Australian Metropolis Robert Freestone, Stephen Hamnett, 2020-03-25 The Australian Metropolis splendidly fills a huge gap in the literature on Australian cities It is the definitive account of the history of Australian cities and the crucial role which planning has played in their genesis and growth Spanning two centuries from the very beginning until the present day it will instantly become a standard work Professor Sir Peter Hall author of Cities in Civilisation The Australian Metropolis provides a single volume introduction to the development of urban planning It fills the need for a convenient initial resource for anyone interested in the broad evolutionary sweep of modern planning By setting the evolution of Australian planning within its broader societal context The Australian Metropolis presents a balanced appraisal of the positive negative and ambivalent legacies resulting from attempts to plan Australia's major cities This book is the winner of two Royal Australian Planning Institute Awards for Planning Excellence in 2000 2001 including the New South Wales Division Prize for Planning Scholarship in February 2001 Transition, 1998 Transit Oriented Development John L. Renne, 2016-02-17 Transit Oriented Development Making it Happen brings together the different stakeholders and disciplines that are involved in the conception and implementation of TOD to provide a comprehensive overview of the realization of this concept in Australia North America Asia and Europe The book identifies the challenges facing TOD and through a series of key international case studies demonstrates ways to overcome and avoid them The insights gleaned from these encompass policy and regulation urban design solutions issues for local governance the need to work with community and the commercial realities of TOD

Metropolitan Universities, 2003 The Town Planning Review Patrick Abercrombie, 2004 Disruptive Urbanism Nicole Gurran, Paul J Maginn, Paul Burton, Crystal Legacy, Carey Curtis, Anthony Kent, Geoffrey Binder, 2020-06-09 Disruptive Urbanism examines how different forms and modes of the so called sharing economy are manifesting in cities and regions throughout the world and how policy makers are responding to these disruptions The emergence of the so called sharing economy and the disruptive technologies have profound implications for urban policy and governance Initial expectations that sharing of homes offices or vehicles could solve urban problems such as congestion or housing affordability have given way to concerns over job precarity neighbourhood transformation and the growing power of platforms in disrupting urban governance and regulation Contributors to this volume canvas these issues examining how the sharing economy is manifesting in urban areas the implications of this for urban living and how policy makers are responding to these changes Implications for urban research policy and practice are highlighted through chapters which address forms of urban sharing across housing transport work and food and wider processes of globalisation and neoliberalism as they disrupt cities and urban policy making Disruptive Urbanism will be of great interest to scholars of urban planning urban governance the sharing economy and housing studies The chapters were originally published as a special issue of Urban Policy and Research

Equity in the City P.N. Troy, 2012-12-06 Equity in the City is a collection of nine studies of the way the results of public investment in urban services are shared out among city dwellers The essays describe the way services such as water supply electricity roads and parks are financed and they analyse the way certain residents receive benefits from the public purse while others don't It examines the impact on planning and zoning and building regulation in terms of who gains the benefits from government Equity and the city reveals scarce public resources are allocated This book was first published in 1981

Urban Nation Robert Freestone, 2010-04-01 Urban Nation Australia's Planning Heritage provides the first national survey of the historical impact of urban planning and design on the Australian landscape This ambitious account looks at every state and territory from the earliest days of European settlement to the present day It identifies and documents hundreds of places parks public spaces redeveloped precincts neighbourhoods suburbs up to whole towns that contribute to the distinctive character of urban and suburban Australia It sets these significant planned landscapes within the broader context of both international design trends and Australian efforts at nation and city building Urban and Regional Planning in Western Australia David Hedgcock, Oren Yiftachel, 1992 An Evaluation of Local Area Economic Strategy Studies John David Conroy, 1987 Western Towns and Buildings Margaret Pitt Morison, John Graham White, 1979 Subject Catalog Library of Congress, Australian National Bibliography, 1996-12 The Twentieth Century Urban Planning Experience, 1998 Inter-organizational Information Systems in the Internet Age Sean B. Eom, 2005-01-01 Since the U S Department of Defense initiated the development of networked computers in 1969 Internet technologies have rapidly advanced and revolutionized the way we communicate and conduct business The second wave of the technological revolution came with intranet technology in the mid 1990s With the intranet organizations have strengthened the powers and speed of data gathering and sharing communication collaboration and decision making within a firewall protected organizational boundary The third wave of this technological evolution extranets began in the second half of the 1990s Many believe that it is the key technology enabler that is triggering a revolution in the structure and operations of many organizations in the new Internet driven global economy In addition to maturing Internet technologies several technology drivers as well as business drivers further pushed the emergence of new types of organizations virtual corporations virtual organizations extended enterprises and trans enterprise systems Subject Catalog, 1979 Library of Congress, 1979 On a Human Scale Gordon Stephenson, 1992 Australian National Bibliography: 1992 National Library of Australia, 1988 Road Demand Management Austroads, 1991 The International Who's Who, 1990
