The Economic History of Central, East and South-East Europe Matthias Morys, 2020-12-29 The collapse of communism in Central East and South East Europe CESEE led to great hopes for the region and for Europe A quarter of a century on the picture is mixed in many CESEE countries the transformation process is incomplete and the economic catch up has taken longer than anticipated The current situation has highlighted the need for a better understanding of the long term political and economic implications of the Central East and South East European historical experience This thematically organised text offers a clear and comprehensive guide to the economic history of CESEE from 1800 to the present day Bringing together authors from both East and West the book also draws on the cutting edge research of a new generation of scholars from the CESEE region Presenting a thoroughly modern overview of the history of the region the text will be invaluable to students of economic history and CESEE area studies The Great Crash of 1929 A. Kabiri, 2014-11-25 Understanding the American stock market boom and bust of the 1920s is vital for formulating policies to combat the potentially deleterious effects of busts on the economy Using new data Kabiri explains what led to the 1920s stock market boom and 1929 crash and looks at whether 1929 was a bubble or not and whether it could have been anticipated Deposit Insurance Reform and Financial Modernization United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs, 1990 Ida Greaves Barbara Ingham, 2023-10-25 Ida Greaves who was born in Barbados in 1907 is one of the missing female voices of early development economics This biography the first for Ida Greaves attempts to construct her career and era before the past wholly disappears The biography covers her early years in Barbados her time at boarding school in England at McGill University in Canada where she focused on human behaviour under the influence of changing social and political histories and also published an early path breaking study of black migrants into Canada and her later research at Harvard and Columbia in the United States and at the London School of Economics Individual chapters follow her career acting as economic adviser to the Colonial Office in London where she worked alongside Arthur Lewis and at the fledgling United Nations in New York She published in top journals and produced an outstanding study of the influence of colonial monetary systems on poor countries This accessible biography provides unexpected insights into personalities and institutions during a critical period in late colonial history The issues it raises of class and race gender and inequality poverty and unemployment are of no less relevance today than they were in her lifetime British Cotton Textiles: Maturity and Decline David Higgins, Steven Toms, 2018-11-09 This book examines the decline of the cotton textiles industry which defined Britain as an industrial nation from its peak in the late nineteenth century to the state of the industry at the end of the twentieth century Focusing on the owners and managers of cotton businesses the authors examine how they mobilised financial resources their attitudes to industry structure and technology and their responses to the challenges posed by global markets The origins of the problems which forced the industry into decline are not found in any apparent loss of competitiveness during the long nineteenth century but rather in the disastrous refloating after the First World War. As a consequence of these speculations, rationalisation and restructuring became more difficult at the time when they were most needed and government intervention led to a series of partial solutions to what became a process of protracted decline. In the post 1945 period, the authors show how government policy encouraged capital withdrawal rather than encouraging the investment needed for restructuring. The examples of corporate success since the Second World War, such as David Alliance and his Viyella Group, exploited government policy, access to capital markets and closer relationships with retailers but were ultimately unable to respond effectively to international competition and the challenges of globalisation. The chapters in this book were originally published in Business History and Accounting, Business and Financial History, Methodology and Method in History (RLE Accounting). Lee D. Parker, Finley O. Graves, 2013-12-04. This bibliography provides the reader with a comprehensive reference tool that will enhance understanding of methodological issues and enable the user to employ research methods appropriate to their subject of study. It also provides accounting historians a comprehensive data base for the development of papers addressing methodological issues in an accounting history context. Access to this type of resource is particularly crucial to the development of accounting history research since the number of papers dealing with methodological issues published in accounting history literature is very small. Hence the references in this bibliography are drawn from the literature of general history, economic and business history, legal and social history and philosophy. The scope and range of its contents are broad; references are taken from texts as well as papers published in over 450 journals.

The Shell Money of the Slave Trade Jan Hogendorn, Marion Johnson, 2003-09-18. A study of the role of cowrie shell money in West African trade, particularly the slave trade.

