Journals: 1939-1949 André Gide, 2000 Beginning with a single entry For The year 1889 when he was twenty and continuing intermittently but indefatigably through his life the Journals of Andr Gide constitute an enlightening moving and endlessly fascinating chronicle of creative energy and conviction Astutely and thoroughly annotated by Justin O Brien in consultation with Gide himself this translation is the definitive edition of Gide s complete journals The complete journals representing sixty years of a varied life testify to a disciplined intelligence in a constantly maturing thought These pages contain aesthetic appreciations philosophic reflections sustained literary criticism notes For The composition of his works details of his personal life and spiritual conflicts accounts of his extensive travels and comments on the political and social events of the day from the Dreyfus case To The German occupation Gide records his progress as a writer and a reader as well as his contacts and conversations with the bright lights of contemporary Europe from Paul Valry Paul Claudel Lon Blum and Auguste Rodin to Marcel Proust Stephen Mallarm Oscar Wilde and Nadia Boulanger Devoid of affectation alternately overtaken by depression and animated by a sense of urgency and hunger for literature and beauty Gide read voraciously corresponded voluminously and thought profoundly always questioning and doubting in search of the unadulterated truth The only drama that really interests me and that I should always be willing to depict anew he wrote is the debate of the individual with whatever keeps him from being authentic with whatever is opposed to his integrity To his integration Most often the obstacle is within him And all the rest is merely accidental Volume 4 reveals a creative mind that remains vigorous and unique as Gide enters his seventies He records the fall of France And The German occupation during World War II The landing of the Americans And The fall of Tunis As well as a memorable meeting with General de Gaulle His literary commentary touches on such writers as Virgil Goethe Racine Dashiell Hammett and John Steinbeck Journal:

1939-1949. Souvenirs André Gide, 1954 Gide's Bent Michael Lucey, 1995 This study investigates the place of sexuality in the writings of Andre Gide Focusing on his writing of the 1920s and 1930s the years in which Gide wrote most openly about his homosexuality and also the years of his most notable left wing political activity the work interrogates both the political content of his reflections on his homosexuality and the ways in which his sexuality inflected his political interests

French Autobiographical Writing 1900-1950 Susan M. Dolamore, 1997 André Gide Alan Sheridan, 1999 Sheridan presents a literary biography of one of the most important writers of the 20th century an intimate portrait of the reluctantly public man whose work was deeply and inextricably entangled with his life 35 halftones Against the Modern World Mark J. Sedgwick, 2009 Against the Modern World is the first history of Traditionalism an important yet surprisingly little known twentieth century anti modern movement Comprising a number of often secret but sometimes very influential religious groups in the West and in the Islamic world it affected mainstream and radical politics in Europe and the development of the field of religious studies in the United States touching the lives of many individuals French writer Rene Guenon rejected modernity as a dark age and sought to reconstruct the Perennial Philosophy the central truths behind all the major world religions Guenon stressed the urgent need for the West's remaining spiritual and intellectual elite to find personal and collective salvation in the surviving vestiges of ancient religious traditions A number of disenchanted intellectuals responded to his call In Europe America and the Islamic world Traditionalists founded institutes Sufi brotherhoods Masonic lodges and secret societies Some attempted unsuccessfully to guide Fascism and Nazism along Traditionalist lines others later participated in political terror in Italy Traditionalist ideas were the ideological cement for the alliance of anti democratic forces in post Soviet Russia and in the Islamic world entered the debate about the relationship between Islam and modernity Although its appeal in the West was ultimately limited Traditionalism has wielded enormous influence in religious studies through the work of such Traditionalists as Ananda Coomaraswamy Huston Smith Mircea Eliade and Seyyed Hossein Nasr

Anna Hubbard Mia Cunningham,2021-12-14 Anna Eikenhout 1902 1986 was an honors graduate of Ohio State University a fine arts librarian a skilled pianist and an avid reader in three languages Harlan Hubbard 1900 1988 a little known painter and would be shantyboater seemed an unlikely husband but together they lived a life out of the pages of Thoreau's Walden Much of what is known about the Hubbards comes from Harlan's books and journals Concerning the seasons and the landscape his writing was rapturous yet he was emotionally reticent when discussing human affairs in general or Anna in particular Yet it was through her efforts that their life on the river was truly civilized Visitors to Payne Hollow recall Anna as a generous gracious hostess whose intelligence and artistry made the small house seem grander than a mansion

