

JOY AND ABNEY

Edward Abbey was born in Illinois County, Pennsylvania, in 1897, after spending the first eighteen years of his life on a farm and then, in childhood, he moved west to attend the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque. It was there that JONATHAN TROY was begun in a student working period under the guidance of Professor C. V. Whipple. After receiving a B.A. degree in 1921, he came west and resided at the University of Montana where the greater part of JONATHAN TROY was completed. In addition thereto, he has written short stories and numerous poems in his long career. His first literary work was "a heavily used" as part of the author's childhood play.
