Musings on Indian Writing in English: Fiction N. Sharda Iyer, 2003 Black and White Bryan Peppin, 2012-09-10 Bryan was born into an Anglo Indian family in 1952 His schooling was completed in 1968 exclusively in Anglo Indian schools which up to that point in time at least were identifiably Anglo Indian Growing up with an us them attitude the issue was not a real problem until early research work in the field of British Fiction on India brought to Bryan s notice the unchanging negative profiling of the Anglo Indian in books on the theme Full fledged research on the Anglo Indian identity which culminated in a PhD from the University of Madras in 2010 threw up the picture of a minimal human species that combined the worst traits of East and West Since Kipling s refrain was so blindly accepted in the nineteenth century and most of the twentieth century writers both Indian and Western blatantly vilified the Anglo Indian in life as in fiction This book is an attempt to set down an accurate record by examining some of the latest and not so new books on the exclusive subject It also calls to account the horrendous and often unforgivable errors made by some writers and many critics Today more than ever before Anglo Indians are completely at home in India as well as in other parts of the English speaking world It is hoped that in time a clearer more humane picture of the real Anglo Indian will emerge as it must when understanding erases the dark images of the past A Matter of Taste Nilanjana S.
