Kids, Santa Claus doesn't do it alone. He has an army of elves up and down the supply chain, and this week, he enlisted a few more from Health First to hit the shopping aisles for games and toys, electronics and clothes.

It was the 10th Magic of Christmas Toy Drive, a seasonal partnership between Brevard County's leading health system and the South Brevard Sharing Center and Brevard Family Partnership. Tuesday, teams met at the Walmart in Viera; the following day, it was the Target in Melbourne.

"I'm proud of Health First, and this morning just validated why I work for Health First," said Natasha White, IT Business Systems Analyst.

"I have one son, and all year, he has more than enough. I know there are kids who have a whole lot less. When you have so much, why not, during the holidays, give back? That's the whole purpose of the holidays."

"We say that wellness starts with 'we' – we embody that through the ways we can give back," said Paula Just, Chief Experience Officer at Health First.

"It's heartwarming to know that we can bless the lives of the people that we serve in our community. A spirit of giving is part of wellness."

Being Watched Carrie Lambert-Beatty, 2011-02-25 How Yvonne Rainer s art shaped new ways of watching as well as performing how it connected 1960s avant garde art to politics and activism In her dance and performances of the 1960s Yvonne Rainer famously transformed the performing body stripped it of special techniques and star status traded its costumes and leotards for T shirts and sneakers asked it to haul mattresses or recite texts rather than leap or spin Without discounting these innovations Carrie Lambert Beatty argues in Being Watched that the crucial site of Rainer s interventions in the 1960s was less the body of the performer than the eye of the viewer or rather the body as offered to the eye Rainer s art Lambert Beatty writes is structured by a peculiar tension between the body and its display Through close readings of Rainer s works of the 1960s from the often discussed dance Trio A to lesser known Vietnam war era protest dances Lambert Beatty explores how these performances embodied what Rainer called the seeing difficulty As Rainer said Dance is hard to see Viewed from this perspective Rainer s work becomes a bridge between key episodes in postwar art Lambert Beatty shows how Rainer s art and related performance work in Happenings Fluxus and Judson Dance Theater connects with the transformation of the subject object relation in minimalism and with emerging feminist discourse on the political implications of the objectifying gaze In a spectacle soaked era moreover when images of war played nightly on the television news Rainer's work engaged the habits of viewing formed in mass media America linking avant garde art and the wider culture of the 1960s Rainer is significant argues Lambert Beatty not only as a choreographer but as a sculptor of spectatorship ,

My Turn Nancy Reagan,2011-09-14 The former First Lady discusses her life the Reagan administration her shaky relationship with her children and key White House personnel her husband's involvement in the Iran Contra affair and her bout with cancer During our White House years I said almost nothing about how I really felt regarding the controversies that swirled around me But now those years are over and it's my turn to describe what happened About Ronald Reagan Although Ronnie loves people he often seems remote and he doesn't let anybody get too close There's a wall around him He lets me come closer than anyone else but there are times when even I feel that barrier About being a mother What I wanted most in all the world was to be a good wife and mother As things turned out I guess I've been more successful at the first than at the second About her influence I make no apologies for telling Ronnie what I thought Just because you're married doesn't mean you have no right to express your opinions For eight years I was sleeping with the president and if that doesn't give you special access I don't know what does About astrology What it boils down to is that each person has his or her own ways of coping with trauma and grief with the pain of life and astrology was one of mine Don't criticize me I wanted to say until you have stood in my place This helped me Nobody was hurt by it except possibly me About Don Regan His very first day on the job Don said that he saw himself as the chief operating officer of the country But he was hired to be chief of staff Although I believed for a long time that Donald Regan was in the wrong job my power in getting him to leave has been greatly exaggerated Believe me if I really were the dragon lady that he described in his book he would have been out the door many months earlier
