House Divided Bridging The Generation Gaps In Your Church:

A House Divided Bob Whitesel, Kent R. Hunter, 2001-02 Generational differences are nothing new in church There have always been groups and subgroups within a congregation divided according to age Yet with the possible exception of their educational programs congregations have generally practiced a one size fits all approach to ministry and worship Whichever group is dominant generally the older members although it can be the younger sets the tone for musical styles preaching emphases and outreach focus Frequently the non dominant groups grow restless and dissatisfied leaving the church to find better opportunities of service and worship elsewhere The result is often stagnation and decline Bob Whitesel and Kent R Hunter wrote this book to provide congregations with a clear understanding of the problems caused by generation gaps as well as to offer ideas for transforming the church into a healthy growing tri generational structure Key Features Author recognition Addresses a very timely issue in a creative way Offers a specific strategy for implementation in local churches Key Benefits Readers will gain an understanding of the major differences between the three major age generational groups in most congregations Readers will be offered a specific and practical seven step strategy for developing a healthy tri generational church Readers will find ways to not only live in peace within the household of faith but to minister more effectively to community and world

The Millennial Narrative Jaco J. Hamman, 2019-02-05 A good education will land you a good job Be an entrepreneur Start something in a garage or dorm room and even Jesus saves are narratives that collapsed for the millennial generation born 1982 2002 These narratives amongst many similar social and religious ones have lost their meaning and power as millennials question all authorities and struggle to flourish in a world come of age With their needs for community and success a strong spirituality and believing that their gifts should be recognized and can make a difference millennials increasingly find meaning and purpose outside the church As they face economic uncertainty reduced career prospects unceasing change as well as civic global and ecological uncertainties however a large number of millennials are overwhelmed with feelings of anxiety and depression Caught between hope and fear millennials leave the church with their values of personal transformation purpose community spirituality social transformation and ecological awareness Ironically the church often holds the same values The Millennial Narrative is written for pastoral leaders who want to welcome millennials both inside and outside their congregation The book draws on the wisdom of the prophetic Book of Joel as a narrative worth living into Drawing on Joel's three chapters The Millennial Narrative empowers pastoral leaders to Facilitate the work of mourning Millennials are facing Envision a spiritual community that can welcome millennials Introduce a compassionate God that restores and indwells as the Spirit Reflect on God's judgment through the lens of accountability and Support and encourage millennials to be a blessing to others In addition pastoral leaders will receive a sermon outline and material for adult education Learning God's Stories Together Dorothy Henderson, 2007-08-25 In this valuable resource Dorothy Henderson explains encourages and enables all ages learning People looking for help in developing an all ages learning program will be heartened by the wealth of practical advice Learning God's Stories Together provides The first part of the book explains the theory and practice of all ages learning Dorothy opens our eyes to its myriad benefits It's fun It builds community It lets us hear points of view from groups we might not normally have a chance to mingle with Dorothy presents her ideas in an easily accessible style that will fit with almost any congregation large or small There is a section describing the five generations that might form an all ages learning group which is interesting and useful and not only for church group use We also learn about the advantages of all ages learning which are many Dorothy provides step by step instructions for setting up all ages learning and ideas to use for our first gatherings The information is complete and inspires us to go ahead and try this if we haven't done it before it will provide depth and insight and new ideas for those who already have all ages learning happening in their church The second part of the book consists of 20 story sessions each of which contains suggestions for gathering for telling and talking about the story and for exploring the story and making it part of your life Again lots of practical suggestions that will appeal to both children and adults Dorothy presents her information in a friendly tone that encourages educators to be enthusiastic about embracing this rewarding style of learning What other institution do you know where five generations come together every week worshipping drinking juice and coffee talking eating doing important mission work and learning together what it means to love God and love a neighbour as oneself The church provides a natural environment for all ages gatherings But as Edward Loper reminds us There was a time not all that long ago when we did not need to intentionally talk about the relationships between generations The relationships were plain for all to see Most of us lived in the context of an extended family Members of several generations lived in a close proximity to one another knew each other and supported each other This is no longer the case It is time once again to become intentional in building connections among the generations

