House As Teacher Marilyn Twintreess, Ursula Gurau, Thomas Twintreess, 2002 Describes the spiritual growth experienced by the authors when they built a dome with a pyramid dwelling in Tucson Arizona The New Millennium Spiritual Journey, 1999 Award winning authors priests ministers rabbis and educators invite readers to follow a transformative course of re imagining their life s priorities and purpose leading to their own millennial New Year s resolutions The Spirituality of Welcoming Dr. Ron Wolfson, 2011-06-22 A practical guide for envisioning and transforming your synagogue into a powerful new congregation of welcoming learning and healing The new synagogue we envision is a spiritual center for all those who set foot inside it It is a kehillah kedoshah a sacred community where relationships are paramount where worship is engaging where everyone is learning where repair of the world is a moral imperative where healing is offered where personal and institutional transformation are embraced The times are ripe for this spiritual call from the Introduction So often we want our congregations to be more more compelling more member focused more spiritual and yet more useful for our daily lives Through reflection examples tips and exercises and incorporating the fruits of Synagogue 2000 now Synagogue 3000 a groundbreaking decade long program investigating the challenges facing modern synagogues this inspiring handbook both establishes a sound foundation for why a deep hospitality is crucial for the survival of today s spiritual communities and dives into the practical hands on how of turning your congregation into a place of invitation and openness that includes Prayer that is engaging uplifting and spiritually moving Institutional deepening that is possible because of an openness to change Study that engages adults and families as well as children Good deeds the work of social justice as a commitment of each and every member An ambience of welcome that creates a culture of warmth and outreach Healing that offers comfort and support at times of illness and loss and much more Sacred Space Beverley Jollands, Josephine De Winter, 2002 In this remarkable new book Beverley Jollands shows you how to create beautiful alters and shrines that have special individual significance and which will inspire you to channel your innermost thought and desires into coherent forms of expression Imagining the Academy Susan Huddleston Edgerton, 2005 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company Middle Space Youth Work Loyd Harp, 2022-04-22 A new model of youth work and outreach is emerging across the UK and elsewhere in which churches and faith communities are no longer content to invite outsiders across the great threshold that is the front door of the church On the other hand detached youth work has made great strides into taking the church out into the streets Between these two polarities is nestled a third way Middle Space models carve out space in the middle ground for dialogue relationships safe spaces exchange of ideas not to mention inclusive activities The concept of Middle Space is simple It s not our space nor is it their space but a shared space somewhere in the middle However Middle Space is about much more than simply utilising so called third spaces Rather it s a whole new approach to youth work in which the physical space becomes a metaphor for the youth work itself While the concept is simple it is a profoundly new way of doing youth ministry This book will be the first of its kind in describing and reflecting upon emerging Middle Space models and also giving some tips and insights for best practices moving forward

The Sacred and Its Scholars Thomas A. Idinopulos, Edward A. Yonan, 1996 This volume of essays is devoted to a careful examination of the importance of methodology in the study of primary religious data The essays focus on the Sacred as an ultimate object of descriptive analysis and critical scrutiny on the part of a select number of North American and European methodologists in the study and teaching of the history of religions and its allied disciplines The central question to which the contributors respond are these What is the Sacred Is it a being or a concept of a being is it a mental state or an objective reality or something else entirely Can the Sacred be described as an empirical fact or as a formal rule for religious inquiry If the Sacred is a valid category in the study and teaching of religion then what can be said about the antithesis of the sacred namely the profane or the secular This volume probes these questions with great care in order to justify a number of ways the Sacred can be construed as an indispensable notion for the study and teaching of religion

Blomberg, Sung Wook Chung, 2009-02-01 Many evangelical readers who have learned the basics of eschatology from popular authors and more recently from novelists assume that dispensational premillennialism with its distinctive teachings about the pretribulation rapture of the church is the only reliable view of the end times and the return of Christ This volume however offers a compelling case for an alternative perspective one that was widely prevalent throughout church history The contributors all respected scholars in their respective fields suggest that classic premillennialism offers believers a more coherent and viable approach to understanding eschatology Their studies which examine eschatology from biblical theological historical and missiological approaches provide a broadly accessible argument for returning to the perspectives of historic premillennial eschatology New Catholic Encyclopedia, 1967 The Index ... Benjamin Franklin