Wine Economics Stefano Castriota, 2020-11-17. A comprehensive and interdisciplinary approach to the economics of the production, distribution and consumption of wine. Wine economics is a growing subfield that examines the economics of the production, distribution and consumption of wine. In this book, Stefano Castriota takes a comprehensive and interdisciplinary approach to the study of wine economics, drawing on literature from industrial organization, welfare economics, economic policy, political economy, management, finance, health economics, law and criminology. Castriota explores how wine markets operate and how they are regulated, covering such diverse topics as the health economics of wine consumption, both the positive health effects associated with moderate wine intake and the negative effects of alcohol abuse; the competition and profitability of wineries; the function of wine as an investment; and the quality of wine. He examines differences between the wine industries in the Old World and the New World, comparing small family-owned wineries with larger conglomerates and analyzes the regulation of wine in the United States versus the European Union. He concludes with a series of recommendations to ensure open and efficient wine markets while protecting public health. Originally published in Italy as Economia del Vino, this English translation has been extensively revised. It includes additional material focusing on the English-speaking countries of the New World, particularly the regulatory environment of the United States and the lingering effects of Prohibition Anti-Fascism, Gender, and International Communism Jasmine Calver, 2022-11-04 Anti Fascism Gender and International Communism provides a comprehensive history of the Comité mondial des femmes contre la guerre et le fascisme CMF an international women's organisation concerned with confronting the impact of fascism on women and children across the globe Women played an essential role in the international struggle against fascism during the interwar period although a focus on the efforts of men and political figures by the historiography has largely overshadowed women's interventions against right wing dictatorships Through an examination of the committee's key figures strategies connections and campaigns this book offers a significant contribution to the histories of both women's activism and anti fascist activism by positioning the CMF as an important contributor to international political advocacy in the interwar period Further the group's association with international communism and the burgeoning Popular Front movement placed the CMF at the forefront of global debates about the threat posed by fascism and imperialism This book explores how the professional women activists and the working class women who populated the organisation developed a committee which advocated for women on a global scale It charts how the CMF utilised a variety of physical spaces and literary formats to co ordinate anti fascist actions through its expansive and ambitious campaigns The author also demonstrates the close connections between the Communist International and the CMF as a communist front organisation to provide context for the group's decision making and prioritisation of certain campaigns over others This book will be of interest to scholars of anti fascism feminism women's history communism activism internationalism anti imperialism and French history Age of Betrayal Jack Beatty, 2008-04-08 Age of Betrayal is a brilliant reconsideration of America's first Gilded Age when war born dreams of freedom and democracy died of their impossibility Focusing on the alliance between government and railroads forged by bribes and campaign contributions Jack Beatty details the corruption of American political culture that in the words of Rutherford B Hayes transformed a government of the people by the people and for the people into a government by the corporations of the corporations and for the corporations A passionate gripping scandalous and sorrowing history of the triumph of wealth over commonwealth Two Nations, Indivisible Jamie L. Bronstein, 2016-10-17 While examining the arguments made in favor of egalitarianism this book debunks the notion that the United States is now or has ever been a nation offering equal opportunity to all In the Declaration of Independence Jefferson famously asserted that all men are created equal Likewise social mobility the idea that any child can grow up to be president has been key to the myth of what makes America great Yet the hard truth is that inequality of both opportunity and resulting condition has been a defining feature of America's story Written by a comparative labor historian this book combines economic and social history with intellectual history to reveal the major trends of inequality that have been evident in America from Revolutionary times through the present The book opens with an introduction to the burgeoning issue of inequality in America The following chronological chapters describe how inequality was manifest in various periods Each chapter not only provides a full survey of the secondary literature related to the topic of inequality in the particular time period but also examines prescriptions from thinkers who espoused equality including Thomas Paine Thomas Skidmore Henry George Jane Addams Upton Sinclair and Harry Caudill By assessing these and other arguments relevant to social change the work helps readers understand the cases made for and against equality of opportunity and condition throughout U S history

