail they share their findings with adventurers and history buffs alike Life of the Trail 3 The Historic Route from Old Bow Fort to Jasper starts at the remains of Peigan Post originally built in 1832 and still visible today located at the west end of the Morley Reserve This entire route is now a contemporary road but early in the 20th century the section north of Lake Louise was the main trail heading north and was very busy with pioneers adventurers and explorers The trail has been divided into three sections Old Bow Fort to Lake Louise Lake Louise to Sunwapta Pass and Sunwapta Pass to Jasper Lawrence Grassi Elio Costa, Gabriele Scardellato, 2015-01-01 Lawrence Grassi was a trailblazer in every sense of the word A working class man of humble Italian origins who worked as a labourer and a coal miner for most of his life Grassi had a deep passion for the Rocky Mountains He was famous in the region for his commitment as a guide a mountain climber and a builder of greatly admired hiking trails Today in or near Canmore his name graces a mountain two lakes and a school and he is commemorated at Lake O Hara in Yoho National Park In Lawrence Grassi From Piedmont to the Rocky Mountains Elio Costa and Gabriele Scardellato uncover the deeply private man behind this legend from his birth in the small Italian village of Falmenta to his long and inspirational career in Canada Using previously unexamined family letters and extensive information on Grassi's cohort of Italian immigrants the authors reconstruct his personal and professional life correcting myths and connecting his story to the long history of Italian immigration to Canada The definitive biography of this Canadian mountain hero Lawrence Grassi will be essential reading for those interested in the history of immigration sport and the Rocky Mountains Quill & Quire, 2001
