Queer Postcolonial Narratives and the Ethics of Witnessing Donna McCormack,2015-07-30 Queer Postcolonial Narratives and the Ethics of Witnessing is a critically engaged exploration of power and its relation to ethics and bodies By revisiting and revising Judith Butler's and Homi Bhabha's queer and postcolonial theories of literary performance McCormack expands current understandings of the performative workings of power through an embodied multisensory ethics That remembering is an embodied act which necessitates an undoing of one's sense of self captures how colonial and familial histories silenced by hegemonic structures may only emerge through opaque bodily sensations These non institutionalised forms of witnessing serve both to reconfigure theories of performativity by re-situating the act of witnessing as integral to the workings of power and to interrogate the current emphasis on speech in trauma studies by analysing the multifarious communal and public ways in which memories emerge In Queer Postcolonial Narratives and the Ethics of Witnessing the body is reinstated as central to both the workings of and the challenges to colonial discourses The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor,2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization Living Tangier Abdelmajid Hannoum,2020-01-03 How Moroccan society especially in the city of Tangier has been affected by the flows of migrants from both West Africa and Europe Since the early 1990s new migratory patterns have been emerging in the southern Mediterranean Here a large number of West Africans and young Moroccans including minors make daily attempts to cross to Europe The Moroccan city of Tangier because of its proximity to Spain is one of the main gateways for this migratory movement It has also become a magnet for middle and working class Europeans seeking a more comfortable life Based on extensive fieldwork Living Tangier examines the dynamics of transnational migration in a major city of the Global South and studies African illegal migration to Europe and European legal migration to Morocco looking at the itineraries of Europeans West Africans and Moroccan children and youth their strategies for crossing their motivations their dreams their hopes and their everyday experiences In the process Abdelmajid Hannoum examines how Moroccan society has been affected by the flows of migrants from both West Africa and Europe focusing on race relations and analyzing issues related to citizenship and social inequality Living Tangier considers what makes the city one of the most attractive for migrants preparing to cross to Europe and illustrates not only how migrants live in the city but also how they live the city how they experience it encounter its people and engage its culture walk its streets and participate in its events Reflecting on his own experiences and drawing on the work of Hannah Arendt Edward Said Tayeb Saleh Amin Maalouf and Dany Laferrière Hannoum provokes new questions in order to reconfigure migration as a postcolonial phenomenon and interrogate how Moroccan society responds to new cultural processes

Mediterranean Encounters in the City Michela Ardizzoni, Valerio Ferme, 2015-12-03 This book documents and analyzes how the contemporary Mediterranean city manages and negotiates its identity as a result of recent reconfigurations in its cultural religious and social landscape The events of Sept 11 2001 have recast difference as a central trope of identification in urban borderland settings unleashing heated debates about cultural convergences and animating anxieties about an arguable clash of civilizations in modern cities These emerging uncertainties have also grown stronger as the homogenizing forces of globalization unsettle essential principles of the nation state and nationhood and render fixed perceptions of distinctive and singular people and cultures more tenuous Recent scholarship and public discourse have accordingly framed discussions of these encounters around concerns of geo political security and international policy Unfortunately framed within these terms our understanding of how various groups within the Mediterranean metropolis deal with the intensification of difference as a lived experience has remained regrettably thin This volume transcends this limitation and explores new interdisciplinary research paradigms that will help us gain a comprehensive perspective on how complex macro and micro tensions contradictions and similarities are negotiated in building urban identities in the Mediterranean basin The contributors to this volume explore the multi faceted nature of Mediterranean cities and engage a critical discussion of identity production and consumption in the Mediterranean basin By spanning two centuries and examining both the Northern and Southern shores of the Mediterranean the chapters in this book provide a broad and comprehensive investigation of the ways in which recent cultural productions have framed and re imagined the Mediterranean city as a locus of departures arrivals and contested belonging By focusing on cinema photography new media magazines music and literature as different stages for the performative representation of Mediterraneity the authors highlight the vibrancy of the intercultural discourses taking place along the shores of the mare nostrum and provide new perspectives from which to explore the relationship between North and South East and West