Famine and Survival Strategies Dessalegn Rahmato,1991 What do peasants do in the face of severe food crisis and ecological stress and how do they manage to survive on their own This study revolves around a case study conducted by the author in the awraja district in the Ambassel Wollo province in northeastern Ethiopia This is in the region that was hit hardest by the 1984 85 famine which Rahmato calls the worst tragedy rural Ethiopia had ever experienced The author also critically examines other literature on famine response The focus of this study is on what happens before famine comes and how the peasants prepare for it From a wealth of evidence the author concludes that the seeds of famine are sown during the years of recovery

Business Structure, Business Culture, and the Industrial District Andrew Popp,2001 North Staffordshire has been synonymous with the manufacture of pottery for more than 200 years This book is the first comprehensive business history of the North Staffordshire pottery industry during a critical period in its development from the nineteenth century to the eve of World War One Adopting an explicitly regional perspective the work focuses on the interaction of business structure and business culture in the context of an intensely clustered industry Major themes include personal capitalism networks business strategy and technological change each explored in terms of the rapidly changing environment faced by the industry in this period A detailed reconstruction of the structure of the industry is augmented by several important firm case studies from high class manufacturers Mintons Ltd to the auxiliary firm of Jesse Shirley Co Making a significant contribution to our knowledge of the potteries the book also provides insights into the nature of industrial districts

Within the Plantation Household Elizabeth Fox-Genovese,2000-11-09 Documenting the difficult class relations between women slaveholders and slave women this study shows how class and race as well as gender shaped women s experiences and determined their identities Drawing upon massive research in diaries letters memoirs and oral histories the author argues that the lives of antebellum southern women enslaved and free differed fundamentally from those of northern women and that it is not possible to understand antebellum southern women by applying models derived from New England sources

The Anxious Triumph Donald Sassoon,2019-06-27 A magnum opus an accessible and genuinely global history This is a book for today and tomorrow Financial Times Capitalist enterprise has existed in some form since ancient times but the globalization and dominance of capitalism as a system began in the 1860s when in different forms and supported by different political forces states all over the world developed their modern political frameworks the unifications of Italy and Germany the establishment of a republic in France the elimination of slavery in the American south the Meiji Restoration in Japan the emancipation of the serfs in Tsarist Russia This book magnificently explores how after the upheavals of industrialisation a truly global capitalism followed For the first time in the history of humanity there was a social system able to provide a high level of consumption for the majority of those who lived within its bounds Today capitalism dominates the world With wide ranging scholarship Donald Sassoon analyses the impact of capitalism on the histories of many different states and how it creates winners and losers by constantly innovating This chronic instability he writes is the foundation of its advance not a fault in the system or an incidental by product And it is this instability this constant churn which produces the anxious triumph of his title To control or alleviate such anxieties it was necessary to create a national community if necessary with colonial adventures to develop a welfare state to intervene in the market economy and to protect it from foreign competition Capitalists needed a state to discipline them to nurture them and to sacrifice a few to save the rest a state overseeing the war of all against all Vigorous argumentative surprising and constantly stimulating The Anxious Triumph gives a fresh perspective on all these questions and on its era It is a masterpiece by one of Britain's most engaging and wide ranging historians

The Route to European Hegemony Ruby Maloni, 2021-04-19 The advent of the Europeans was crucial in transforming the contours of Maritime Asia The commercial situation in the Indian Ocean was impacted in many ways over the longue duree from the sixteenth to the eighteenth centuries To offset the adverse balance of trade and to maximize profits the Europeans imposed their own coercive and monopolistic systems along the existing trade routes Systematic exploitation of economic opportunities in Asia by Europeans began with the coming of the Portuguese followed by other European maritime powers It culminated with Britannia ruling the Asian waters with warships and a strong merchant marine A study of the operational and ideological motivations that propelled the European powers activities in the Indian Ocean can help to construct a coherent interpretation of the foundations of empire that were being laid at first insidiously and later aggressively This book analyses the mechanism and implications of Europe's sustained engagement in Intra Asian trade which is as an essential context to the establishment of colonial empires Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka

