Beyond Sovietology Susan Gross Solomon, 2019-07-03 This volume a product of the Soviet Domestic Politics workshop sponsored by the Social Science Research Council marks an end and a new beginning The end of course is that of Sovietology now permanently overtaken by events The beginning encompasses not only a radical multiplication of subjects for analysis the post Soviet states but also the arrival of a new generation of scholars entering the field at its turning point As the essays in this collection demonstrate they bring fresh contemporary social scientific questions and methods to an unprecedentedly accessible universe of diverse social groups and societies once subsumed under the Soviet rubric Their work enriches not only post Soviet studies but the entire range of comparativist work in the social sciences Among the authors included here are Jane Dawson Ellen Hamilton Joel Hellman Mark Saroyan Joseph Schull and Michael Smith
Muslim Chinese Dru C. Gladney, 1996 This second edition of Dru Gladney s critically acclaimed study of the Muslim population in China includes a new preface by the author as well as a valuable addendum to the bibliography already hailed as one of the most extensive listing of modern sources on the Sino Muslims

International Bibliography of the Social Sciences, 1994 The IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences
Islamic Values in the United States Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad, Adair T. Lummis, 1987 This ethnography of immigrant Muslims examines five Northeastern communities providing an intimate look at what it means to be a practicing Muslim in America at a time when Islam is in the forefront of international news
Muslims - Vol 2 Andrew Rippin, 2003-09-02 Looks at modern Muslim views on religious authority including feminism s new Islam and shows how these views affect the perception of the Qur an and the figure of Muhammad in the traditional practice of Islam
Muslim Citizens in the West Samina Yasmeen, Nina Markovic, 2016-04-29 Drawing upon original case studies spanning North America Europe and Australia Muslim Citizens in the West explores how Muslims have been both the excluded and the excluders within the wider societies in which they live The book extends debates on the inclusion and exclusion of Muslim minorities beyond ideas of marginalisation to show that while there have undoubtedly been increased incidences of Islamophobia since September 2001 some Muslim groups have played their own part in separating themselves from the wider society The cases examined show how these tendencies span geographical ethnic and gender divides and can be encouraged by a combination of international and national developments prompting some groups to identify wider society as the other Muslim and non Muslim scholars and practitioners in political science social work history and law also highlight positive outcomes in terms of Muslim activism with relationship to their respective countries and suggest ways in which increasing tensions felt perceived or assumed can be eased and greater emphasis given to the role Muslims can play in shaping their place in the wider communities where they live

A History of Islam in America Kambiz GhaneaBassiri, 2010-04-19 Traces the history of Muslims in the US and their waves of immigration and conversion across five centuries

Muslims: The contemporary period Andrew Rippin, 1993

Interpreting Islam in China Kristian Petersen, 2018 During the early modern period Muslims in China began to embrace the Chinese characteristics of their heritage Several scholar teachers incorporated tenets from traditional Chinese education into their promotion of Islamic knowledge As a result some Sino Muslims established an educational network which utilized an Islamic curriculum made up of Arabic Persian and Chinese works The corpus of Chinese Islamic texts written in this system is collectively labeled the Han Kitab

Interpreting Islam in China explores the Sino Islamic intellectual tradition through the works of some its brightest luminaries Three prominent Sino Muslim authors are used to illustrate transformations within this tradition Wang Daiyu Liu Zhi and Ma Dexin Kristian Petersen puts these scholars in dialogue and demonstrates the continuities and departures within this tradition Through an analysis of their writings he considers several questions How malleable are religious categories and why are they variously interpreted across time How do changing historical circumstances affect the interpretation of religious beliefs and practices How do individuals navigate multiple sources of authority How do practices inform belief Overall he shows that these authors presented an increasingly universalistic portrait of Islam through which Sino Muslims were encouraged to participate within the global community of Muslims The growing emphasis on performing the pilgrimage to Mecca comprehensive knowledge of the Qur'an and personal knowledge of Arabic stimulated communal engagement Petersen demonstrates that the integration of Sino Muslims within a growing global environment where international travel and communication was increasingly possible was accompanied by the rising self awareness of a universally engaged Muslim community