Welcoming Africa's children - Theological and ministry perspectives Jan Grobbelaar, Gert Breed, Stephan de Beer, Nico Koopman, Elijah Mahlangu, Malan Nel, Dirkie Smit, Pieter Verster, 2016-12-31 The purpose of this book is to combine perspectives of scholars from Africa on Child Theology from a variety of theological sub disciplines to provide some theological and ministerial perspectives on this topic The book disseminates original research and new developments in this study field especially as relevant to the African context In the process it addresses also the global need to hear voices from Africa in this academic field It aims to convey the importance of considering Africa's children in theologising The different chapters represent diverse methodologies but the central and common focus is to approach the subject from the viewpoint of Africa's children. The individual authors varied theological sub-disciplinary dispositions contribute to the unique and distinct character of the book. Almost all chapters are theoretical orientated with less empirical but more qualitative research although some of the chapters refer to empirical research that the authors have performed in the past. Most of the academic literature in the field of Child Theologies is from American or British European origin. The African context is fairly absent in this discourse although it is the youngest continent and presents unique and relevant challenges. This book was written by theological scholars from Africa focussing on Africa's children. It addresses not only theoretical challenges in this field but also provides theological perspectives for ministry with children and for important social change. Written from a variety of theological sub-disciplines the book is aimed at scholars across theological sub-disciplines especially those theological scholars interested in the intersections between theology, childhood studies and African cultural or social themes. It addresses themes and provides insights that are also relevant for specialist leaders and professionals in this field. No part of the book was plagiarised from another publication or published elsewhere. NIVAC Bundle 5: Minor Prophets Gary V. Smith, James Bruckner, Mark J. Boda, 2015-11-03. The NIV Application Commentary helps you communicate and apply biblical text effectively in today's context. To bring the ancient messages of the Bible into today's world each passage is treated in three sections: Original Meaning, Concise exegesis to help readers understand the original meaning of the biblical text in its historical literary and cultural context; Bridging Contexts, A bridge between the world of the Bible and the world of today built by discerning what is timeless in the timely pages of the Bible; Contemporary Significance. This section identifies comparable situations to those faced in the Bible and explores relevant application of the biblical messages. The author alerts the readers of problems they may encounter when seeking to apply the passage and helps them think through the issues involved. This unique award-winning commentary is the ideal resource for today's preachers, teachers and serious students of the Bible, giving them the tools, ideas and insights they need to communicate God's Word with the same powerful impact it had when it was first written.

re:MIX Mark DeYmaz, Bob Whitesel, 2016-06-07. re MIX: Transitioning Your Church to Living Color is a practical guide for pastors, denominational leaders and lay leaders who are seeking to transition their monoethnic congregations into healthy multiethnic churches of Christ-centered faith. The book is theologically sound, cross-culturally relevant and based on field research. It provides transferrable lessons and practices that are applicable in a variety of local church and denominational contexts. Authors Mark DeYmaz and Bob Whitesel demonstrate that such transitions are not just timely or optional. Indeed, these biblically grounded transitions are necessary for churches pursuing growth and health in an increasingly diverse society. By becoming a church of living color, existing or declining churches present a more credible witness of God's love for all people and can achieve renewed significance and sustainability. re MIX is full of instructive, immediately useful information in a clear and easy-to-use format and includes sidebar stories from church leaders in a variety of denominations who have Biblical Pastors Were Not and Are Not CEOs. James D. Martin, 2020-06-02 The emergence of the pastor Chief Executive Officer CEO position in churches today has become widely acceptable in Mega and Meta churches Recent studies have not explored this issue David Fisher acknowledges that in the 21st century being a pastor presents major challenges because it leads to professional and personal identity crisis resulting from secular and ecclesial challenges Studies have supported the idea that there is the need for church leaders to adopt the secular models of leadership and several noted authors have shown that churches today have become like other organizations that have to market their products This is a problematic interpretation because leadership in modern churches has gone beyond the biblical and theological definitions of becoming shepherds of their flock and servants of God In the search for an effective pastoral leadership role this paper will explore the contemporary definition of pastoral leadership and compare it with what the scriptures say concerning the elders and servants of God assigned the duty of being shepherds of their flock The Gospel after Christendom Ryan K.

Growth by Accident, Death by Planning Bob Whitesel, 2010-10-01 It is a familiar experience A congregation that had been growing in numbers and spiritual vitality reaches a plateau and then begins to decline Most of the time the plateau occurs long before the church arrives at the optimum number of members it hoped to attract What has happened here Why does growth slow down stop and then decline The real question to ask says Bob Whitesel is why the church grew in the first place Most of the time young growing churches make a series of decisions based not upon careful planning and analysis but rather upon necessity and intuition Thus these decisions are not planned strategies but strategies that often occur by accident owing their genesis to circumstance These unplanned strategic decisions are driven not by knowledge but often simply by the church's environment When that growth slows these same churches begin to engage in more careful planning The problem is that this planning so often ignores the considerations and decisions that led to the church's growth to begin with The result is stagnation and eventual decline In the plain direct style that is his hallmark Whitesel lays out where churches go wrong in their planning for growth and how they can correct themselves He does so by looking at three related phenomena first the factors that cause initial growth second the erroneous decisions that lead to getting stuck on the plateau and finally corrective steps that churches can take to regain growth and vitality