The Economics of Knowledge, Innovation and Systemic Technology Policy Francesco Crespi, Francesco Quatraro, 2015-05-15 There is wide consensus on the importance of knowledge for economic growth and local development patterns This book proposes a view of knowledge as a collective systemic and evolutionary process that enables agents and social systems to overcome the challenges of the limits to growth It brings together new conceptual and empirical contributions analysing the relationship between demand and supply factors and the rate and direction of technological change It also examines the different elements that compose innovation systems The Economics of Knowledge Innovation and Systemic Technology Policy provides the background for the development of an integrated framework for the analysis of systemic policy instruments and their mutual interaction the socio political and economic conditions of the surrounding environment These aspects have long been neglected in innovation policy as policymakers academics and the business community have mostly emphasized the benefits of supply side strategies However a better understanding of innovation policies grafted on a complexity based approach calls for the appreciation of the mutual interactions between both supply and demand aspects and it is likely to improve the actual design of policy measures This book will help readers to understand the foundations and working of demand driven innovation policies by stressing the importance of competent and smart demand Rethinking Capitalism Michael Jacobs, Mariana Mazzucato, 2016-07-21 Thought provoking and fresh this book challenges how we think about economics Gillian Tett Financial Times For further information about recent publicity events and media coverage for Rethinking Capitalism please visit <http://marianamazzucato.com/rethinking-capitalism> Western capitalism is in crisis For decades investment has been falling living standards have stagnated or declined and inequality has risen dramatically Economic policy has neither reformed the financial system nor restored stable growth Climate change meanwhile poses increasing risks to future prosperity In this book some of the world's leading economists propose new ways of thinking about capitalism In clear and compelling prose each chapter shows how today's deep economic problems reflect the inadequacies of orthodox economic theory and the failure of policies informed by it The chapters examine a range of contemporary economic issues including fiscal and monetary policy financial markets and business behaviour inequality and privatisation and innovation and environmental change The authors set out alternative economic approaches which better explain how capitalism works why it often doesn't and how it can be made more innovative inclusive and sustainable Outlining a series of far reaching policy reforms Rethinking Capitalism offers a powerful challenge to mainstream economic debate and new ideas to transform it

Bengal Industries and the British Industrial Revolution (1757-1857) Indrajit Ray, 2011-08-09 This book seeks to enlighten two grey areas of industrial historiography Although Bengal industries were globally dominant on the eve of the industrial revolution no detailed literature is available about their later course of development A series of questions are involved in it Did those industries decline during the spells of British industrial revolution If yes what were their reasons If not the general curiosity is On which merits could those industries survive against the odds of the technological revolution A thorough discussion on these issues also clears up another area of dispute relating to the occurrence of deindustrialization in Bengal and the validity of two competing hypotheses on it viz i the mainstream hypothesis of market failures and ii the neo marxian hypothesis of imperialistic state interventions The Dynamics of Agricultural Change David Grigg, 2019-08-06

First published in 1982 Until the nineteenth century the history of agriculture was the history of mankind but it has not perhaps received the wide attention that this importance justifies In this study the author reviews for the student of agricultural history successive attempts to describe and explain agricultural changes that are not specific to a limited area or a particular time In a sense The Dynamics of Agricultural Change is a systematic historical geography of agriculture Some of the models the author explores have been developed within agricultural history some drawn from other disciplines can be applied fruitfully to it What is the relationship between population growth and agricultural development Between environmental changes and those in agriculture What was the effect of the industrial revolution And has there been an agricultural revolution This book suggests to university students of economic history historical geography and agriculture a number of stimulating ways of interpreting and reinterpreting agricultural history
