House That Vanished:

Sonic Thinking Bernd Herzogenrath, 2017-02-23 Sonic Thinking attempts to extend the burgeoning field of media philosophy which so far is defined by a strong focus on cinema to the field of sound The contributors urge readers to re-adjust their ideas of Sound Studies by attempting to think not only about sound by external criteria such as cultural meaning but to think with and through sound Series editor Bernd Herzogenrath's collection serves two interconnected purposes in developing an alternative philosophy of music that takes music serious as a form of thinking and in bringing this approach into a fertile symbiosis with the concepts and practices of artistic research art philosophy and science as heterogeneous yet coequal forms of thinking and researching Including contributions by both established figures and younger scholars working on cutting edge material and weaving artistic responses and interventions in between the more theoretical texts
