contributing in their own way to the cause of Irish freedom There s Grace Gifford Plunkett whose love for her husband Joseph Mary Plunkett led her to marry him just hours before his execution There are the women of Cumann na mBan who provided aid and comfort to the rebels serving as messengers nurses and even fighters And there are countless others whose stories have been lost to time but whose contributions were no less significant These women were not just passive observers of history they were active participants risking their lives and reputations to fight for what they believed in They were suffragettes fighting for the right to vote and to have their voices heard They were social activists working to improve the lives of the poor and marginalized And they were revolutionaries willing to take up arms against British rule Their stories are inspiring and heartbreaking a testament to the human spirit s resilience and determination They are a reminder that even in the darkest of times the fight for freedom and equality is one that must be waged by all regardless of gender This book is a tribute to the women of the 1916 Rising honoring their bravery resilience and unwavering commitment to a cause they believed in Their stories deserve to be told and retold to inspire generations to come If you like this book write a review

Mary's First Christmas June Adams, 2010-05 We have all seen the story of the birth of Jesus portrayed at Christmas It is a beautiful story and we never tire of watching each scene unfold Mary s First Christmas is the story of the birth of our Savior as described through the eyes of Joseph and Mary We may gain insight from them as they picture for us the adversity as well as the joy and excitement they experienced from the time of the angel s appearance to the wondrous birth of God s Son We catch a glimpse of the awe that Mary felt upon Gabriel s announcement of the joy she shared with Elizabeth and Zechariah as they awaited the miraculous birth of their own son We see Joseph s apprehension at Mary s announcement and how then after seeing the angel in a dream commits his life to God as Jesus earthly father We can feel the excitement of the taxing journey to Bethlehem for the census the fear and hope they felt even to Joseph s naming of the little donkey who carried the King of the Ages on his back Rocky in memory of the sometimes rocky and dangerous path they followed We see some of the sensations they felt with their description of the camp fires the sheep for sacrifice the beautiful stars in the night sky and then the discouragement of finding no room upon reaching their destination But God was always with them and because of His grace we know today what they did not yet understand that this wonderful child born in a stable the very Son of God would bring salvation to a sinful and lost world
