House Made Of Light Essays On The Art Of Film:

A House Made of Light George E. Toles, 2001 An examination of how the escapism offered by movies is really a form of homecoming for the viewer

Irony in Film James MacDowell, 2016-11-09 Irony in Film is the first book about ironic expression in this medium We often feel the need to call films or aspects of them ironic but what exactly does this mean How do films create irony Might certain features of the medium help or hinder its ironic potential How can we know we are justified in dubbing any film or moment ironic This book attempts to answer such questions investigating in the process crucial and under examined issues that irony raises for our understanding of narrative filmmaking A much debated subject in other disciplines in film scholarship irony is habitually referred to but too seldom explored Combining in depth theorising with detailed close analysis this pioneering study asks what ironic capacities films might possess how film style may be used ironically and what role intention should play in film interpretation The proposed answers have significance for our understanding of not only ironic filmmaking but the nature of expression in this medium

The Lasting Influence of the War on Postwar British Film M. Boyce, 2012-02-14 Many of the most celebrated British films of the immediate post war period 1945-55 seem to be occupied with getting on with life and offering distraction for postwar audiences It is the time of the celebrated Ealing comedies Hue and Cry 1946 and Kind Hearts and Coronets 1949 Dickens adaptations and the most ambitious projects of the Archers While the war itself is rarely mentioned in these films the war and the conditions of postwar society lie at the heart of understanding them While various studies have focused on lesser known realist films few consider how deeply and completely the war affected British film Michael W Boyce considers the preoccupation of these films with profound anxieties and uncertainties about what life was going to be like for postwar Britain what roles men and women would play how children would grow up even what it meant and what it still means today to be British

Women and Home in Cinema Louise Radinger Field, 2024-03-14 This book explores visions of home in cinema and the ways in which women inhabit the onscreen realm Looking closely at a range of films made between 1936 and 2013 it examines how filmmakers reconfigure studio sets and real locations through the filmmaking process into mutable onscreen domains imbued with depth metaphor and expressivity The book studies the films through the lens of four filmmaking processes in particular mise en scene sound and editing Close analysis reveals how filmmakers use these cinematic building blocks to shape onscreen worlds charged with emotion and animated by the warp and weft of psychic life Images of home abound in the cinema and women frequently find themselves at the core of both structures Drawing on recent spatial and feminist enquiry the book reviews the idea of home as a fixed and stable location and illustrates how the art of cinema is well equipped to explore home as an imaginary as well as a material realm With its emphasis on film practice as a route into critical reflection this book will be of interest to filmmakers film theorists and those who simply want to understand more about how films work

Fatalism in American Film Noir Robert B. Pippin, 2012 This book reveals the ways in which American film noir explore the declining credibility of individuals as causal centers of agency and how we live with the acknowledgment of such limitations

Hamlet Lives in Hollywood Murray Pomerance, 2017-09-08 This book a collection of fifteen original essays on the film performances and stardom of John Barrymore redresses the lack of scholarship on Barrymore by offering a range of varied perspectives on the actor's work

The Films of Aki Kaurismäki Thomas Austin, 2018-09-06 Despite creating an extensive and innovative body of work over the last 30 years Aki Kaurismäki remains relatively neglected in Anglophone scholarship This international collection of original essays aims to redress such neglect by assembling diverse critical inquiries into Kaurismäki's oeuvre The first anthology on Kaurismäki to be published in English it offers a range of voices responding to his politically and aesthetically compelling cinema Deploying various methodologies to explore multiple facets of his work The Films of Aki Kaurismäki will come to be seen as the definitive book on Kaurismäki

Breaking Bad and Dignity Elliott Logan, 2016-01-26 An ambitious interpretation of the critically celebrated and widely popular crime drama Breaking Bad this book argues that not only should the series be understood as a show that revolves around the dramatic stakes of dignity but that to do so reveals in new ways central aspects of serial television drama as an art form