Paralyses John Culbert,2011-01-01 Modernity has long been equated with motion travel and change from Marx's critical diagnoses of economic instability to the Futurists glorification of speed Likewise metaphors of travel serve widely in discussions of empire cultural contact translation and globalization from Deleuze's nomadology to James Clifford's traveling cultures John Culbert in contrast argues that the key texts of modernity and postmodernity may be approached through figures and narratives of paralysis motion is no more defining of modern travel than fixations resistance and impasse concepts and figures of travel he posits must be rethought in this more static light Focusing on the French and Francophone context in which paralyzed travel is a persistent motif Culbert also offers new insights into French critical theory and its often paradoxical figures of mobility from Blanchot's spas au delà and Barthes's derivato Derrida's aporias and Glissant's diversions Here we see that paralysis is not merely the failure of transport but rather the condition in which travel by coming to a crisis calls into question both mobility and stasis in the language of desire and the order of knowledge Paralyses provides a close analysis of the rhetoric of empire and the economy of tourism precisely at their points of breakdown which in turn enables a deconstruction of master narratives of exploration conquest and exoticism A reassessment of key authors of French modernity from Nerval and Gautier to Fromentin Paulhan Beckett Leiris and Boudjedra Paralyses also constitutes a new theoretical intervention in debates on travel translation ethics and postcoloniality

The Great Protector of Wits Laura Nicolì, 2022-06-20 The Great Protector of Wits provides a new assessment of baron d'Holbach 1723-1789 and his circle. A challenging figure of the European Enlightenment, Paul Henri Thiry d'Holbach was not only a radically materialistic philosopher, a champion of anticlericalism, the author of the Système de la nature known as the Bible of atheists, an idologist, a popularizer of the natural sciences, and a prolific contributor to the Encyclopédie, but he also played a crucial role as an organizer of intellectual networks and was a master of disseminating clandestine literature and a consummate strategist in authorial fictions. In this collective volume, for the first time, all these different threads of d'Holbach's philosophy in action are considered and analyzed in their interconnection. Contributors to this volume: Jacopo Agnesina, Nicholas Cronk, Melanie Ehrlich, Enrico Galvagni, Jonathan Israel, Alan Charles Kors, Mladen Kozul, Brunello Lotti, Emilio Mazza, Gianluca Mori, Iryna Mykhailova, Gianni Paganini, Paolo Quintili, Alain Sandrier, Ruggero Sciuto, Maria Susana Seguin, and Gerhardt Stenger. Policing Literary Theory, 2018-01-03 The present age of omnipresent terrorism is also an era of ever-expanding policing. What is the meaning and the consequences of this situation for literature and literary criticism? Policing Literary Theory attempts to answer these questions, presenting intriguing and critical analyses of the interplays between police, policing, and literature. Literary criticism in a variety of linguistic milieus and literary traditions: American, English, French, German, Japanese, Korean, Russian, and others. The volume explores the mechanisms of formulation of knowledge about literature, theory, or culture in general in the post-Foucauldian surveillance society. Topics include North Korean dictatorship, spy narratives, censorship in literature and scholarship, Russian and Soviet authoritarianism, Eastern European cultures during communism, and Kafka's work. Contributors: Vladimir Biti, Reingard Nethersole, Colin Andrei Mihăilescu, Sowon Park, Marko Juvan, Kyohei Norimatsu, Peter Hajdu, Norio Sakanaka, John Zilcosky, Yvonne Howell, and Takayuki Yokota. Murakami Conrad and Gide Russell West-Pavlov, 2023-04-17 This study examines the relations between the work of the Polish English novelist Joseph Conrad and the French Nobel Prize winner André Gide. Gide's translation of Conrad's Typhoon is read as a work belonging paradoxically to the oeuvres of both writers, where their respective preoccupations meet with illuminating results. Focusing also on other major works by Conrad and Gide, the study suggests that the intertextual and personal interaction between these two masters of 20th Century fiction was governed by processes of identification and projection, conflict between master and disciple, and a consequent resistant reading of texts and confrontation with linguistic and cultural heterogeneity. Issues of translation theory, psychoanalysis, and intertextuality are brought together to offer a glimpse of a possible dialogue between literature and ethics. This study will be of interest to students and researchers in English, French, and Comparative Literature. Pathologies of Travel ,2016-08-22 The essays in this volume which range across Europe America and Africa and from the 18th to the 20th centuries argue that the experience of travel and the business of representing that experience involved an obligatory engagement with the disturbing perception that travel's pleasures were inseparable from its dangers and ennui. Despite the confidence of some medical authorities in their recommendations of the therapeutic benefits to be derived from change of air as a way of restoring a state of health such opinions failed to establish a consensus either amongst those who followed such peripatetic prescriptions or amongst the medical professions in general. Mad doctors and climatologists alike were forced to adopt an essentially partisan stance in arguing their case for such recommendations and were confronted by rival practitioners who could marshal counter case histories which demonstrated diametrically opposed conclusions concerning the advisability of travel. To this extent the history of travel and its pathologies is a particularly revealing instance of the way medical thinking was dependent on localised studies which might do more to challenge the universal applicability of generally accepted theories than they did to confirm their diagnostic reliability. The essays collected here not only contribute to our understanding of the conception and application of a variety of medical ideas showing how they depended on beliefs about climate and corporeal constitution as well as often inconsistent data or reports culled from travellers and geographically dispersed case histories but also open up illuminatingly complex perspectives on the uncertainties and dangers of the phenomenon of modern travel.
