Journal Of African Administration:

Journal of African Administration ,1960 Journal of African Administration ,1965 Journal of African Administration Great Britain. Colonial Office,1949 Journal of African Administration , Field Administration Brian C. Smith,2023-08-18 First published in 1967 Field Administration provides a useful introduction to a much neglected aspect of administration Every government finds it necessary to decentralise its administration But in Britain much more attention has been paid to devolution i e to local government than to deconcentration i e to local and regional administrative organisation or what Mr Smith calls field administration Neither aspect of decentralisation can be fully understood in isolation and one great merit of this volume is its study of interrelationships between the two To illustrate the general principles involved case studies are provided of three kinds of field administration the functional the Ministry of Agriculture in the U K the integrated prefectorial system Burma and the unintegrated prefectorial system Northern Nigeria This book will be of interest to students of political science government and administration African Leadership Rob Elkington,Faith Wambura Ngunjiri,Gloria J. Burgess,Xoliswa Majola,Erwin Schwella,Nico de Klerk,2023-03-14 African Leadership is an edited collection enriched by the people who have lived and experienced indigenous leadership first hand demonstrating how African leadership is distinctive from usual Western hegemonic paradigms Developmental Change Allan A. Spitz,2014-07-15 Developmental change and the related problems of modernization have attracted the attention of scholars in many disciplines In this bibliography derived and expanded from an earlier compilation by Mr Spitz and Edward Weidner the author orders and annotates nearly 2 500 articles appearing between 1945 and 1969 in 234 journals from 25 countries Organized by subject and indexed by both author and journal the citations include studies of social problems economic factors political questions public administration and international cooperation and assistance Special emphasis has been given to new and little known sources In addition a selected bibliography of monographs and book length studies dealing with the modernization of underdeveloped countries and areas is included in the volume Nigeria James S. Coleman,2023-11-10 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1958 Nigerian Chiefs Olufemi Vaughan,2006 An analysis of how traditional power structures in Nigeria have survived the forces of colonialism and the modernization processes of postcolonial regimes This book analyzes how indigenous political power structures in Nigeria survived both the constricting forces of colonialism and the modernization programs of postcolonial regimes With twenty detailed case studies on colonial and postcolonial Nigerian history the complex interactions between chieftaincy structures and the rapidly shifting sociopolitical and economic conditions of the twentieth century become evident Drawing on the interactions between the state and chieftaincy this study goes beyond earlier Africanist scholarship that attributes the resilience of these indigenous structures to their enduring normative and utilitarian qualities Linked to externally derived forces and legitimated by neotraditional themes chieftaincy structures were distorted by the indirect rule system transformed by competing communal claims and legitimated a dominant ethno regional power configuration Olufemi Vaughan is Professor in the Department of Africana Studies and the Department of History State University of New York at Stony Brook Winner of the 2001 Cecil B Currey Book length Award from the Association of Third World Studies

Women, Sexuality and the Changing Social Order Beth Maina Ahlberg, 2022-05-14 This book first published in 1991 examines the effect of government policies and social restrictions on the reproductive behaviour and family life of the women of Kenya especially the Kikuyu people Importation of techniques for social and behavioural regulation from the developed nations the social restructuring that followed the colonial intervention the Mau Mau uprisings and current widespread concern with AIDS have disrupted traditional influences on Kenyan reproductive behaviour and family life In response to these changes women mobilised into a movement comprised of small local women s groups scattered throughout Kenya that attempt to educate and influence both its members and government policy The successes and failures of this movement offer important lessons for the rest of Africa and the developing world Pastoralists of the West African Savanna Mahdi Adamu,A. H. M. Kirk-Greene,2018-09-03 Originally published in 1986 this volume deals with various aspects of the life of the pastoralists who live in the area between what was Senegambia and Cameroon It analyses the changing relations between pastoralists and agricultural peoples and the changes that pastoral societies are undergoing with urbanisation increased central government control and the spread of market relations The papers are in both English and French and include historical studies of aspects of the history of Adamawa the Fulani the Twareg the Shuwa Arabs and the Koyam in pre colonial times There is also a survey of the state of Fula language studies and the variety of Fula literature discussions of the changing nature of pastoralism and the nomadic way of life in Cameroon Senegal and Nigeria including the effects of drought Reforming the African Public Sector. Retrospect and Prospects R.A. Ayee,2008-09-15 Reforming the African Public Sector Retrospect and Prospects is an in depth and wide ranging review of the available literature on African public sector reforms It illustrates several differing country experiences to buttress the main observations and conclusions It adopts a structural institutional approach which underpins most of the reform efforts on the continent To contextualize reform of the public sector and understand its processes dynamics and intricacies the book examines the state and state capacity building in Africa especially when there can be no state without an efficient public sector In addition the book addresses a number of theories such as the new institutional economics public choice and new public management which have in one way or another influenced most of the initiatives implemented under public sector reform in Africa There is also a survey of the three phases of public sector reform which have emerged and the balance sheet of reform strategies namely decentralization privatization deregulation agencification co production and public private partnerships It concludes by identifying possible alternative approaches such as developing a vigorous public sector ethos and sustained capacity building to promote and enhance the renewal and reconstruction of the African public sector within the context of the New Partnerships for Africa s Development NEPAD good governance and the Millennium Development Goals MDGs The Rise of Nationalism in Central Africa Robert I.