Contending with Stanley Cavell Russell B. Goodman, 2005-02-10 Stanley Cavell has been a brilliant idiosyncratic and controversial presence in American philosophy literary criticism and cultural studies for years Even as he continues to produce new writing of a high standard an example of which is included in this collection his work has elicited responses from a new generation of writers in Europe and America This collection showcases this new work while illustrating the variety of Cavell's interests in the ordinary language philosophy of Wittgenstein and Austin in film criticism and theory in literature psychoanalysis and the American transcendentalism of Ralph Waldo Emerson and Henry David Thoreau The collection also reprints Richard Rorty's early review of Cavell's magnum opus The Claim of Reason 1979 and it concludes with Cavell's substantial set of responses to the essays a highlight of which is his engagement with Rorty

Playing with Memories David Church, 2009-09-15 Playing with Memories is the first collection of scholarly essays on the work of internationally acclaimed Canadian filmmaker Guy Maddin It offers extensive perspectives on his career to date from the early experimentation of The Dead Father 1986 to the intensely intimate revelations of My Winnipeg 2007 Featuring new and updated essays from American Canadian and Australian scholars collaborators and critics as well as an in depth interview with Maddin this collection explores the aesthetics and politics behind Maddin's work firmly situating his films within ongoing cultural debates about postmodernism genre and national identity

Movie Greats Philip Gillett, 2008-10-15 Movie Greats questions how cinema is ranked uncovers a history of critical conflict with different aesthetic positions battling for dominance Each chapter opens with a brief summary of the film's plot goes on to discuss the historical context the key individuals who made the film initial subsequent popular critical responses

