of highly memorable fiction Jacob Ross Second Rain Elise Hempel, 2016-08-29 In Second Rain Elise Hempel gleans anecdotes of uncommon poignancy from the seemingly commonplace and crafts them into memorable poems Family settings and the world of nature are captured and shaped into insight through the poet's discerning eyes here an only child in her room with a lone and captive katydid here a feisty grandmother in the hospital here a father fond of household projects building two swimming pools a basketball hoop in the driveway and transforming the yard into a skating rink This inspirational debut collection charged with nostalgia and longing is fittingly finalist in the 2015 Able Muse Book Award PRAISE FOR SECOND RAIN The apparently domestic poems in Second Rain poems about family gardening dogs birds and a few memorable tigers deliver enough controlled intensity to shake the trees all down A special gift of Elise Hempel's art is to evoke and suggest passions without spelling them out we readers get to unscramble the anagram to find the ache and our own corresponding ache beneath the poised surface Rachel Hadas author of Questions in the Vestibule Elise Hempel's curiosity and insights singled her out as special but her ability to shape her feelings into words remains what I find most unique From the opening title poem on this is a book about the often ignored simple gifts that come to us like the second rain that comes when the first is over that gentle scattering of drops the breeze shakes down from the trees and briefly blesses you Bruce Guernsey from the foreword author of From Rain Poems 1970 2010 From the title poem on Elise Hempel's Second Rain matches form with feeling delivering insights that seem at once inevitable and necessary Her sense of the sonnet its grace and shape lends quiet force to what's remembered and observed from a pet shop crow to memories of now absent loved ones mother daughter conflicts to the ambiguities of language itself Like the flock of geese described in one poem here Hempel's collection succeeds in many different keys James Scruton author of Thrift Through admirably controlled and marvelously controlling language the compressed imagery in Elise Hempel's powerfully compact poems subtly evokes emotional responses while the poet also smartly engages readers with an authentic and persuasive voice Indeed to borrow a phrase from the eighth and final line in the collection's title poem each piece in Second Rain briefly blesses you Edward Byrne author of Seeded Light Never Ending Martyn Bedford, 2014-03-11 A suspenseful tragedy laced with romance Never Ending will take you from the past a steamy vacation in Greece that's cut short by the unfathomable to the present a lake side clinic stay to the truth in between What do you deserve Siobhan I don't deserve to forget he's dead Even for a moment I asked what you do deserve not what you don't I deserve not to be forgiven Shiv's brother Declan her best friend is dead It's been all over the news Consumed by grief and guilt she agrees to become an inpatient at the Korsakoff Clinic There she meets Mikey Caron The others They share a similar torment And there subjected to the clinic's unconventional therapy they must face what they can't bear to see Shiv is flooded with flashbacks nightmares haunting visions of Declan on their last fateful family vacation in Greece And with memories of Nikos the beautiful young man on the tour boat It started there with him beside the glittering sea the beginning of the end The characters and the scenery are rendered with such photographic

The relationship between sleep and storytelling is an ancient one. For centuries, sleep has provided writers with a magical ingredient: a passage of time during which great changes miraculously occur. An Orpheus-like voyage through the subconscious, daubed with the fantastic. But over the last ten years, our scientific understanding of sleep has been revolutionised. No longer is sleep viewed as a time of simple rest and recuperation. Instead, it is proving to be an intensely dynamic period of brain activity, a vital stage in the re-wiring of memories, the learning of new skills, and the processing of problems and emotions. How will storytelling respond to this new and emerging science of sleep? Here, 14 authors have been invited to work with key scientists to explore various aspects of sleep research, from the possibilities of sleep engineering and overnight therapies to future tech ways of harnessing sleep's problem-solving powers to the challenges posed by our increasingly 24-hour lifestyles. Just as new hypotheses are being put forward, old hunches are also being confirmed: there's now a scientific basis for the time-worn advice to sleep on a problem. As these responses show, sleep and the spinning of stories are still very much entwined. Featuring scientific contributions from Prof Russell G Foster, Isabel Hutchison, Dr Simon Kyle, Dr Penny Lewis, Dr Paul Reading, Stephanie Romiszewski, Prof Robert Stickgold, Prof Manuel Schabus, Prof Ed Watkins, Prof Adam Zeman, Dr Thomas Wehr.
