Neighbour, 2009-06-08 Tired of reading books by pastors of large churches who could put a stick in the mud and it would grow a fruit bearing tree in a week Exhausted with doing ministry the same way expecting different results Exasperated by the lack of ownership among the members of your existing groups Then this book is for you Pulling no punches Neighbour diagnoses the problems surrounding small group and cell group ministry in America today offering practical suggestions that work The Living Church, 1978-07 Health, Healing and the Church's Mission Willard M. preaching on Genesis with the proposition that Genesis is the blueprint of the Bible The Words of Genesis contain truths and teachings that encapsulate the Bible Through the lives of the faithful characters in Genesis we can discern what kind of faith pleases God Genesis teaches us in detail how we can obtain salvation and how the righteous who have received salvation should live their lives The chief baker baked three baskets of white bread placing various baked goods on them for the king but he was executed We must believe in the Word of God just as it is written without adding or subtracting from the Word of Truth Anyone who believes in the Gospel of Truth which contains the witnesses of the Spirit the water and the blood and these three agree as one 1 John 5 8 without adding or subtracting from it receives the remission of sins and is born again as a righteous person Also only then can one follow the Word like Abraham did after being born again Being the Words of life the Book of Genesis guides us on the path of righteousness

Ministry of Presence and the Lay Pastoral Care Hospice Visitor David Timothy Chapin, Saint Mary's University of Minnesota. Institute in Pastoral Ministries, 2012 The love of God and our Catholic convention compel us to care for the suffering and sick However there is strong evidence of an increasingly secular approach in hospital and hospice care such that the spiritual needs of the dying are not considered A notable example is the firing of the Spiritual Care Directors in the Fraser Health Authority of British Columbia This incident combined with fewer entering ordained ministries and an aging population add urgency to the need to encourage the laity to visit the sick and dying in hospitals and hospices The purpose of this essay is to provide the basis for developing a training program for lay pastoral care hospice visitors The stages of a hospice visit are embodied in a framework for a hospice visit which defines a process that guides the visitor from the doorway to the patient's bedside In the six stages preparation pre approach approach social visit pastoral visit and exit follow up the lay pastoral visitor is taught how to first establish rapport then engage in social conversation and finally focus on Christian concerns during the twenty to thirty minute hospice visit Five themes important for the pastoral visitor to embrace are described God's love for the world God's love for each of us individually the importance of self love boundaries of the volunteer hospice visitor and most important of all the ministry of presence It is hoped that this essay will be used as a foundational document for training lay pastoral visitors

Judaism Buddhism Chinese religion and Aboriginal spirituality A variety of real world examples are presented in case studies of a Buddhist hospice center in Thailand Ugandan approaches to dying with HIV AIDS Punjabi extended family hospice care and pediatric palliative care The work sheds new light on the significance of religious belief and practice at the end of life at the many forms religious understanding can take and at the spiritual pain that so often accompanies the physical pain of the dying person     The Essential Guide to Religious Traditions and Spirituality for Health Care Providers Steven
