Time's a healer they say
But I am yet to see the day
When all the pain is gone
And I can learn to carry on.

At times it feels unbearable
Knowing that it's irreparable
Where did it all go wrong
Or maybe it was like this all along

Perhaps my destiny is not to heal
But rather to feel
This excruciating pain
And learn to dance in the rain.

The Daily Mirror David Lehman, 2000-01-04 Following in the footsteps of such poets as Emily Dickinson William Stafford and Frank O'Hara David Lehman began writing a poem a day in 1996 and found the experience so rewarding that he continued for the next two years During that time some of these poems appeared in various journals and on Web sites including The Poetry Daily site which ran thirty of Lehman's poems in as many days throughout the month of April 1998 For The Daily Mirror Lehman has selected the best of these daily poems each tied to a specific occasion or situation and telescoped two years into one Spontaneous and immediate but always finely crafted and spiced with Lehman's signature irony and wit the poems are akin to journal entries charting the passing of time the deaths of great men and women the news of the day Jazz Sinatra the weather love poetry and poets movies and New York City are among their recurring themes A departure from Lehman's previous work this unique volume provides the intimacy of a diary full of passion sound and fury but with all the aesthetic pleasure of poetry More a party of poems than a standard collection The Daily Mirror presents an exciting new way to think about poetry

The Glass Tears Poem Journal Randal S. Doaty, 2011-11-16 A ray of sunlight came through a pane in the glass studio workshop The scrap glass bucket was nearly full On top of this heap was a hardened drip of glass that had carelessly fallen from a glass artist's punti Glimmering in the sunlight that morning was the very first Glass Teardrop It may have remained just scrap until the simple words glass tears softly whispered in the imagination of a would-be poet Two totally different art forms were about to be married The story of Glass Tears is purely serendipitous The need for a unique and meaningful sympathy gift happened at just about the same time as the glass teardrop appeared at the studio The poem Glass Tears came to Randal S. Doaty as unexpectedly as the teardrop itself He had never written a poem before but he felt the need to give his new teardrop a voice The Glass Tears Poem Journal is a collection of what many different Glass Tears have spoken through the voice of this poet
