Hot Flowers Fatma Durmush, 2011-06-01 Description This is the second volume of diaries by Fatma Durmush. It is a continuation of Nothing Sacred Vol One. The life of a schizophrenic is often far from smooth discrimination ranging from casual encounters on the street or while out shopping extends as far as the structures and processes of the very organizations designed to give help and support to those with mental and physical disabilities. Fatma Durmush shows what can be achieved by those who in former times would have been vastly underrated by and written out of society as irrelevant and who even now have to continue to assert their hard won rights. About the Author For someone who has had to struggle exceptionally hard to achieve some level of success in life, Fatma continues to apply her talents in many different spheres. She acquired a B.A. in the Arts while at the same time exhibiting her paintings in various galleries around London; her plays have been published and performed in Europe and the USA along with the publication of books of stories and poetry some of which have been broadcast on radio here in England. The Greenhouse, Hot House, and Stove Charles McIntosh, 1840