Contemporary Authors: 1945 to the Present Britannica Educational Publishing, 2013-06-01 Contemporary literature encompasses so many genres literary forms and themes that it would seem almost impossible to identify a unifying thread between them Yet in the tradition established by literary heavyweights who came before modern writers of all stripes and backgrounds have continued to entertain and to confront the social cultural and psychological realities of the times including everything from racial identity to war to technology with their own flair and insight The diversity of authors profiled herein from Toni Morrison to Sylvia Plath to Stephen King to David Foster Wallace attests to the scope and complexity of modern society

L'écriture du bonheur dans le roman contemporain Ruth Amar, 2011-01-18 Through the ages the pursuit of Happiness has been at the heart of the needs and desires each individual would seek to fulfill while as a concept Happiness has always resonated strongly in poetic as well as philosophical sociological and psychological contexts But what about Happiness today in a world dominated by technology driven by productivity and dictated by efficiency Does Happiness still feature in contemporary fiction in any significant way Or has it perhaps gone underground adopting different guises Would we still call that duty of happiness that Pascal Bruckner saw as present at the second half of the twentieth century a relevant force today Or has it waned perceptibly The articles brought together in this volume seek to work out answers to these and similar questions creatively addressing the imminent risks but also eagerly following up the intriguing possibilities one encounters when interrogating Happiness in the contemporary novel Originally based on an international conference organized at the University of Haifa Israel in May 2010 the volume is structured around the axes we found useful as a basis for the various approaches towards Happiness in Europe and the historical and social events that influenced the writing of Happiness as they defined the 20th century and have impacted on the 21st the Holocaust the Soviet dystopia consumerism postmodernism everyday life the various as yet unarticulated new modes of life they have given rise to and so on A new writing of happiness then At the very least this volume targets the contemporary novel without wanting to solidify works instead taking into account the fluctuations Happiness has been subjected to and the diversity and especially the paradoxes it has created while we have been keen to preserve a precise reading of the texts and have felt compelled to respect and preserve the particular features that make the writings of the authors we focus on stand out Th me philosophique aussi bien que po tique sociologique et psychologique le bonheur s difie la mesure de chacun N est il pas vrai que nous autres hommes nous d sirons tous tre heureux Platon Or dans notre monde actuel domin par la technique la recherche outrance du productif et de l efficacit qu en est il du bonheur Est il encore pr sent aux critures romanesques contemporaines Sous quelles formes se pr senterait sa recherche Ce devoir de bonheur propre la deuxi me moiti du XXe si cle dont parle Pascal Bruckner continue t il toujours tre d actualit S est il renforc ou au contraire s est il affaibli Le projet d un questionnement du bonheur dans le roman contemporain comportait de gros risques mais il offrait en m me temps des possibilit s stimulantes A la suite du colloque international organis l universit de Ha fa en mai 2010 les textes r unis dans ce livre cherchent laborer des l ments de r ponse ces questions Le volume offre un tat des lieux du bonheur dans le roman depuis 1980 et pr sente une large diversit d approches de d finitions d interrogations sur l criture du bonheur sur trois d cennies Le recueil s articule autour d axes qui ont servi de base aux diff rentes approches du bonheur en Europe et d v nements historiques et sociaux qui ont pu influencer l criture du bonheur aux diff rentes p riodes du XXe et XXe si cles telles que l Holocauste la dystopie en Russie le postmodernisme et le consumisme le quotidien les différents paradoxes du bonheur les nouveaux modes de vie Nouvelle critique du bonheur Du moins ce volume vise-t-il le contemporain sans figer les œuvres tout en tenant compte des fluctuations du sujet de sa diversité de ses paradoxes surtout tout en conservant la lecture précise des textes et en respectant la particularité de la critique des auteurs traités