Status Update George Toles, 2021-05-25 A collection of mini narratives that have been posted on Facebook every day since 2009 This book will collect posts from the entire collection in one cohesive volume of work Award winning artist Cliff Eyland and famed writer George Toles combine their unique talents in a book like no other tackling apropos issues related to climate change politics relationships death and sex with wry humour and deft tone Crime Culture Bran Nicol,Eugene McNulty,Patricia Pulham,2010-11-03 By broadening the focus beyond classic English detective fiction the American hard boiled crime novel and the gangster movie Crime Culture breathes new life into staple themes of crime fiction and cinema Leading international scholars from the fields of literary and cultural studies analyze a range of literature and film from neglected examples of film noir and true crime crime fiction by female African American writers to reality TV recent films such as Elephant Collateral and The Departed and contemporary fiction by J G Ballard Kazuo Ishiguro and Margaret Atwood They offer groundbreaking interpretations of new elements such as the mythology of the hitman technology and the image and the cultural impact of senseless murders and reveal why crime is a powerful way of making sense of the broader concerns shaping modern culture and society Cinema Inferno Robert G. Weiner,John Cline,2010-07-17 Cinema Inferno Celluloid Explosions from the Cultural Margins addresses significant areas and eras of transgressive filmmaking including many subgenres and styles that have not yet received much critical attention This collection of essays covers both contemporary films and those produced in the last 50 years to provide a theoretical framework for looking at transgressive cinema and what that means This volume begins with a number of essays that examine the aesthetic of realism tracing it through the late Italian Neo Realism of Pasolini the early films of Melvin Van Peebles and Canadian filmmaker Guy Maddin Another section focuses on 70s Italian horror and thrillers including a substantially different examination of filmmaker Dario Argento as well as essays on critically underrepresented directors Lucio Fulci and Sergio Martino A section on New York looks at both radical independents like Troma and Andy Milligan as well as the social context from which a view of the metropolis in decay emerged Sections also cover the experimental work of the Vienna Action Group and controversial filmmaker Michael Haneke as well as films and genres too idiosyncratic and disturbing to fit anywhere else including analyses of Nazi propaganda films fundamentalist Christian scare movies and postwar Japanese youth films The final essays try to come to terms with a mainstream flirtation with transgressive film and Grindhouse aesthetics Television Aesthetics and Style Steven Peacock,Jason Jacobs,2013-07-04 Although Film Studies has successfully re turned attention to matters of style and interpretation its sibling discipline has left the territory uncharted until now The question of how television operates on a stylistic level has been critically underexplored despite being fundamental to our viewing experience This significant new work redresses a vital gap in Television Studies by engaging with the stylistic dynamics of TV exploring the aesthetic properties and values of both the medium and particular types of output specific programmes and raising important questions about the way we judge television as both cultural artifact and art form Television Aesthetics and Style provides a unique and vital intervention in the field raising key questions about television s artistic properties and possibilities Through a series of case studies by internationally renowned scholars the collection takes a radical step forward in understanding TV's stylistic achievements Terrence Malick and the Thought of Film Steven Rybin, 2012-01-01 Terrence Malick and the Thought of Film explores how the experience of viewing Terrence Malick's films enables imaginative acts of philosophical interpretation Useful for both professional philosophers interested in film and scholars of cinema intrigued by philosophy this book shows the ways Malick's films cast philosophy in new cinematic light Troubled Everyday Alison Taylor, 2017-04-28 Extreme violence in contemporary European art cinema is generally interpreted for its affective potential but what about the significance of the everyday that so often frames and forms the majority of these films Why do the sudden moments of violence that punctuate films like Catherine Breillat's Fat Girl 2001 Gaspar Noe's Irreversible 2002 and Markus Schleizer's Michael 2011 seem so reliant on everyday routines and settings for their impact Addressing these questions through a series of case studies and considering notorious films in their historical and philosophical context Troubled Everyday offers the first detailed examination of the relationship between violence and the everyday in European art cinema It calls for a re-evaluation of what gives these films such affective force and such a prolonged grip on our imagination Lost Souls of Horror and the Gothic Elizabeth McCarthy, Bernice M. Murphy, 2016-10-28 In recent years horror and gothic themes have penetrated mainstream popular culture in a manner unseen since the horror boom of the 1970s Primetime television viewers who before might not have shown interest in such late night fare now happily settle down after dinner to watch zombie or serial killer shows This collection of 54 biographical essays examines many overlooked and underrated figures who have played a role in the ever-expanding world of horror and gothic entertainment The contributors push the boundaries of how we define these terms bringing into the discussion such diverse figures as singer-songwriter Tom Waits occultist Dion Fortune author Charles Beaumont historian and bishop Gregory of Tours and video game designer Shinji Mikami A Companion to Alfred Hitchcock Thomas Leitch, Leland Poague, 2011-03-01 The most comprehensive volume ever published on Alfred Hitchcock covering his career and legacy as well as the broader cultural and intellectual contexts of his work Contains thirty chapters by the leading Hitchcock scholars Covers his long career from his earliest contributions to other directors' silent films to his last uncompleted last film Details the enduring legacy he left to filmmakers and audiences alike Framing Hitchcock Sidney Gottlieb, Christopher Brookhouse, 2002 An engaging look at Alfred Hitchcock's work from all angles culled from an authoritative source of Hitchcock film commentary In its ten-year history the Hitchcock Annual has established itself as a key source of historical information and critical commentary on one of the central figures in film history and arguably one of the most important artists of the twentieth century Fans of Alfred Hitchcock both scholars and general readers alike will be entertained and informed by this selection of writings which offers an overview of the current thinking on the filmmaker and his work The articles span his career and cover a wide range of topics from archeological investigations uncovering new details about his working methods and conditions to incisive analyses of the films themselves The collection begins with rare insights into Hitchcock's early years including his work in Germany and his silent film Easy Virtue which with its metaphoric play on the concept of being framed dramatizes aspects of the human condition to which Hitchcock returned repeatedly. Commentators explore a variety of themes including the centrality of kissing shots and sequences in nearly all the films and images of women's handbags as elements of suspense and sexual tension in such films as Dial M for Murder and Psycho. Other essays examine the influence of Vertigo, The Birds and Frenzy on François Truffaut, the remaking of Psycho and feminist interpretations of Shadow of a Doubt. Interviews with Jay Presson Allen and Evan Hunter illuminate Hitchcock's working relationship with screenwriters, actors and actresses. Written by established as well as emerging critics of Hitchcock, this fascinating collection will help shape future appreciation and interpretation of an enormously important and influential filmmaker.

Enjoying the Song of Appearance: An Mental Symphony within House Made Of Light Essays On The Art Of Film
