Josef Breitenbach Josef Breitenbach, Paul Berlanga, 2003 Josef Breitenbach Josef Breitenbach, 19?? Josef Breitenbach, Photographer Mark Holborn, Josef Breitenbach, 1986 Fractured Biographies, 2016-08-09 A physical chemist Fritz Haber a photographer Josef Breitenbach a cabaret artist Georg Kreisler two writers Otto Alscher and Albin Stuebs a pioneering scholar in Irish German studies John Hennig and a Celtic philologist Julius Pokorny are the focus of this volume What they have in common is a biography fractured by the Nazis rise to power in 1933 Six were forced into exile the life of the seventh the Romanian German writer Otto Alscher shows that even the biography of a Nazi sympathiser could be dislocated by the years of dictatorship As the previously unpublished letters which are reproduced here show Fritz Haber a Nobel prize winner spent his last lonely months seeking a dignified way to leave the country to which he had once felt the deepest attachment Although a prominent member of Germany's academic elite Julius Pokorny had to retire because of his Jewish ancestry in December 1935 and yet was allowed to continue publishing on ethnic themes until his exile in 1943 Albin Stuebs was forced to seek refuge in Prague and later England when his left wing political convictions made him a certain target for the Nazis Because of his marriage into a liberal Jewish family John Hennig had to renounce all hope of an academic career in Nazi Germany and after his exile to Ireland struggled in straitened circumstances to support his family while at the same time developing into an unusually prolific scholar Proof that exile may stimulate creative energy is provided by Josef Breitenbach whose remarkable biography appears to show that loss and uprootedness may release otherwise undeveloped creative potential Similarly the flight of Georg Kreisler from Vienna in 1938 was the start of a remarkable voyage of discovery which saw him grow into a major if consistently undervalued figure in the world of post war German cabaret

Words in Air Elizabeth Bishop, Robert Lowell, 2024-05-01 Three decades of correspondence between two great twentieth century American poets A brilliant testament to the pleasure and power of good company These two lifetimes of mutual admiration make for irresistible reading Oprah com Words in Air takes its place amid the letters of Keats and Hopkins and Owen as one of the great poetic correspondences The Atlantic Robert Lowell once remarked in a letter to

Elizabeth Bishop You have always been my favorite poet and favorite friend The feeling was mutual Bishop said that conversation with Lowell left her feeling picked up again to the proper table land of poetry and she once begged him Please never stop writing me letters they always manage to make me feel like my higher self I've been re reading Emerson for several days Neither ever stopped writing letters from their first meeting in 1947 when both were young newly launched poets until Lowell's death in 1977 Presented in Words in Air is the complete correspondence between Bishop and Lowell The substantial revealing and often very funny interchange that they produced stands as a remarkable collective achievement notable for its sustained conversational brilliance of style its wealth of literary history its incisive snapshots and portraits of people and places and its delicious literary gossip as well as for the window it opens into the unfolding human and artistic drama of two of America's most beloved and influential poets The pleasures of this remarkable correspondence lie in the untiring way these poets entertained each other with the comic inadequacies of the world The New York Times Book Review Words in Air may be the only book of its precise kind ever published the lifelong correspondence between two artists of equal genius The New Yorker This volume takes its place along with the correspondence between Edmund Wilson and Vladimir Nabokov or Kingsley Amis and Philip Larkin as consummated examples of wit affection and indeed in the case of Bishop and Lowell love Boston Sunday Globe

Dressing and Undressing Duchamp Ingrid E. Mida, 2022-08-25 Fashion is a subject that has long been marginalized in art history and in museums And yet one of the most well known artists in the twentieth century Marcel Duchamp created works that challenge the notion that fashion does not belong in the museum As well there is material evidence of his engagement with clothing as part of his oeuvre This book reveals that clothing and dressing are significant themes that recur in Duchamp's life and his work including his drawings his fashioning of his body his readymades and in his curatorial gestures In examining the items of clothing worn by Duchamp and the related traces of his wardrobe management Duchamp is unmasked as a dandy His waistcoat readymade series Made to Measure 1957 1961 is in fact a remarkable and deliberate effort to recalibrate the definition of the readymade to include clothing With this little studied readymade series Duchamp established a precedent for sartorial art as a valid form of artistic expression In considering the material traces of Duchamp's fashioning of his body and identity in his work and life this book makes a highly original contribution to the understanding of Duchamp's work as well as the significance of the clothed body in the vanguard of Modernism Ultimately this book explains the relevance of fashion in the museum to modern audiences today

Academics, Pompiers, Official Artists and the Arrière-garde Natalie Adamson,Toby Norris,2020-06-12 Academics Pompiers Official Artists and the Arrière-garde Defining Modern and Traditional in France 1900 1960 is a collection of eight essays and a scholarly introduction by established and emerging scholars that challenges the continuing modernist slant of twentieth century art history The intention is not to perpetuate the vulgar opposition between avant garde and reactionary art that characterized early twentieth century discourse and has marked much subsequent historical writing but rather to investigate the complex relationship that both innovative and conservative artists had to the concept of tradition How did artists and art critics conceive of tradition in relation to modernity What was the role of an artist's institutional positioning in determining expectations for his or her art What light is thrown on the structure of the French art world by considering artists from abroad who worked in Paris How did the war alter modernist and avant garde paradigms and force crucial changes upon art production in the postwar period to 1960 Particular attention is paid to the terms academic pompier official and arrière-garde originally used to situate the more conservative artists and works as second rate or as the negative foil to the assumed radicalism of the avant garde By re-evaluating the work of artists pushed to the historical margins by such polemical descriptors and by proposing alternative understandings of the aesthetic economic institutional and political factors that drive our ideas of avant gardism and the modernist narrative in France this collection of essays offers new routes to explore the terrain of twentieth century art in France Displaying the Marvelous Lewis Kachur,2001 How the exhibition spaces of Surrealism anticipated installation art Flawed Light Brett C.