Race, Religion, and the 'Indian Muslim' Predicament in Singapore Torsten Tschacher, 2017-11-10 Indian Muslims form the largest ethnic minority within Singapore's otherwise largely Malay Muslim community Despite its size and historic importance however Singaporean Indian Muslims have received little attention by scholarship and have also felt sidelined by Singapore's Malay dominated Muslim institutions Since the 1980s demands for a better representation of Indian Muslims and access to religious services have intensified while there has been a concomitant debate over who has the right to speak for Indian Muslims This book traces the negotiations and contestations over Indian Muslim difference in Singapore and examines the conditions that have given rise to these debates Despite considerable differences existing within the putative Indian Muslim community the way this community is imagined is surprisingly uniform Through discussions of the importance of ethnic difference for social and religious divisions among Singaporean Indian Muslims the role of culture and race in debates about popular religion the invocation of language and history in negotiations with the wider Malay Muslim context and the institutional setting in which contestations of Indian Muslim difference take place this book argues that these debates emerge from the structural tensions resulting from the intersection of race and religion in the public organization of Islam in Singapore Islamic Reform in South Asia Filippo Osella, Caroline Osella, 2013-05-16 The articles in this volume build up ethnographic analysis complementary to the historiography of South Asian Islam which has explored the emergence of reformism in the context of specific political and religious circumstances of nineteenth century British India Taking up diverse popular and scholarly debates as well as everyday religious practices this volume also breaks away from the dominant trend of mainstream ethnographic work which celebrates Sufi inspired forms of Islam as tolerant plural authentic and so on pitted against a reformist Islam Urging a more nuanced examination of all forms of reformism and their reception in practice the contributions here powerfully demonstrate the historical and geographical specificities of reform projects In doing so they challenge prevailing perspectives in which substantially different traditions of reform are lumped together into one reified category often carelessly shorthanded as wah habism and branded as extremist if not altogether demonised as terrorist

Muslim Communities in Australia Shahram Akbarzadeh, Abdullah Saeed, 2001 This book highlights the complex human diversity presented by Australia's Muslims as well as their distinctive contribution and the challenges they pose to a still evolving Australian multiculturalism Emphasising the diversity of the Islamic experience in Australia it presents a useful antidote to the stereotypical image that still colours mainstream perspectives of Islam God, People and Power in Malawi C. Ross, 2018-06-28 Between 1992 and 1994 Malawi underwent a remarkable transition from dictatorship to democracy Truly a transformation of power Yet this period of profound change raised many issues of power and accountability In this book some of the key questions are explained and addressed from a theological perspective The work originated as a case study on the World Council of Churches Theology of Life programme It was then presented as a Kachere Monograph in the belief that it will not only contribute to the reconstruction of politics in Malawi but also be an important resource for all those concerned with the formation of a viable theology of power for today's world It is now presented here again as a Luviri Reprint The contributors are all drawn from the University of Malawi Department of Theology and Religious Studies Kenneth Ross has written on The Transformation of Power in Malawi 1992-94 the Role of the Christian Churches and A Practical Theology of Power for the New Malawi Felix Chingota on The Use of the Bible in Social Transformation Isabel Apawo Phiri on Marching Suspended and Stoned Christian Women in Malawi 1995 James Tengatenga on Young People Participation or Alienation An Anglican Case J C Chankanza and Hilary Mijoga on Muslim Perspectives on Power Hilary Mijoga on Christian Experience in Malawi Prisons and Klaus Fiedler on Power at the Receiving End the Jehovah's Witnesses Experience in One Party Malawi and Even in the Church the Exercise of Power is Accountable to God IBSS: Political Science: 1987 British Library of Political and Economic Science, 1991 IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and
